CITY INTELLIGENCE.

Many statements having been made by those who have not understood the course of Dr. James A. Stewart, as physician to the Baltimore City Jail, we publish, as a simple matter of justice, his reply to Mr. William A. Wisong, Warden of the Jail, only portions of which have heretofore appeared in the city papers.—[Eds. M. N. S.]

BALTIMORE, Jan. 21.

WILLIAM A. WISONG, Esq.,
Warden Baltimore City Jail.

SIR—In reply to the inquiries made by you this morning, having reference to a "resolution" of the City Council, I have only to say that my course as Physician to the Jail, has been regulated in the particulars alluded to, first, by the opinion of Judge Giles, of the United States District Court; and secondly, by the result of an interview with Major Belger, U. S. A., and Quartermaster for this department of the U. S. A.

Judge Giles said, in a conversation held in the latter part of May last, that the United States soldiers confined in the Baltimore City Jail were not United States prisoners, nor were they, he thought, on the same footing with city prisoners not in the army, and that in attending United States soldiers in the jail, I was entitled to remuneration for my services in the same manner as the United States Government had always paid for the medical attendance on United States prisoners in the jail, and that he had no doubt I would be so paid.

Upon application to Major Belger, he at first led me to believe that he would pay whenever I presented a bill, setting forth, in proper form, the name of patients, company and regiment to which they belonged, date of attendance, disease, number of visits, charge per visit, medicine prescribed, and charge for same. This (after a month of careful attendance upon quite a number of United States soldiers in the jail—furnishing them with medicines at my own expense)—I presented to Major B., at his office in the Exchange building, and was told he would not pay one cent, for the reason that the United States Government provided competent surgeons and ample supplies of medicines, &c., for all the soldiers in the service, and that the surgeons were bound to attend them whenever called upon. If I chose, he said, to attend United States soldiers under those circumstances, it was my own lookout.

I therefore declined attending United States soldiers in the Baltimore City Jail, unless they were so ill as to render it a matter of humanity. In those cases I have invariably given such attention as in my judgment the case required.

I will add that having heretofore not thought it necessary to refer this matter to the Board of Visitors of the Jail, (by whom I was appointed,) feeling justified by the authority before quoted; but since the question has been raised by a member of the City Council, I shall refer the whole subject to the Board of Visitors, and be guided in my future action entirely by their wish and advice, irrespective of any other circumstances.

Very respectfully, yours, &c.,
JAMES A. STEWART,
Physician to the Jail.

AND WEATHER.—Fine Sleighing—Yesterday morning, about seven o'clock, snow commenced falling, and during the entire day, and up to a late hour at night, there was a constant, but not a severe, storm. By evening there were three or four inches on the ground, and it was compact. Early in the afternoon sleigh bells could be heard on all the streets and avenues, and those fond of the sport were enjoying it amazingly. The storm interfered seriously with the operations of the city passenger railway cars. Four horses were attached to each car, and it tried the poor animals sorely to draw the cars. Only half the usual number of cars could be run, and these were, necessarily, frequently out of time. As it was snowing all the day, it was impossible to keep the sidewalks clear, and the walking was, therefore, very bad; and on the thoroughfares there was scarcely a person or other to be seen making an intimate acquaintance with the pavement.

VISIT TO THE JAIL.—The joint standing committee on Police and Jail of the City Council yesterday paid an official visit to the jail. The entire building was inspected and the committee expressed themselves very agreeably disappointed at the neat and cleanly appearance everywhere presented, and say that the present condition of the institution contrasts strongly with that which it presented a year ago. Mr. Wisong, the efficient Warden, is a systematic man, and all the regulations of the institution under his charge bear the unmistakable impress of this characteristic. After the inspection by the committee, the gentlemen composing it sat down to a collation prepared by the Warden, to which, it is needless to say, ample justice was done.

AN INCIDENT.—Yesterday morning a guard of soldiers was passing through the city, in search of runaways from the camp, one of whom was taken charge of on Broadway. They had progressed but a short distance, when the prisoner attempted to escape, and started off at a full run. One of the guard pursued and several times commanded him to stop, but no attention was paid to the command. The guard then levelled his rifle and fired, but the shot missed the mark. It had the effect, however, of stopping the runaway, who was again taken in charge and conveyed to camp.

FRONT STREET THEATRE—Fanchon.—This charming and refined piece will be repeated to-night for the last time—Miss Maggie Mitchell appearing in her great part of Fanchon, the Cricket; Mr. S. W. Glenn, our fellow-townsman and impersonator of eccentric comic characters, will render the artistic part of Father Barbeaud with his accustomed excellence. Notwithstanding the inclement weather of last evening the house was crowded in every part. On Saturday afternoon there will be a Fanchon family gathering.

