LAW INTELLIGENCE.

FATAL AFFAIR.—Yesterday morning, about daylight, as Sergeant Hall was passing along Eastern avenue, near the corner of Spring street, he discovered a man lying on the pavement in an unconscious state, with a frightful wound on the back part of his head. He was lying on his face, and when turned over, was identified as a man named Francis Harman, a frequenter of the "Causeway." He was removed to the house of a relative living on Bond street, near Gough, and the services of Dr. Monkur procured. It was impossible to revive him, and he continued to sink until evening, when he died. Harman was in the habit of visiting a house of ill-repute kept by a man named Jacob Lancaster, where he was intimate with a young girl named Laura Polk. About one o'clock in the morning he visited the house, but was refused admittance because a number of soldiers were inside. He then attempted to gain admittance by climbing on the roof of a porch, and one of the inmates asserts that she heard him fall to the pavement, a distance of fifteen feet. No one, however, went out of the house to see if he was injured, and he was allowed to remain in his wounded condition until discovered by the policeman. On making an examination of the wound, it was found that his skull was terribly crushed. Several of those in the house have been arrested, and will be held to await the result of the coroner's inquest, which will be held this morning.

A COLLISION AND NARROW ESCAPE.—About a quarter-past six o'clock yesterday afternoon, as car No. 47 of the City Passenger Railway was going west, across Howard street, it was struck into by a burden car of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, which was coming down the track on Howard street at the time. The collision of the two cars caused a fearful crash, but, fortunately, no passengers were hurt. There were in the passenger car about a dozen lady passengers, who were badly frightened, and as soon as the collision occurred they rushed for the door of the car, with a view of leaving it; but upon the assurance of Mr. William Evans, the polite and experienced conductor, that there was no further danger, they resumed their seats. A hole of considerable dimensions was knocked into the passenger car, but not sufficient to incapacitate it for use. An examination of the circumstances attending the disaster showed that the accident was entirely unavoidable, as the driver of the passenger car did not have warning to stop his car; and the brakesman on the burden car was unable to control the movement of his car, in consequence of the velocity of speed acquired by coming down the grade of Howard street, north of Baltimore. Mr. Evans, the conductor of the passenger car, is the oldest conductor in the employ of the company, and this is the first accident that has occurred to his car. His lady passengers, after the occurrence, were quite lavish with their commendations of the coolness which he exhibited at the time of the accident.

ARREST OF A "CONTRABAND."—Upon the arrival at her wharf, on Tuesday evening, of one of the Eastern Shore steamboats, a negro giving his name as Adam Larkin was found secreted on board, and was, by order of the captain of the boat, arrested and sent to the Southern station, with a view of returning him to the military authorities of Eastern Virginia, from whence, it appears, he escaped. He says that he belonged to Major Rayfield, of the Confederate army, who commanded a small body of troops at Drummondtown, Accomac county, Va. Upon the approach of the Federal forces these troops retreated; and the negro, instead of following the fortunes of his master, seized a gun and made his way to the Federal troops. He was employed for some time as the servant of Lieut. Richards, of the 2d Delaware regiment, who, he states, gave him a pass to come North, by order of General Lockwood. He had the pass upon him when captured on board the boat.

THE GUNBOAT PINOLA.—The United States gunboat Pinola has just been finished at this port. She was placed in commission on the 29th instant, and it is expected that she will make a trial trip to-day, running down the Chesapeake as far as the mouth of the Potomac river. All the officers of the Engineer's department are of the opinion that she will make good time, and state that the machinery has been constructed in the best possible manner. The following is a list of the officers:—Lieutenant-Commanding, Pierce Crosby; First Lieutenant and executive officer, A. P. Cooke; Acting Assistant Paymaster, C. S. Warren; First Assistant Engineer, Acting Engineer, John Johnson; Acting Masters, W. P. Gibbs and J. G. Lloyd; Captain's Clerk, W. H Tevis; Third Assistant Engineers, P. A. Sassi, W. F. Law and John Edcrodie; Master's Mates, W. H. Thompson, R. V. Rummell and W. C. White.

