CITY INTELLIGENCE.

DEDICATION OF THE FOURTH PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.—The new house of worship recently erected at the southwest corner of Fayette and Carey streets, for the use of the congregation of the Fourth Presbyterian Church, was yesterday dedicated to the service of the Almighty by appropriate religious exercises. A large audience was present to participate in the interesting exercises. There were three sermons preached, the first of which was delivered by Rev. Dr. Backus, of the First Church, at eleven o'clock; the Rev. Dr. Dickson, of Westminster Church, preached at four o'clock in the afternoon, and Rev. Dr. Smith, of the Second Church, at half-past seven o'clock in the evening. This edifice occupies a most eligible site, being in a retired and beautiful portion of the city, and immediately fronting on Franklin Square. It is an imposing structure, of the early English Gothic style of architecture. It is constructed of alum limestone marble, and the style is that of marble range work, with hammered dressing, prepared by Mr. Whitelaw. The dimensions of the building are about 66 by 90 feet, while those of the lot are 72 by 110 feet. The basement is divided into a capacious Sunday School and Lecture room, capable of holding five hundred persons, a room for the use of the pastor, library, &c., and a vestibule, communicating by stairways with the vestibule of the audience-chamber above. The arrangements of the Sunday-school room for light, heat and ventilation are ample. In the audience-chamber there are six rows of pews, divided by spacious aisles, and capable of seating 700 persons. There is an organ-gallery above the vestibule, gained by stairways on either side; and near the pulpit are transepts so constructed that side-galleries may be put up in after years, if needed. This church has for some time past been under the charge of Rev. J. A. Lefevre, whose ministrations have proved quite acceptable to the congregation, and there has been an increase of the membership. The congregation formerly worshipped in the small church on Baltimore street, opposite the residence of Mr. Thomas Winans, and which was afterwards purchased by that gentleman and converted into a soup-house.

A WOMAN STABBED.—Samuel Abbot was taken into custody yesterday morning, upon the charge of stabbing Martha Sands, with intent to kill her. The particulars of the occurrence are that Abbot, yesterday morning, entered the public house of Stephen H. Jury, No. 213 Light street, and demanded something to drink, this being refused him a difficulty arose, during which Abbot drew a knife and inflicted a severe stab upon the woman Sands, the knife entering the inside of her left thigh. Dr. Carter attended her and dressed her injuries. She is the wife of one of the Zouaves, on Federal Hill. Abbott was taken before Justice Showacre, who committed him to jail, in default of bail, to await the action of the Grand Jury.

A SOLDIER DISCHARGED FROM SERVICE.—John Taylor, a private of Company K, First Maryland regiment, was before Judge Giles on Saturday last in obedience to a writ of habeas corpus, which had been previously issued upon the application of his father, John P. Taylor, who alleged that his son was a minor at the time of his enlistment in the service of the United States Government as a soldier, and that he did so without the consent of his parent. The writ was directed to Col. Morris, commandant at Fort McHenry. The evidence elicited at the examination on Saturday sustained the allegations of the petitioner, and Judge Giles discharged the soldier, upon condition that his father should pay all costs in the case and deliver up all property of the Government in possession of his son.

HONORABLY DISCHARGED.—On Saturday afternoon the case of Mr. Jerome Pendergast, charged with shooting at officer Pierce, with intent to kill, was disposed of by Justice Nalls. All the evidence elicited went to prove that Mr. Pendergast, throughout the entire difficulty, acted with prudence, and at last, in self-defense, was compelled to draw his revolver and fire. Archibald Stirling, Esq., States Attorney for the city, was present at the examination, and was satisfied that Mr. Pendergast acted purely in self-defense. He was accordingly honorably discharged.

THE POLICE COMMISSIONERS AND THEIR PAY.—A statement which appeared in a morning paper a few days since to the effect that the directors of the Farmers' and Planters' Bank of this city had held a meeting and resolved not to recognize any longer the check of the Board of Police Commissioners in consequence of the expiration of the term of service of Messrs. Howard and Davis, was a mistake. The facts of the case are that the bank officers have come to the conclusion not to pay the check of the Commissioners, because Mr. John Lee Chapman, the Acting Mayor, had notified them that they must make no further payments to the Commissioners.

ACCIDENT TO A NEWSBOY.—William Johnson, a newsboy, met with a painful accident on Saturday last. He was skating upon the sidewalk on Baltimore street, when he struck the toe of a young man who was passing at the time, causing them both to fall upon the pavement, by which two bones of the right leg of the boy were fractured below the knee. He was picked up and carried into the store of Mr. Hanna, corner of Baltimore and St. Paul streets, where Dr. Dunbar was called to adjust the fracture. This being done he was placed in a hack and taken to his home on Madison alley.

THE GOVERNMENT HOSPITALS.—The following is the report of the two Government Hospitals in this city for the past week. There were admitted at the Adams House 20 patients, 13 returned to duty and 1 was discharged from the service, leaving 75 in the hospital. At the National Hotel 10 were admitted, and 17 returned to duty, leaving 200 patients in the house. One died during the week at the last named place—Allen C. Reiser, a member of company A, First Virginia regiment. He was buried at Loudon Park Cemetery, in the Government lot.

