CITY INTELLIGENCE.

ANNUAL ELECTION OF THE NORTHERN CENTRAL RAILWAY.—The annual election for stockholders' Directors of the Northern Central Railway Company took place on Thursday at the Calvert Station. The following persons were elected:—Hon. Simon Cameron, William Colder, Alexander Small, Joseph D. Potts, John A. Wright, J. D. Cameron, Fairman Rogers, E. C. Biddle, A. E. Kapp, Frank Newcomer, J. R. Eby and Henry Welsh. Messrs. William D. Miller and Charles George Ridgeley are Directors on the part of the city of Baltimore.

After the election, the Directors held a meeting and re-elected Anthony B. Warford President, and Robert S. Hollins Secretary.

A large majority of the capital stock was represented in the election.

John J. Dullarry, General Superintendent, and George A. Hathaway, General Freight Agent, were re appointed by the President.

The finances, as laid before the stockholders of the road by the Treasurer, for 1861, show the following figures:—

Gorer, auctioneer, yesterday sold, at public auction, on the premises, the following described property:—Two parcels of ground on the Southeast side of McCullough street, each having a front of 16 feet 8 inches, with a depth of 120 feet; each lot is improved by a three-story brick dwelling with back building, subj ct to a ground rent of $75; Mr. Miles White became the purchaser at $200. Two parcels of ground on the West side of Gilmor street, each with a front of 10 feet 6 inches, and a depth of 117 feet; improved by three-story brick dwellings, with two-story back buildings, in an unfinished condition; ground rent of each $87.75: same purchaser at $250 each. Four lots on the Northeast side of Ross street, near Lanvale; the corners has a front of twenty; each of the others is 16 feet front, with a depth of 107 feet 6 inches; each is improved by a three-story brick dwelling, with two-story back buildings, all in an unfinished condition; the first one was sold for $500, the second for $625, and the other two for $100 each; same purchaser.

MUNICIPAL OFFICERS.—John Lee Chapman, Esq., Acting Mayor, last evening communicated to the City Council the following nominations. That body went into convention, and all were confirmed with the exception of the nominations for City Counsellor, and Visitor to the Jail, the former having been rejected and the latter laid over.

Visitor of the Jail—Steptoe B Taylor, vice James Price, rejected.

Member of the Water Board—John F. Kerner, vice Samuel A. Harrison, declined.

Assistant Clerk of Lexington Market—George Meyer, vice James S. Morrison, declined.

Vaccine Physician for the 19th and 20th Wards—E. R. Burnetson vice Dr. G B. Aiken, declined.

Constables for the Third Ward—John Dorman, vice J. V. Evans, deceased; and George Simms, vice George Glenn, resigned.

Ward Managers of the Poor—6th Ward—J. W. Daugherty, vice W. Hickman, declined; 12th Ward—John Brannan, vice E. S. Courtney, declined.

DEATH OF FATHER FREEMAN.—The venerable Father Freeman, who for a Christian Missionary yesterday morning, at an early hour, at his residence on Baltimore street, near Pearl. He had been ill for some time past, and his death was not unexpected. He was about seventy-five years of age, and during the greater part of his life had been engaged in the circulation of religious tracts and in relieving, to the extent of his ability, the wants of his more unfortunate fellow-creatures, wherever found. His deeds will long be remembered, and his death will be deeply regretted by thousands whose spiritual and temporal wants have been ministered to by him during his well-spent life.

THE [illegible] members of the City Council yesterday morning paid a visit to the Western Female High School, under charge of Prof. D. A. Hollingshead. There were a number of essays read by the girls, which evinced fine talents, and gave another of the many evidences which exist of the peculiar advantages of the Public School system of Baltimore. After the exercises by the pupils, addresses were delivered by Messrs. Crowley, Hoopes and Dukehart, of the Council, Rev. N. H Chamberlain, Prof. Hollingshead, and George N. Eaton, Esq., President of the Board of School Commissioners.

FIRE.—Shortly before three o'clock yesterday morning, a fire broke out in the Newton Academy building, located on West Baltimore Street, near Republican, and occupied by Mr. Thomas Lester as a dwelling, and for the purposes of a school. An alarm was sounded from box 53, but before the Fire Department could subdue the flames, the building and furniture had been damaged to the extent of $1,000, and a loss of books, &c., estimated at $300, had been sustained. The loss is covered by a policy of insurance in the Equitable office. The fire originated from some defect in the heating apparatus.

