SUPPLEMENT
TO THE MARYLAND GAZETTE.

ANNAPOLIS, MAY 31, 1770.

TO BE SOLD,
LIKELY young Negro Man, about Twenty-three Years of Age, has worked at the Black-smith Business about 9 or 10 Years, is a good Sadler, very active, supple, and an orderly well behaved Fellow, sold for no Fault, only that his Master declines the Business. Enquire of the Printer.

THE Manufacturer of TOBACCO and SNUFF, at Bladensburg, once more addresses the Public, but particularly the Gentlemen Merchants, Factors, &c. acquainting them, that he is desirous to furnish them with Snuff, in the Wholesale Way; and to prevent Disappointments, he requests them to send their Orders to him, as soon as possible, for this Reason, probable he may enter into such Engagements, as will effectually hinder his supplying them with the Quantities they may want.

It may not be improper to acquaint those Ladies and Gentlemen who live remote from the Manufactory and are desirous of becoming Customers, that he makes plain Scotch, Rappee, Spanish, and high toast Snuff, and many Sorts of those different Kinds. In these Times of Oppression, when Patriotism is the Theme of every Lover of his Country, it is hoped that the Want of Bottles will be no Obstacle to the Sale of his Snuff, which he purposes to pack up in Country made Pots, when his present Stock of Bottles is exhausted.

He has the Pleasure to acknowledge himself much obliged for the Favours received from his good old Customers, and is anxious to merit a Continuance of their Correspondence with

Their very humble Servant,
RICHARD THOMPSON.

It is said a certain Paper was, on Monday, censured by a very high Assembly.

The following is an Extract of a Letter from a Passenger on board the Sally Brig, who, with the Captain, Mate, and two Boys, are now confined at the Groyne, under Pretence that they had been taking a Plan of the Harbour and Fortification of Vigo in Spain.

Groyne, Dec. 18, 1769.

"This comes to acquaint you, that after a long and troublesome Journey of eight Days (from Vigo) we got here, and are imprisoned in an Island separate from the Town, and have not spoke to the Consul General, nor the Vice Consul, nor any other Person; neither are they suffered to come and see us. We came here very wet, and were put in Prison in that Condition; we had nothing to lie on but a bare Floor for three or four Days, and now have a Handful of Straw, which is as dear as Feathers in England. These are the Hardships which we now undergo, and what we shall suffer more God only knows; I know not. My Service to the Consul at Vigo. When you write to me desire the

One of the Noblemen summoned to Court, to be present on the Delivery of the City Remonstrance, was asking another Nobleman what they were sent for thither, to which he replied, "Why to be sure, my Lord, to have a Sight of the horned Cattle!" "Nay, my Lord, (returned the other) if I may judge of some of our Fraternity whom I see amongst us (looking earnestly at a noble Duke) I should rather imagine the Citizens came here for that Purpose."

March 21. We are informed, that if any more Notice should be taken of Lord Chatham's Words in the House of Peers, respecting the Dismission of the late Lord Chancellor (Camden) that those Two Noblemen have so concerted Matters as to produce Proofs of the Truth of his Assertion.

It is reported, that in a Conference his Majesty had lately with Lord Chatham, that Nobleman told him, that he should think himself obliged at all Times to stand up in Defence of his M——y's just Rights; but quired other Stuff to make Statesmen of, than seems to be in Demand at present; as in those Days neither my L—d G——r, nor my L—d S——, nor my L—d W——, nor even R——d R——y, would have had much Chance for Employment.
