

away from the subscriber, living in Charles county, a servant lad, called Hooper Bennett, years of age, slender make, about 5 feet 3 inches high, light coloured hair, which he generally wears in a slovi-gly manner, pale fallow complexion, to have had the fever and ague, speaks and calls himself a barber and hair-dresser: when he went away, a brown short skirted waistcoat, and olive coloured velvet breeches, though it is supposed he may have now changed his dress: he was seen, about five weeks ago, on a creek, in Calvert county, and I do not know if he is now either in that or the county of Prince-George. Whoever brings said servant to the subscriber, shall have a reward of forty shillings,

RICHARD LEE.

Baltimore, July 23, 1773. I have committed to my custody at different times, the following persons, viz. Henry Kenally or Kenally, who says he is a servant to John Owings, a servant to Richard Greaves, George Gordon, a deserter from his majesty's 16th regiment. John Scarian or Skyrme, who says he is a servant to Robert Henwood of Annapolis, and has an indenture dated Nov. 1772, to the said John Scarian, who says he is a servant to Richard Lawrence. Patrick M'Glafkey, a James Gordon. Daniel Earls, alias Poor, five feet seven or eight inches high, a few years of age, short fair hair: had on a blue frize jacket, osnabrig shirt and trousers, and appears to be one of those advertised. Ephraim Howard, of Elk-Ridge. John Yorkshirman, about five feet eleven inches high, says he deserted from his majesty's 23d or Welch fusiliers, has short curled hair, wearing trousers, but appears to have changed apparel, and says he came from Philadelphia, and believed he belongs to some person on the coast. Letters have been wrote to those persons, in which it is said the servants belong, request to take them, paying charges, but to no purpose have therefore taken this method, hoping the same will be paid thereto; if not, the servants to be sold to pay fees as the law directs, by run or strayed from Mr. Basil Smith's, near Port-Tobacco, in Charles county, a bright bay or chestnut horse, about four years old, thirteen hands three inches high, both hind feet white, has a lump between the knee and ancle on the inside of his near leg, which is called the splint, rises very high in the winter, and has a switch tail, which is white when rode hard, trots and gallops. — I will bring the said horse to the subscriber, in Calvert county, or secure him so that he may be brought again, shall have, if taken within three months of Benedict, thirty shillings; and if not, three Pounds reward.

at the lower house of assembly, July 2, 1773. That the following be entered as the resolves of this house, viz.

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY, That the representatives of this province, have the sole right, and consent of the other part of the legislature, to establish taxes or fees and that the imposing, or collecting any taxes or fees on or from the inhabitants of this province, under colour or pretence of any proclamation issued by, or in the name of the Proprietary, or other authority, is unconstitutional, and oppressive.

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY, That in all cases, fees are established by law for services done, the power of ascertaining the quantum of such fees, is constitutionally in the hands of the Proprietary, or other authority, in the action of the party.

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY, That the proclamation in the name of his Excellency Robert Eden, the 26th day of November, 1770, was illegal, unconstitutional, and oppressive.

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY, That the paper writing, great seal of this province, issued in the name of the Lord Proprietary, on the 24th day of November, 1770, for the ascertaining the fees and perquisites to be received by the registers of the land, is illegal, arbitrary, unconstitutional, and oppressive.

RESOLVED UNANIMOUSLY, That the ADVISERS of the said proclamations were enemies to the peace, and happiness of this province, and the laws of this province.

That the said resolves be printed in the Maryland gazette, and be continued therein, for ever.

Signed by order, JOHN DUCKETT, Cl. Lo. Ho.

ALEXANDER STENHOUSE.

Elk-Ridge, July 21, 1773. To be sold, by publick vendue, on Monday the 23d day of August, at Curtis's creek iron works, in Anne-Arundel county,

TWO undivided third parts of about 7000 acres of land lying in the said county, on which are erected a good furnace, stone dwelling house, sundry out houses, and a grist and saw mill. The land is well timbered, and the water navigable within a few yards of the furnace and mills, which are about seven miles distant from the town of Baltimore. Six months credit will be given the purchaser, on his giving bond, with security, if required.

SAMUEL DORSEY, jun. CHARLES RIDGELY, MICHAEL PUE, Wm. GOODWIN, Wm. BUCHANAN, jun.

Prince-George's county, July 28, 1773. To be sold, at publick auction, on the premises, on the first of September next, if fair, if otherwise, the next fair day.

