NOTICE.
SALE OF THE TERRE HAUTE, ALTON AND ST. LOUIS RAILROAD.
By virtue of a decree of the Circuit Court of the United States for the Southern District of Illinois, in a cause in Chancery therein depending, where Azariah C. Flagg and others are complainants and the Terre Haute, Alton and St. Louis Railroad Company are defendants, and pursuant to an order made in said cause, the undersigned, as Trustees for the benefit of the bondholders in said decree mentioned, will offer for sale, at public auction, to the highest bidder, on the premises, in the town of Alton, in the State of Illinois, on the first day of June, A. D. 1862, at 12 o'clock, M., of the said day, the following described property, to wit:
The road-bed, rights of way, and franchise of the Terre Haute and Alton Railroad Company, being about twenty miles in length, and extending from the Junction with the Illinois Central Railroad, near Terre Haute, to the City of Alton, on the Mississippi River, including the road-bed, depots, stations, station-houses, turn-tables and depot land, all other buildings, and other fixtures and structures of whatever name or nature, and the lands and grounds occupied therewith, and not to be used in operating the said road, and wherever situate, and all other personal property, right thereto, or appertaining thereto, or required by the said company in connection with the said road, revenues, issues, profits and income of the said mortgaged property, and all leaseholds, hereditaments, and ferry rights belonging to said company, and all the supplies of timber, lumber, iron, fuel, and every other thing provided by the said company, and by the original companies severally incorporated into the said Terre Haute, Alton and St. Louis Railroad Company, to be used in operating the said road. All of all the following described tracts of real lands owned by the said Terre Haute, Alton and St. Louis Railroad Company, being about one thousand and fifty acres situated in St. Clair county, in the State of Illinois, and described as follows, viz:
The south half of section twenty (20), township one (1) north, range one (9) west, containing three hundred and twenty acres.
The east half of the northwest quarter of section ten (10), township one (1) north, range nine (9) west, containing one hundred and twenty acres.
The east half of section ten (10), town one (1) north, range nine (9) west, containing three hundred and twenty acres.
The north half of section eleven (11), township one (1) north, range nine (9) west, containing three hundred and twenty acres.
Also all other lands and all ferry rights, franchises and privileges owned by the said company, and all the right and interest held and owned by the said company, or to which they are entitled in any ferry rights, franchises or privileges, together with all ferry boats, wharf-boats, fixtures, or other things connected, used with or appurtenant to any such ferry, franchise, right or privilege. And all other real and personal property mentioned and described in the said mortgage and deeds of trust, or any of them, which are referred to in the said decree, and not otherwise situated, by the same title by which the said mortgaged property, and by the said original companies, severally, together with all the franchises, easements, rights and interests which owned, and all corporate franchises of the said original companies, severally.
Including the right and franchises of the said several companies, to be and act as a corporation, of the four corporations the said property, to be sold as an entirety.
The said original mortgage and deed of trust to secure any bonds or indebtedness, and to secure the payment of three hundred thousand dollars in cash, or five hundred thousand dollars in first mortgage bonds of the Terre Haute and Paducah Railroad Company, of the Bellaville and Illinoistown Railroad Company, as security for the payment of the bonds in excess of the property should be insufficient to the said parties or persons. And the said decree shall be absolutely forfeited to the use of the trusts in the said decree mentioned, if the said successful bidder shall fail to pay each event, for the purchase money, to the satisfaction of the said Circuit Court of the United States for the Southern District of Illinois, on the final distribution of the funds and appropriation of the same.
The said decree provides that the purchaser or purchasers upon the confirmation of the sale and full compliance with the conditions thereof, and the orders of the court made or to be made herein, touching the payment of the purchase money, shall be entitled to take and hold, and to operate and to use or otherwise dispose of, at pleasure, all the said property, rights, franchises and the appurtenances thereto, which the same are or were at any time prior to the sale, owned, claimed or held by the said Terre Haute, Alton and St. Louis Railroad Company, or the said three Companies, the original Railroad Companies which it was consolidated into, free and discharged from the lien of each and all of the mortgages in the said decrees mentioned, made by the said consolidated Company, and by the said three Companies severally, and free and discharged from all liability for any debt or debts, claim or claims, of whatsoever kind or nature, in behalf of any and all persons, or lost said or stolen, or destroyed, or in the hands of any such creditor, or from the claims of all creditors of or on account of any bond or stock now held or claimed in any of the said companies, or any of them, and free and discharged from the liens of any such creditors, or holders of any such bonds or stock, and free and discharged from all claims of any vendor, or lessor, or other person, for any real estate to be included in such sale, for the purchase of said real estate, not otherwise provided to be paid by the said decrees, and of the proceeds of the said sale, the purchasers or purchasers at such sale shall not incur any personal liabilities for any liability of the said companies or any of them.
A. ZABRISKIE CLEVELAND, JOHN WILKINSON, Trustees, and Master Commissioners as aforesaid.
January 11th, 1862.
