

On this Occasion, the Members of his Majesty's Council, the City Corporation, the Corporation of the Chamber of Commerce, the Corporation of the Marine Society, and most of the Gentlemen of the City and Army, waited on his Honour the Lieutenant Governor in the Fort, at his Request, where their Majesties and other loyal Healths were drank, under a Discharge of 52 Pieces of Cannon from the Battery, accompanied with a Band of Musick. This beautiful Statue is made of Metal, richly gilt, being the first equestrian one of his present Majesty, and is the Workmanship of that celebrated Statuary Mr. Wilton of London. We hear that in a few Days a Marble pedestrial Statue of Mr. Pitt will be erected in Wall-Street.

PHILADELPHIA, August 16.
Extra of a Letter from Manchester, dated June 2.
The Winds have been contrary for a long Time; as soon as they come about, we expect to hear your Resolutions. Hitherto it has fallen out, unfortunately, I think, to the future Prosperity, Concord and Liberties of Great Britain and her Colonies, that your patriotic Resolutions have been chiefly inconvenient to the best Friends of America. The People engaged in the Home Trade, the African Trade, and that to the Northern Parts of Europe, have had more than they could do. All that was in the Power of the Friends of Liberty here to do has been done, but the Torrent of Corruption was too strong. Whether any Thing better is to be expected from the next Year, is, I think, extremely doubtful.

Capt. May, from Lisbon, on his Passage, spoke with a Schooner from Cadiz, for Boston, the Master of which informed him, that a Fleet of 18 Swedish Men of War were lying at Cadiz, but the Place of their Destination was not known, though it was thought by many People they were going to join the Russian Fleet.

Translation of a Letter from a Gentleman in Paris to his Friend in Philadelphia.

We entertain every Day higher and higher Ideas of the British Colonies in America. We trust you will continue your nobis Struggle for Liberty, and that you will be the Means of exciting the Emulation of this old Continent, where every Thing is going to Ruin. The only Thing in which I can serve you here is to spread your Fame through this Part of the World; for most of your illustrious Patriots have immortalized themselves already, in their own native Country. The Names of Franklin, Dickinson, and many others, are already engraved in such indelible Characters in the Book of Fame, that no Age, however remote, shall be silent in their Praise. Happy should I be, could I but behold your Country in this the Spring of its Greatness. I cannot help holding up to my Eyes an enchanting Prospect with regard to its future Grandeur. Imagine I see illustrious Statesmen, eloquent Orators, with Historians, and learned Philosophers, rising up among you, whose generous Souls have espoused the Interests of Humanity, and are spreading the Blessings of Liberty throughout the World around them.