THEFT OF SHOES.—Catharine Kresen was arrested on Friday night upon the charge of stealing a pair of shoes from Felix Morgan. She was taken before Justice Bain, who committed her to jail in default of bail to answer the charge before the Grand Jury. Her husband, Christian Kresen, was taken into custody upon a similar charge, and released on bail to await the action of the Grand Jury. Each pair of shoes was valued at 62 cents. Felix Morgan was committed in default of bail to testify against the accused.

SEVERE ACCIDENT.—Yesterday afternoon Mrs. Gourd, living on Valley street near Eager street, met with an accident by which she broke both her arms. She was about stepping from the porch in front of her door, when she slipped and fell forward, and in her endeavors to save herself threw her arms out in front of here she fell on the pavement with such violence, however, that she broke both arms, her right at the wrist, and her left one near the elbow. Dr. Mahon was called in and set the limbs.

INJURED BY THE FALL OF AN EMBANKMENT.—Lewis Dulaney, employed in making excavations for the grading of the route of the Catonsville Passenger Railway, received a severe contusion of his left knee, one day last week, by an embankment of earth falling upon him. He was brought to the Lombard street Infirmary on Friday evening, where he is now receiving the attention of Dr. Millholland, the resident physician.

LECTURE.—To-night the Rev. J. McK. Reiley, D.D., will deliver a lecture in the Exeter street Methodist Episcopal Church. Subject—"Bishop Asbury's Cavalry." Dr. Reiley has delivered several lectures during the present winter, and has exhibited great talent as a lecturer. The interesting subject which he has selected for his present lecture, is an inducement to attend and no doubt there will be a large audience.

THE SUMTER AGAIN.—The ship Macaulay, Capt. Rodgers, of Baltimore, arrived at Genoa on the 25th ult., from New York. Capt. R. writes home that off the harbor of Genoa he was boarded by the Confederate war-steamer Sumter, but that on learning that his ship sailed from Baltimore the Captain of the steamer allowed him to proceed.

THEFT.—Stephen Hammond, negro, was arrested on the charge of robbing the money drawer of the grocery store of Frederick Colton, corner of East and Hillen streets. When arrested forty-one cents were found in his pocket. He was committed to jail for Court.

NO SONGS TO BE SOLD IN THE STREET.—An order was issued on Saturday morning last directing the policemen to stop the sale of songs in the streets, by boys. They are to warn the boys, and if they persist in selling them, they are to be arrested. What disposition is to be made of those arrested could not be learned.

FIRE.—About twelve o'clock on Saturday night the smoke-house of Mr. Hines, Southeast corner of Paca and Warner streets, was discovered to be on fire. Officer Watts broke open the place and succeeded in extinguishing the flames without giving a general alarm. The property was uninsured.—The loss is estimated at $100.

FOR EUROPE.—Among the passengers in the steamer Hansa, which sailed from New York on Saturday for Southampton and Bremen were Messrs. Math. Bersch and Theodor Weber, of Baltimore.

ARREST OF A THIEF.—On Saturday morning a noted thief, known as English Jim, was arrested on the charge of picking a gentleman's pocket in Philadelphia of $800. He was sent on to that city on Saturday evening.

Amusements.

HOLLIDAY STREET THEATRE.—Though years have passed since the elder Booth delighted and awed his audiences by his grand personations of character, the impression of his earnest, life-like representations, indelibly impressed, are a source of enjoyment, and the most pleasant remembrances connected with the stage are those in which Junius Brutus Booth bore the most prominent part. At his death the histrionic art lost one of its ablest exponents, and the lovers of tragedy their favorite personator. With the death of Mr. Booth, however, his genius did not expire. In his son Edwin the father has reappeared, and a fond public, with heartfelt earnestness, has given its seal of approbation to the son's efforts. Now the public is called on to sit in judgment on the efforts of another son, who is striving to deserve the favor which was once so lavishly bestowed upon his father. J. Wilkes Booth will to-night essay the character of Richard III. Mr. Booth for several years past has been playing in the Western and Southern theatres, where he acquired an enviable professional reputation, and he now returns to the city of his nativity, and asks favor or censure, as he may deserve. He will be ably supported by Mrs. Farren and Mr. Tilton, and also by Miss Annie Grahame. The latter lady will make her first appearance in Holliday Street to-night. She is engaged for juvenile business, a particular line which has been sorely neglected in this theatre during the present season. Let there be a large, attentive, patient and generous audience to-night, as an evidence that the Baltimore public still remembers with pleasure the name of Booth.

FRONT STREET THEATRE.—During the past week Front Street Theatre has been crowded to its utmost capacity by fashionable audiences, to witness the unsurpassed delineations of Irish and Yankee character by Mr. and Mrs. Barney Williams. To-night an original burlesque, written expressly for Mrs. Williams, will be produced, with new scenery and transformations by Mr. C. Getz. It is entitled The Magic Joke, or Prince Doloroso. Barney appears in the Limerick Boy, as Paddy Miles; and both of them appear in Irish Assurance and Yankee Modesty. These attractions cannot fail to fill the house to overflowing.

