DISCHARGE OF A CANNON—Three Men Wounded.—On Saturday, about 1 o'clock, a cannon bursted at the foot of Washington street and three persons were injured, fortunately, however, none seriously. An association known as the "Canton Wreckers" were firing a salute of one hundred guns. Ninety-nine rounds were fired, and it was determined that the hundredth should be a terrific one. For this purpose a piece of sod was used as wadding, and it was rammed home with great force. When the match was applied the gun bursted and the fragments flew in all directions. One piece struck a young man named Edward North on the left leg near the knee, tearing away the flesh and a piece of bone. A piece of the metal struck Jas. Boyer near the shoulder, inflicting a painful wound, and Wm. Long had his face badly burnt by the powder. North was taken to his home, No 171 Washington street, where Dr. Dwinelle dressed the wound. The others received medical attention. Considering the number of persons near the gun at the time of the explosion, the wonder is that not more were injured.

TEARING DOWN THE UNITED STATES FLAG.—Yesterday evening quite an excitement was occasioned on Baltimore street, near South street, caused by the action of a young man named Frank Black. Mr. Black and several friends were in Mann's Eating House, when the servant placed the caster on the table, in the top of which a small American flag was sticking. Black pulled the flag off the castor and threw it out of the window. The police were informed of the affair and went in pursuit of Black, who had entered a building across the street and had taken refuge in the yard attached to it, where he was arrested and taken to the Central police station and there confined. Two of the rooms of the building into which Black went are occupied as cub rooms. The police entered these rooms and searched them. Photographs of Jeff. Davis, Beauregard and other Southern Generals were found, but nothing that would compromise any member of the clubs.

VIOLENT AND OUTRAGEOUS ASSAULT.—On Saturday night Dr. John Mann was beaten in a most outrageous manner by a party of soldiers and citizens. He entered a restaurant, corner of Howard and Saratoga streets, where there were a number of persons, and one of them pointed at the Doctor and remarked, "there is a secessionist." A soldier wearing a Zouave uniform stepped up to him and said that he was a fighter, and could whip any secessionist in the city, and at the same time struck the Doctor in the face with a tumbler. The Doctor then left, but the party followed him, attacked him in the street and beat him badly. Such proceedings are in the highest degree reprehensible.

CHARGE DISMISSED.—A few days since some persons tied a small American flag to the awning-frame in front of the News Sheet office. On Saturday morning, after the large flag had been displayed from the window of the office, one of the clerks, named John A. McNulty, was in the act of taking down the small flag, and upon cutting the string the flag dropped in the street. Some parties charged him with throwing it there, and a policeman arrested him, and he was confined in the Central police-station. As soon as the facts were made known to Deputy-Marshal McPhail, he ordered his release and dismissed the charge.

DEATH OF A WELL-KNOWN HOTEL PROPRIETOR.—Mr. William Guy, of Guy's Monument House, in this city, died quite suddenly at his residence on Saturday morning last. He had been in apparently good health until Friday evening, when he complained of being unwell and retired at an early hour. During the night he grew worse and although medical aid was summoned, he continued to fail and at half-past six o'clock in the morning expired. His disease was congestion of the brain. He was in his forty-sixth year, and was widely known as an epicurean caterer.

FLAG PRESENTATION.—On Saturday afternoon last a handsomely-weighty flag was presented to the 5th Maryland regiment, Col. W. L. Schley, in the presence of a large number of the friends of those composing the corps. The gift was the handiwork of a number of lady friends, and the ceremony took place at the Maryland Institute.

CHARGE OF STEALING.—Catharine Chase, colored, was taken into custody upon the charge of stealing $11 from Mrs. Thorpe. She was arraigned before Justice Logan, who sent her to jail in default of bail to await the action of the Grand Jury.

OLD DOMINION STEAMBOAT COMPANY.
FOR FREDERICKSBURG, VIRGINIA, AND LANDINGS ON THE RAPPAHANNOCK RIVER.
The steamer VIRGINIA, Captain J. Fairbank, leaves Baltimore, from her berth, at Needham's pier, Light street wharf, EVERY FRIDAY AFTERNOON, at 4 o'clock, and returning leaves Fredericksburg EVERY TUESDAY MORNING, at 8 o'clock, or immediately after the arrival of the train of cars from Richmond and Washington. Stopping at all the regular Landings on the Rappahannock river going and returning, to land and receive freight and pass engers.
THE VIRGINIA
is comparatively new, and was built by merchants of Fredericksburg and Baltimore, interested in the trade, and by merchants and farmers residing in the counties bordering on the Rappahannock, for the express purpose of keeping a first class steamer on the route. During the winter the forward deck has been enclosed, thus affording complete protection for freight and other live stock. Carriages of all sizes can be taken on board and carried under deck without taking off the wheels. Her staterooms and berth accommodations are large and commodious, and her capacity for freight extensive. As a passenger and freight boat she is superior on the waters of the Chesapeake.
Thankful for the patronage received in Baltimore, and close attention to business, to our NEW ESTABLISHMENT, No. 38 West Baltimore street, where we are manufacturing to order PICTURES, PORTRAIT AND LOOKING GLASSES, GILT WORK of every variety. Also importing LOOKING-GLASS PLATE.
Orders entrusted to our care will be carefully and punctually executed on very accommodating terms.
