PROCEEDINGS OF THE CIRCUIT COURT—THE ANNAPOLIS RIOTERS—THE NEW EXPEDITION—ARRIVAL OF TROOPS AND THEIR CONDUCT—DESTRUCTION OF PROPERTY AND THEFTS COMMITTED.

The attention of the Circuit Court was to-day occupied in the trials of criminal cases occurring in this city.

State vs. Thomas Cotter, indicted for assaulting policeman Hubbard and resisting him while in the discharge of his duty. Verdict, not guilty.

State vs. Thomas Holliday, Benjamin Holliday, John Mitchell, Thomas Coulter, jointly indicted, together with Patrick Kennine, William McCrea, Ez kiel Mitchell and Joseph Barber, for rioting at the depot of the Annapolis and Elk Ridge Railroad, in this city, and assaulting Matthew Hammond, the conductor, and other employees of the road, thereby preventing the departure of the train for Baltimore and Washington, alleged to have been committed on the 4th day of July last. Tried before the Court, who adjudged the two Holidays not guilty, but convicted Mitchell and Coulter, and imposed a fine of $5 upon each of them.

State vs. John N. Stewart, indicted for keeping a disorderly house in 1859. Verdict, not guilty.

The new expedition to sail from this port, it is now thought, will rail, transport after transport, as the troops come in and the vessels return, and not in a body as heretofore. Several steamtugs, some of which are laden with shot and shell, are now taking in coal and will leave for Fortress Monroe this evening. A large transport steamer is here preparatory to conveying either one of the cavalry regiments, the 47th Pennsylvania or the 21 Maryland regiments, to Port Royal or some other point on the Southern coast, when a landing has been effected by the Government troops.

As already mentioned, the 2d Maryland and the 47th Pennsylvania regiments reached here on Thursday evening. By ten o'clock the guard house was filled almost to its utmost capacity. While the arrests for drunkenness and disorderly conduct in the streets were being made, one of the Maryland volunteers knocked five of the guard down before they could effect his arrest. This gave vent to many rumors in regard to the affair, one of which was that the guard was compelled to put a bayonet through him before he could be taken—which, of course, was without foundation.

On Friday night one of the privates attached to the 21 Maryland regiment attempted to pass the guard, and not halting when called, was fired at, the ball tearing away his left thumb.

One of the cavalry regiments stationed here have been the horror of the farmers near its camp. Notwithstanding fuel is in great abundance, and large forests convenient to their camp, the men have torn down fences for the purpose of camp-fires, &c. Those who have suffered are Messrs. Hart, Taylor, Welsh, and Mrs. Howard. On the farm of the latter, they tore down and burnt about three-quarters of a mile of post-fence, valued at some four hundred dollars. They have taken sheep and hogs from Mr. Samuel E. Duvall, and killed and consumed the same, without offering any remuneration.

DOMESTIC MARKETS.

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—The market for Western Canal Flour is inactive, owing mainly to the unpleasant state of the weather. Holders are not offering the low grades very freely in consequence of the meagre stock on hand. Trade brands are held higher. Rye is steady at 82 cts. on the dock, and 84 cts. for State, delivered, with limited sales at these rates. Corn is rather firmer—sales of 55,000 bushels at 65 cts. for Western mixed in store, and 66 cts. for do. delivered, mostly at the former rate in store.

The Georgeanna did not leave Old Point until yesterday morning, arriving here about 3 this morning, and left again at 7 on her return. The steamship Baltimore, hence for Havana, went to sea about 2 P M yesterday, and the brig A B Patterson for the Burnside expedition in the afternoon. The Adelaide passed off York Spit a Bremen ship and off the Rappahannock river an Eastern do. both at anchor—supposed bound up. The steamer Louisiana (formerly of the Norfolk line) and six other steamers and canal boats went ashore on the coast of North Carolina during the late storm, and were burnt to prevent their falling into the hands of the Confederates. The crews and troops, it is stated, were taken off by the other vessels. The light-boat inside Hatteras Inlet also went ashore and the crew taken prisoners, and the boat stripped of everything by the Confederates.
