INTERESTING FROM HAVANA.

The Havana correspondent of the New York Herald, under date of March 1st, writes as follows:

On the evening of the 25th ult. came in, in eleven days from Mobile, the Confederate schooner Smith Townsend, sixty-nine tons, with cotton; and on the 27th sailed for Matamoras (?) the Confederate schooner Wide Awake, Capt. Martin, carrying Mr. Yancey. He has been exciting some curiosity here by his long, light hair. This he had cropped and otherwise disguised. He has tried to run the blockade, for no one believes he is going to Matamoras. This schooner has run the blockade several times. Once she carried over Dr. Hugh Martin, (brother of the captain,) our former Consul at Matamoras. The schooner Charlotte has also sailed for Matanzas; she goes under the English flag. Yesterday came in the C. P. Knapp, bringing the captain of the English steamer Labuan, whose departure from this port some time since I wrote you of as being under suspicious circumstances. I was told that she intended to run the blockade; but, not being able to ascertain the truth, I did not say so. The captain has protested before the English Consul General, and goes on to see Lord Lyons on the Columbia. He says that while he and the purser were at Matamoras (the steamer being outside the bar) the United States man-of-war Portsmouth took possession of his vessel, under the plea that the cotton was American; but that he can prove it was bought by Englishmen, of Englishmen, residents of Matamoras, and that most of it came from San Antonio to Brownsville by land. Had the Portsmouth waited till the next day she would have got $200,000 in specie, which was to have been part of her cargo. We have heard from the Kingfish. She boarded the Spanish bark Venesdos, from Vera Cruz; but, finding all right, let her go after noting the visit on her papers. Almonte arrived in the British steamer, and went on in her to Vera Cruz; Santa Anna did not come, though he was expected. The Harriet Lane came in this morning from Key West.

THE WAR IN MISSOURI AND ARKANSAS.—Springfield, March 4.—On Wednesday night, Captain Montgomery, of Wright's battalion, with his company, was surprised at Kiketsville, Barry county, by eight hundred Confederates, supposed to belong to McBride's division, but represented themselves as Texan Rangers. They fired into the house occupied by our men, killing two and wounding one. One of the Confederates was killed. The rest fled, taking with them about seventy horses.

Two wagons, loaded with army stores, were burned the same night, at Major Harbill's farm, two miles beyond Kietsville. Colonels Ellis and Wright, with an adequate cavalry force, was sent to Kietsville.

Price had burned several public buildings at Fayetteville, including the Fayetteville Arsenal, lead factory, and several flouring mills, with 100,000 pounds of flour.

Many of the inhabitants along the road say they have been deceived by the lies of Price, who said they would all be butchered by the United States troops.

A strong Union feeling is exhibited among those remaining. An old soldier of 1812 brought out a Union flag that he had long concealed.

The fear that the combined forces of Price, Van Dorn, McCulloch, McIntosh and Price will again overrun the country, keeps thousands from avowing their sentiments.

Price, after his last chase, is cooling off on the Boston Mountains, and Ben McCulloch is on this side of him.

BALTIMORE MARKETS.

THURSDAY, March 6.

COFFEE.—We are not advised of any transactions in Coffee to day. There is a good inquiry, and the market is firm. We, however, continue to quote at 18@20 cts. for common to prime Rio; 20@24 cts. for Laguayra, and 20@27 cts. for Java. The stock of Rio in first hands is about 25,000 bags. There is very little of other descriptions here.

FLOUR.—The market continues exceedingly dull and heavy. There were no sales reported on Change to day, and there appears to be but little or no inquiry. We quote Howard Street at $5 50 for Super, and $6 for shipping brands. Ohio may be quoted at the same rates, but for both descriptions there are more sellers than buyers. There is a better inquiry for City Mills Flour, but there have been no sales effected for several days past; Super may be quoted at $5 87½@5.50, and shipping brands of Extra at $6.50 per bbl.

FAMILY FLOUR.—Family Flour continues to sell by the dray load to the trade at $8.25 for the best brands Baltimore, and $6.75@7.25 per bbl for Ohio and Howard Street. Baltimore high grade Extra is bringing $7.75 per bbl. by the dray load.

RYE FLOUR AND CORN MEAL.—Rye Flour is still quoted at $3.87½@4, and Corn Meal at $3@3.12½ per bbl. for both Baltimore and Brandywine, the market for both being very dull.