MUSEUM.—The Museum last week was filled each night with a crowd of admirers of the Nightingale Troupe; and on Thursday, the occasion of the benefit of Mr. Cassedy, a large number of eager patrons were turned away, unable to gain admission to the entertainment. To night the elegant Ravel pantomime of the "Black Statue" will be produced in addition to various new songs, new acts, &c., &c. Those who desire a really humorous entertainment should attend the Museum to-night.

LAW INTELLIGENCE.

CRIMINAL COURT—JUDGE BOND.

Archibald Stirling, Jr., State's Attorney, prosecuting.

This Court was, on Saturday, engaged with the following business:

The jury in the cases of George Kirby and Fletcher Mann, tried on Friday upon indictments charging them jointly with conspiring to extort money from Louis L. Turrill, of New Jersey, and separately with assaulting and falsely imprisoning, came into Court and rendered a verdict of "guilty of a common assault." Kirby was then fined $1 and costs and sent to jail for six months; Mann was fined $20 and costs.

Dominico Gatto and Thomas Bauwick, charged with assaulting each other. They were discharged upon condition that each party should pay the costs in his own case.

W. H. T. Sadler, colored, charged with assaulting Mrs. Catherine Fisher.

James Farrington, charged with assaulting his wife and William Douse. Under curia.

The Court then adjourned till this morning at 10 o'clock.

CITY CIRCUIT COURT—JUDGE KREBS.

Doft vs. Taylor and wife. Bill to enforce a claim against the separate property of a married woman.

Hubballvs. Hester Ann Taylor, &c. Decree in favor of complainant making a married woman's property liable for a debt contracted in the improvement of her separate property.

SUPERIOR COURT—JUDGE MARTIN.

Moore vs. Springer & Friedenrich, garnishees. Before reported. Not concluded.

Assignment for to-day from Nos. 722 to 765 inclusive.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS—JUDGE KING.

Ginter & Kelly, garnishees, vs. H. Greentree.—Before reported. Judgment reversed.

Chandler vs. Cuba Smelting Company, garnishees. Before reported. Motion to strike out judgment overruled.

Assignment Nos. 78 to 100.

COURT OF APPEALS OF MARYLAND.

DECEMBER TERM, 1861.

ANNAPOLIS, February 14th, 1862.—No. 11. John W. Garrett and others vs. Henry May and others. Appeal from the Equity side of the Superior Court of Baltimore city. This case was further argued by Robert J. Brent for the appellees and by Reverdy Johnson for the appellants.

No 15. Continued by agreement.

No. 22. The appeal has been dismissed by order of the appellant.

No. 13 will be submitted on written arguments. The cases next in order are Nos. 12, 14, 16, 17 and 18.

VALUABLE LAND IN ALLEGANY COUNTY, FOR SALE.
A TRACT OF LAND called TREASURE GROVE, containing about SIX THOUSAND ACRES, originally granted to John W. Pratt, on the 3d day of March, 1801, and resurveyed for the Hon. Thomas G. Pratt about the year 1836. It is situated about 18 miles east of Cumberland, on the great National Road which traverses the property. Wheat, Oats and Indian Corn grow admirably in this region. It is also admirably suited to Sheep raising. There are several Farms opened and cleared upon the land and now under rent. The tract, however, is principally wooded with large Oak and Pine timber, which can easily be transported over a road gently sloping to the Chesapeake and Ohio Canal and the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, which run within 3 miles of the southern boundary of the tract.
In the centre of the tract are several remarkably fine Sulphur and Iron SPRINGS of different strengths, issuing from a small valley within a few yards of each other. These, with another Sulphur Spring in the same vicinity, have for years been known and resorted to first by the Indians and afterwards by the Hunters for their Hygeian qualities. A few miles off across the mountain is a very fine IODINE SPRING, which is well known in the neighborhood and is remarkably adapted to the cure of all cutaneous diseases.
The whole is offered for sale at very low rates and on long credit, as it will be divided into SMALL FARMS of sizes to suit purchasers. Apply to

CEPHALIC PILLS

CURE

SICK HEADACHE,

CURE

NERVOUS HEADACHE,

ALL KINDS OF HEADACHE

By the use of these Pills the periodic attacks of Nervous or Sick Headache may be prevented; and if taken at the commencement of an attack immediate relief from pain and sickness will be obtained.

They seldom fail in removing the Nausea and Headache to which females are so subject.

They act gently upon the bowels—removing Costiveness.

For Literary Men, Students, Delicate Females, and all persons of sedentary habits, they are valuable as a Laxative, improving the appetite, giving tone and vigor to the digestive organs, and restoring the natural elasticity and strength of the whole system.

THE CEPHALIC PILLS are the result of long investigation and carefully conducted experiments, having been in use many years, during which time they have prevented and relieved a