THE UNITED STATES COMMISSIONERS TO THE CONFEDERATE STATES.—Bishop Ames, of the Commission appointed by Secretary Stanton to visit the United States soldiers in the hands of the Confederate authorities as prisoners of war, has arrived in this city en route for Fortress Monroe. Hon. Hamilton Fish, the other Commissioner, is in Washington. It is expected that he will arrive in this city to day, and that the two will leave in the boat this evening.

PASSAGE OF CONFEDERATE PRISONERS.—A squad of Confederate prisoners, nine in number, passed through this city yesterday afternoon en route for Fortress Monroe to be exchanged. They were taken in charge at Camden station, upon their arrival from Washington, by a guard of Federal troops, by which they were escorted down Lombard street directly to the Old Point boat. They were all, apparently, in good health and fine spirits.

SOLDIER SHOT.—On Sunday night, a soldier belonging to the 27th Pennsylvania regiment, was in a house of ill repute on Lancaster street, kept by a woman named Fredericks, where he drew a revolver and commenced flourishing it in a very careless manner, when by some accident it was discharged, and the ball entered his left wrist, shattering it badly. He was taken to camp where the wound was dressed.

REVIEW.—The statement which was published on Saturday morning, to the effect that Mr. R. G. Lumpkin had been arrested and committed to jail upon the charge of assaulting Adam Shenkle, was a misstatement of the facts of the case. It is but justice to Mr. Lumpkin to say that it appears, from undoubted authority, that he was neither arrested nor committed to jail.

LECTURE AT THE MARYLAND INSTITUTE.—The sixth lecture of the course before the Maryland Institute will be delivered this evening by Rev. N. H. Chamberlain. The subject of the lecture will be—"The Sea." In addition to the lecture, and after its delivery, Col. S. S. Mills will deliver a poem from the Russian Anthology, entitled "God."

RELEASED.—Dr. Francis Neale, of St. Mary's county, who was arrested about two weeks since by Government troops, and imprisoned in Washington, has been released from custody and reached this city on Saturday, on his way home.

POSTPONED.—The visit of the members of both Branches of the City Council to Canton grounds for the purpose of viewing a proposed site for the new almshouse, which was to have taken place this morning at eleven o'clock, has been postponed on account of the inclement weather.

ANNIVERSARY MEETING.—The third anniversary meeting of the House of Refuge Sabbath School Association will be held at the First Baptist Church, corner of Sharp and Lombard streets, this evening, at half-past seven o'clock.

FROM MEXICO.—By the arrival at this port of the brig E Baldwin, Capt. Townley, from Vera Cruz, we have dates to the 6th ult.

The combined fleet at Vera Cruz consists of 10 Spanish frigates, 3 French steam frigates, 2 British steam frigates, also 4 men-of-war at Antone Lazardo. Passed going in, 4 large British screw steamers and a Spanish transport.

There were about 7,000 Spanish soldiers in the city—no French or English. When we arrived at Vera Cruz, the Spanish flag alone was flying at the gate on the Mole. On the 6th, the French flag was hoisted at the gate, the English at the southeast, and the Spanish on the northeast corner of the city. There was no flag on the castle we left. There had been a few shots fired at the pickets outside of the town on the Sunday previous to our leaving.

No business doing in the town, the Mexican merchants having all left for the interior. Provisions scarce and very high. Spaniards were making their way out of the interior as fast as possible.

On the Saturday before we left, an extra steamer with a large number on board, sailed for Havana. They arrived from Tampico, and reported having been driven from there. The Spaniards had placed officials in the Custom-House, Post-Office, and other public offices in town.

There were two British vessels at Vera Cruz with cargoes, but could find no one to receive them. The owners, being Mexicans, had left. One was the brig Venus, from Liverpool. The name of the other was not remembered.—New York Tribune, February 3.

The names of the bridge-burners who have been found guilty by court-martial and sentenced to be shot in Missouri, are: John C. Tompkins, William J. Forsley, John Patton, Thomas M. Smith, Stephen Scott, George H. Cunningham, Richard B. Crowder and George M. Pulliam. They have been warned to prepare for execution, and informed that any one who attempts to escape will be immediately shot down.

The New York Herald, in a summary of African news, says: "Mrs. Peter Downing, an aristocratic lady of color, lately married in New York, had just died in Monrovia.

During the last eight months there have been received and sent from the War Department, independent of the headquarters of Gen. McClellan, over 4,000 messages to and from the various camps and different sections of the country.