SEVERE ACCIDENT.—Yesterday morning an elderly man named Kelsworter, living in Orleans street, sustained a very severe injury by falling from a wagon. He was in the act of getting into the wagon when he fell backward and struck the ground with such violence as to break his right collar-bone. He was taken to the office of Dr. Evans where he received medical attention.

MUSICAL.—The lovers of music will learn with pleasure that Gottschalk, the distinguished pianist, will shortly give one or more concerts in this city. The talented artiste, who have given such eclat to his recent concerts in New York, will appear in conjunction with him, and we may look for a brilliant musical entertainment.

COMMENCEMENT OF THE UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND.—The annual commencement of the University of Maryland, will take place this morning at 10 o'clock, at Holliday Street Theatre. The Blues' Band will be in attendance.

AMUSEMENTS

HOLLIDAY STREET THEATRE.—Last night Mr. Booth appeared as Hamlet. Unfortunately, he is suffering from a severe cold which seriously affected his voice. Notwithstanding this, however, he rendered the character with great force and much originality. In person he is the Hamlet of the mind's eye, and needs no stage preparation other than his inky suit to assume the character. A face of remarkable power and an eye of surpassing intelligence he looked the part to perfection. The character throughout was rendered with an effect which stamps Mr. Booth an actor. Miss Grahame's Ophelia was a clever personation. She has not yet learned, however, that she must play for the audience, and not at it. She should forget that an audience is before her. The fitful glance which she occasionally throws over it, exhibits much uneasiness and sadly interferes with her play. Mr. Hall's Polonius was bad, to say the best of it. He spoke his words with the glib tongue of a boy.—To-night the Apostate will be given, in which Mr. Booth is great. The cast is very fine, and the piece will, no doubt, be well played.

FRONT STREET THEATRE.—This is positively the last night of Mr. and Mrs. Barney Williams—a fact to which we exceedingly regret to call the attention of our readers. For three weeks the Irish Boy and Yankee Girl have appeared to houses crowded from the parquette to the ceiling. After to-night, perhaps, there may be a lapse of several years before we shall have the pleasure of again seeing this distinguished couple in their original and peculiar impersonations. They appear this evening in the Lakes of Killarney and the charming fairy piece entitled the Fairy Circle, or Con O'Carolan's Dream. On Monday the delightful comedienne, Miss Maggie Mitchell, will make her reappearance for a short period.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR BALTIMORE CITY.—EDWIN HOYT, BYRON SPRAGUE, WM. SPRAGUE, AMASA SPRAGUE, NEHEMIAH KNIGHT AND WM. R. GREEN vs. CHARLES C. HUDSON.—The object of this suit is to procure a decree for the sale of certain mortgaged property in the city of Baltimore, which were on the 23d November, 1859, mortgaged by the defendant, Charles C. Hudson, to the complainants. The bill states that on or about the 23d November, 1859, one Richard S. Robertson and Charles C. Hudson, of the city, county and state of New York, were indebted unto there complainants in the sum of twenty thousand dollars, in two notes of said Robertson & Hudson of that date, for ten thousand dollars each, payable, the one on the 13th February, 1861, and the other the 26th February, 1862, which were secured to be paid by the bond or obligation of the said Robert on & Hudson in the penal sum of forty thousand dollars, conditioned for the due payment of the aforesaid notes, which great accounts, according to their true tenor and effect, and the bill further states, that the further securing the payment of the said notes, the said Charles C. Hudson, on the same day aforesaid, executed a trust deed, which is particularly described in the bill and its accompanying exhibit, to secure the said complainants under their partnership name of Hoyt, Sprague & Company, by way of mortgage to secure the payment of the said notes with interest, according to their true tenor and effect. And the bill further states, that the said notes are overdue and unpaid, and that the said Charles C. Hudson resides out of the State of Maryland.

It is thereupon, this 20th day of February, 1862, adjudged and ordered, that the complainants, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published at Baltimore, once in each of four successive weeks before the 22d day of March next, give notice to the said absent defendant of the object and substance of this bill, and warn him to appear in this court, in person or by solicitor, on or before the 20th day of June next, to answer the premises and show cause, if any he has, why a decree ought not to pass as prayed.