JUVENILE THIEVES.—Samuel Johnson, Thomas Riley and James A. Basford, the two former aged 16 years each, and the latter 19 years of age, were yesterday evening arrested upon the charge of stealing about fifty pounds of lead pipe and a number of stop cocks from houses Nos. 277 and 279 West Lombard street. The houses are unoccupied, and one of them belongs to Mr. Lorman and the other one to Mr. Hamilton. The young thieves were caught in the act. They were arraigned before Justice Logan, who, after hearing the evidence in the case, sent them to jill, in default of bail, to await the action of the Grand Jury.

LAUNCH OF A NEW STEAMER.—Mr. J. J. Abrahams has for some time past had a large force of workmen engaged in the construction of a side-wheel steamer for the United States Government, and the finishing stroke has at last been given. This steamer is called the "Paul Jones." Her length is 216 feet, beam 35½ feet, depth 11 feet 10 inches. Her capacity is 500 tons. Should the tide permit, this vessel will be launched from his shipyard, corner of Wolf and Thames streets, at three o'clock this afternoon.

INCREASE OF BUSINESS.—The transportation of freight over the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, from this city to Washington, which had fallen off somewhat within the past week or ten days, has received a fresh impetus and is again becoming immense. The quantity of freight which was yesterday transported equalled that of any preceding day since the blockade of the Potomac.

ENGRAVED LIKENESSES.—From Messrs. Entz & Rashbury, Baltimore street, we have received well executed likenesses of the Hon. John C. Breckinridge, Hon. Jefferson Davis, and Major General John E. Wool. These likenesses are from engravings taken from daguerreotypes by the celebrated Brady, of New York, and are really beautiful specimens of art.

LAID UP.—The brig Montrose, at this port yesterday from Babia, reports that the whaler Learned, of Sag Harbour, was laid up in that port, her captain fearing to venture a voyage in consequence of the frequent captures by Confederate privateers.

FURTHER HEARING.—Charles Hoffman was taken into custody yesterday upon the charge of committing an assault upon Henry Ackenback. Justice Irving released him on bail to appear at a further examination to-morrow.

Amusements

FRONT STREET THEATRE.—New dramas are the rage. They have pushed from the stage the good old comedies, and driven into absolute seclusion the best of tragedies. It may be that the judgment of the present generation is much better than that of the preceding one, or it may be that the tastes of to-day are vitiated. Be the cause what it may, the entertainments at our theatres consist principally in the presentation of modern sensational plays, which, for most part, are weak in plot, immoral in tendency, and perfectly destitute of all heart. The most detestable vices are exhibited with such glittering effects, and such a train of devices, that good, honest Virtue sits back abashed at her own purity. For this infidelity in dramatic affairs we are indebted to the French, as we are to the same nation for infidelity in almost everything. After being disgusted and then sickened by those representations, it is truly refreshing to have an opportunity of witnessing a modern play entirely void of such objectionable features, full of heart and soul, exciting incidents, and natural positions. Functhon, the Cricket, is such a play. Its presentation at Front Street Theatre for the last few nights has been greeted with a confidence and approbation of which it is well worthy. The character of Fanchon (Maggie Mitchell) is natural to the last degree, and it is portrayed with a distinctiveness and simplicity which create the most intense interest. The piece is well cast and the characters admirably sustained. Those who love a pure drama, well played, should not, under any consideration, fail to see Functhon. It will be repeated to-night.

HOLLIDAY STREET THEATRE.—We are glad to perceive that the management, acting on our hint, presents the grand spectacle of "Monte Cristo," which on its former representations attracted overflowing audiences—Mr. Eddy's powerful acting in his various characters always eliciting unbounded applause, while the acting of our favorite, Mrs. Philips, is always received with unmistakeable marks of approbation. Mr. Tilton, in the character of the Abbe, renders it in a truthful manner, and is cordially applauded by his auditors; while the acting of Knight and Bishop, in the comic portions of the play, and Bell, Forrestine and Sylvival scene is an immense affair, abounding in curiosities from the four quarters of the globe. It will be unusually attractive to-night, for in addition to the two smallest dwarfs in the world, Col. Chas. Nestel and Major Littlefinger, "The What Is It," "Albino Family," &c., will be introduced. The military burletta of the "Review," and dances by the pretty Olivia, will conclude this gala entertainment.

