CITY INTELLIGENCE.

MR. J. WILKES BOOTH—Our citizens will shortly have an opportunity of witnessing a great treat in the performance of this young gentleman, who has all the fire and intellect of his late lamented father. He has been starring but a short time, yet he has achieved the most complete success. Mr. Booth is tall, of a commanding figure, very handsome, and possesses a rich musical voice. The Western papers speak in the highest terms of his masterly rendition of Shakspere's most difficult characters, and as he is a Baltimorean by birth, we bespeak for him a hearty welcome.

LECTURE—Rev. Dr. Henkle will this evening deliver a lecture at the Charles Street Methodist Episcopal church. The tickets of admission are twenty five cents. The lecturer has a good reputation, and the subject which he has chosen will not fail to attract a fair audience. Subject—"The Extinct Race of Mississippi Bargemen."

RELEASED ON PAROLE.—Mr. Robert Renwick, of this city, who has for some time past been confined in Fort Warren as a political prisoner, arrived here on Tuesday last, having been released upon his parole to report himself at Fort Warren at the expiration of thirty days.

LAKE ICE—Mr. Suter, the Water Engineer, offers for sale a quantity of ice, of six inches thickness, which has formed upon the lake of the Baltimore Water Works, at the Relay House. The facilities for transportation are excellent, and the ice is of a good quality.

COMMENCEMENT.—The twenty-second Annual Commencement of the Baltimore College of Dental Surgery will take place at the New Assembly Rooms this evening.

Amusements.

HOLLIDAY STREET THEATRE.—Three excellent pieces are announced for representation at this popular theatre this evening, the thrilling romantic drama of the Avenger, in which Mr. Eddy will appear in his great character of John Di Procida. Mrs. Farren will also appear in the interesting character of Rose Redland, in the beautiful drama of the Robber's Wife, Mr. Eddy sustaining the character of the rollicking Irishman, Larry O'Gig, supported by Mr. Tilton and the entire company. Two dances by the pretty Olivia and the new farce of a Regular Fix, with Bishop as Hugh De Brass will conclude this attractive programme.

A GREAT ATTRACTION.—The bill which is offered by Kunkel's Nightingale Opera Troupe at the Baltimore Museum to-night is a rare combination of attractions, and should not fail to draw a crowded house, not only on account of the entertainment offered, but because it is the occasion of the annual benefit of Mr. A. Cassedy, the agent and treasurer of the company, than whom a more deserving person cannot be found in the profession. During the time that Mr. Cassedy has catered for the amusement-seekers of Baltimore, he has fully sustained his reputation as a manager of places of public amusement, and has gained a host of friends, who will not fail to give him a "bumper" on this occasion. The following is a synopsis of the bill offered: "Gideon's Band," the Opera of "Ernani," "Scenes in a Railroad Car," the "Irish Ambassador." All of Barnum's curiosities will appear in the carnival scene of the "Court of Monte Cristo."

FRONT STREET THEATRE.—Mr. and Mrs. Barney Williams will appear to-night in three of their excellent pieces. The Fairy Circle; Barney, the Baron, and The Customs of the Country, will be reproduced, and they will amply bear repetition. Those who have not seen Mrs. Williams in her protean conceptions, should avail themselves of the opportunity which will be afforded them during the present engagement. On to-morrow (Friday) evening there will be a joint benefit for Mr. and Mrs. Williams, when the most popular entertainment of the engagement will be presented. Don't forget the benefit.

ON Monday night last the building in which the Local News was printed at Alexandria was set on fire. The contents of the office and building were destroyed, together with an adjoining three-story brick dwelling.