GRAIN.—The market for all kinds of Grain was extremely dull to-day. The offerings at the Baltimore Corn Exchange to-day amounted to 7,207 bushels, viz: 1,725 bushels Wheat, 2,572 bushels Corn, 2,720 bushels Oats, and 250 bushels Rye. There was nothing done in red Wheat. We notice a sale of 100 bushels white at 133 cts. Nearly all the Corn on sale was taken, but the largest portion being in a damp condition, brought lower prices. There was a sale of 300 bushels white, damp, at 60 cts., and 1,100 do., in not quite as sound condition, at 58 cts.; a lot of 100 bushels prime brought 63 cts.; 200 bushels yellow sold at 58 cts., and 500 do. at 57 cts. There were no transactions in Oats or Rye. We quote the latter at 70 cts. for Maryland and 75 cts. for Pennsylvania. The offerings at the Maryland Corn Exchange were 630 bushels Wheat, 1,805 bushels Corn, and 3,451 bushels Oats, making a total of 5,885 bushels. There were no sales of white Wheat. In red we notice sales of 350 bushels at 133 cts., and 150 bushels at 131 cts. White Corn was dull, and no transactions reported; 700 bushels yellow sold at 58 cts. There was some inquiry for Oats; 100 bushels Maryland sold at 38 cts.; 400 bushels Pennsylvania at 36 cts., and 850 bushels Virginia at 36¾ cts. There was little or no inquiry for Rye, and no transactions reported.

MOLASSES.—The market is dull and heavy, without transactions. There appears, however, to be no change in rates, And we quote as follows, viz: Cuba at 20@23 cts. for old, and 22@25 cts for new crop; Porto Rico at 25@32 cts. for old, and 35@40 cts. for new crop; and New Orleans at 50@55 cts. per gallon.

We quote Mess Pork at $13 for thin, and $13.50@14 for heavy; Prime Mess at $13@13.50; Prime at $10.50, and Rump at $9.50. Beef is firm at $12.50 for Baltimore No. 1; $15@16 for do. Mess, and $17 per bbl. for Extra Mess. Bacon is pretty firm at 5¾@5¾ cts. for Shoulders, and 6¾ cts. for Sides. Hams range at from 7 to 9 cts. At these rates small sales are making. We quote Bulk Meats at 4¾ cts. for Shoulders, and 5¾ cts. for Sides. Bulk Hams may be quoted at 5¾@5¾ cts. Lard is held firmly at 8¾ cts. for prime Western in bbls. and tcs., and we quote refined at 9¾@10 cts., but there are no sales making.

SUGARS.—The demand which has prevailed during the past few days appears to have subsided, and we are without any transactions to report to-day. The market, however, is firm at the advance noticed yesterday, and some holders are even demanding a further advance. We continue to quote Cuba and English Island, common to good refining at $6@7; do. do. fair to good at $7.25@7.75; do. do. prime $8@8.25; fair to good Porto Rico at $7 50@8; prime do. at $8.50@8.75; Havana, boxes, at $7.50@8.75. WHISKEY.—The recent advance in Whiskey has not been maintained, and prices have fallen off. We notice the sale of a small lot City to-day at 28 cts., a decline of 2 cts. per gallon on the highest figure of Tuesday. We quote Ohio at 28¾@28¾ cts.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT FOR BALTIMORE COUNTY.—EDWIN HOYT, BYRON SPRAGUE, WM. SPRAGUE, AMASA SPRAGUE, NEHEMIAH SPRAGUE, and WM. B. GREEN vs. CHARLES C. HUDSON.—The object of this suit is to procure a decree for the sale of certain mortgaged premises in the city of Baltimore, which were on the 23d November, 1859, to the complainant, defendant, Charles C. Hudson, to the complainants. This bill states that on about the 23d November, 1859 a certain Richard S. Robertson, defendant, Charles C. Hudson, of Kings county and State of New York, were indebted unto these complainants in the sum of twenty thousand dollars, in two notes of said Robertson & Hudson, of ten thousand dollars each, payable, the one on the 15th February, 1861, and the other the 15th February, 1862, which were endorsed to be paid by the bond or obligation of the said Robertson & Hudson, in the penal sum of twenty thousand dollars, conditioned for the due payment of the aforesaid notes with interest according to their tenor and effect; and the bill further states, that for the further securing the payment of the aforesaid notes, the said Charles C. Hudson did, at the time and place aforesaid, convey certain real estate which is particularly described in the bill and in an exemplar exhibit, unto the said complainants under their partnership name of E. Hoyt, Sprague & Company, by way of mortgage to secure the payment of the said notes and interest thereon, according to their true tenor and effect. And the bill further states that no portion of the aforesaid money, nor the interest accrued thereon, has been paid, although the time limited for its payment has long expired, and it has been duly demanded; and further, that the said Charles C. Hudson resides out of the State of Maryland.