JANE CAMPBELL.—This noted woman appeared last evening at the lower saloon of the Baltimore Museum, and in every respect is equal to the expectations which have been impressed on our public by Mr. Barnum's advertisements. She is truly a great curiosity, and really a beautiful girl. The "What is it," and "Albino Family," will remain in Baltimore for two nights more, then return to New York. All these great curiosities will appear on the stage of Kunkel's Opera House to-night in the grand carnival scene of Monte Cristo.

CONCERT.—An amateur concert for the benefit of the poor is to be given at the New Assembly Rooms this evening. The object is a most praiseworthy one, and we hope to see a full house. Reserved seats can be had at the book store of Mr. Henry McCaffrey.

The further trial of the case of the State vs. the Annapolis and Elk Ridge Railroad Company, for the recovery of damages sustained in the loss of a certain negro, was pending before Wm. H. Tuck, special judge, and not concluded.

An effort is being made here to have a new board of directors appointed to superintend the Washington Monument, erected many years since, in Baltimore. The board, at the time of its first appointment, consisted of twenty-seven members, and of these all are now dead except Nathaniel Williams, Esq., of Baltimore. The following is a list of the names of the original members:

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE IN BOSTON.—A fire broke out in Quincy market about five o'clock on Monday morning, and destroyed property to the amount of from $60,000 to $100,000. In consequence of the bad condition of the streets the greatest difficulty was experienced in getting the engines to the fire, even by the aid of extra horses. The building was badly damaged and a large amount of provisions destroyed. The principal sufferers by the fire were as follows: Griffin Crobston, clothiers, fully insured; Messrs. Raud & Scott, and H. H. Bradshaw, stock of canaries and other singing birds, all of which perished; A. Aldrich & Co., insured in Firemen's office; Messrs. Oliver, Ames & Son, and the assignees of Messrs. Nourse, Mason & Co., insured for $35 000, viz: Elliott Insurance office, $10,000; Home, N. Y., $5,000; Springfield, $5,000, Atlantic, of Providence, $5,000; Connecticut, $5,000, and People's, of Worcester, $5,000.

The following American vessels have been sold in Genoa—Ship Mary Storer, of Eastport, to a house in Messina, for $17,000—now called Vencenzo Parmdello; Pelican State, of Bath, to a Genoa house, for $19,000—retains the old name; Carnatic, A2, of Boston, terms not known; Albert Gallatin, A2, of Bath, terms not known; bark Julius Caesar, of Eastport, to a Genoa house, for $16,000—now called Rosa.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF BALTIMORE CITY.—JAMES S. FORBES vs. MARY C. ERVING.—The object of this proceeding is to obtain a decree for the sale of certain property on Gibson street, in the city of Baltimore, for payment of an unpaid balance of purchase money. The bill states that the complainant, on the 11th day of November, 1857, contracted with the defendant to lease to her a certain lot of ground, fronting 18 feet 9 inches on the southwest side of Gibson, (otherwise called Eutaw) street, lying 93 feet 3 inches southeast of Hoffman street, and running back to Morris alley, in said city, for a term of ninety-nine years, renewable, subject to an annual rent of $180, payable semi-annually, and extinguishable at any time for $3,000. That the defendant contracted, in consideration of such lease, to pay the complainant $6,000; and paid to him $3,000 thereof in cash, and for the balance executed and delivered her four promissory notes, dated October 1, 1857, for $750 each, payable 1, 2, 3 and 4 years after date, and her eight promissory notes for the interest to accrue thereon, payable semi-annually. And that the complainant executed and delivered to the defendant a bond of conveyance in the usual form, conditioned for the performance of said contract on his part, and put her in possession of the property. That all of said purchase money notes are overdue and there remain unpaid in the hands of the complainant, three notes for $750 each, payable at 2, 3 and 4 years from October 1st, 1857, and two interest notes for $22.50 each, payable at 42 and 48 months from said date. And that the defendant has removed out of the State of Maryland, and now resides in parts unknown to the complainant. He therefore asks for a decree for the sale of said lot, for the payment of said overdue purchase money notes.

It is thereupon ordered this 23d day of December, 1861, that the complainant, by publication of this order in some daily newspaper of the city of Baltimore, once a week for four successive weeks before the 1st day of February next, give notice to said absent defendant of the object and substance of this bill, and warn her to appear in this court in person or by solicitor, on or before the 5th day of May, 1862, to answer the same, and show cause, if any she has, why a decree should not pass as prayed.