A VERY valuable tract of land, being the plantation whereon I now live, containing nearly 1100 acres. A part of this land was advertised some time ago; the reserved part, now offered for sale, is esteemed the best. On this land is a very good dwelling-house, and every necessary and convenient out-house, with a good garden and yard well planted in; as well as sundry tobacco-houses, quarters and tenements, well disposed on the different parts of the land: a large stream runs through the middle of it, on which lie between two and three hundred acres of rich low grounds, most of which may be made into meadow, a good deal of it being already cleared for that purpose. The high land is of various qualities; but, in general, well adapted to farming or planting. It lies within four miles of the ware-house, at Broad-creek; within eight of Piscataway; and within two or three of Alexandria, in Virginia. Long credit will be allowed for the greatest part of the purchase money, if required; the purchaser, giving bond, with approved security; or, a proper discount will be made for ready money.

JOHN ADDISON, N. B. Such of my creditors as have not yet received securities for the payment of their debts, are requested to bring in their claims on the day of sale, when I hope to have it in my power to offer them such terms, as they will approve of.

Annapolis, July 19, 1773. The subscriber has for sale at his house, the next door above Samuel Chafe, Esq;

A SMALL parcel of saddlery, consisting of narrow diaper, and straining webs, fringes of all colours, broad and narrow orrice, steel head-stall and throat buckles, common stirrup irons, plain and silvered staples and plates, also plain and silvered tuft nails, a few thousands of 3d. 2d. and clout tacks; leather bags, double and single girths lined and unlined, bridles, stirrup leathers, cruppers, &c. He likewise makes and repairs ladies and gentlemen's hunting and common saddles, &c. Those ladies and gentlemen that please to favour him with their custom, may depend on having their work done in the best and neatest manner, and at the most reasonable rates,

By their humble servant, WILLIAM JACOB.

COMMITTED to the jail of Charles county as a runaway, a negro man who calls himself Frank, and says he is the property of William Jetty, of Meclinburg county in Virginia; he is about five feet five inches high, a likely well made young fellow, his face much scarified, particularly his forehead, occasioned, as he says, by his being burnt when a child: Has on and with him, a good osnabrig shirt, a pair of old died jeans breeches, old shoes and stockings, a felt hat almost new, and a woman's osnabrig petticoat, which he says he took from his sweet-heart by way of a love memorandum. His master is desired to take him away and pay charges, to

Wm. HANSON, depy. sheriff.

Charles county, July 16, 1773. To be sold, by the subscribers, at publick vendue, on Tuesday the 17th day of August next, at the house of Ignatius Ryon, at the head of Bird's creek, Nanjemoy, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, if fair, if not, the next fair day.

THREE hundred and forty-nine acres of land, known by the name of Chrystal Milford, adjoining to the land of doctor Brown and Mr. William Winter, about 6 miles from two warehouses, convenient to the church and sundry grist mills, one of which is about half a mile distant, and the church two miles. The land lies level, and is of a light quick soil. There is on the premises one tenement which rents this year for four thousand pounds of crop tobacco, and ten shillings sterling. The purchaser will have liberty to put in a crop of small grain at the fall, as early as he pleases, and will have full possession the first day of January next. One half of the cash to be paid down at the time of purchase, and the other half when the land is made over, which may be at new years day next. Any person inclinable to purchase the said land, may see it by applying to Mr. Hugh Perrie, or Francis Perrie his brother, near the land.

THOMAS WHARTON-COOMES, WALTER COOMES.

July 22, 1773. RAN away from the subscriber, living in Philadelphia, on the 24th day of April last, a negro man, named Jack, about 22 years of age, about 5 feet 10 or 11 inches high, has been used to the mill, he formerly belonged to Mr. Zephaniah Bond, in St. Mary's county, in Maryland. He stole and took with him, about 10 pounds currency, and was seen some time in the month of May last, at the house of Mr. Philip Briscoe, in Charles county, where his father and mother live: had on, when there, a blue broadcloth coat, lapelled, a red flannel jacket lined with white flannel, black plush, or cotton velvet breeches, ribbed worsted stockings, and channel pumps; a fine fashionable hat, two or three white shirts. It is supposed he has a torge pass, as he travelled from Philadelphia to Charles county without being taken up. Whoever will deliver the said negro to Mr. William Paris, or to Mr. John Fry, in Annapolis, shall receive the sum of ten pounds Pennsylvania currency reward, or fifteen pounds like money, if brought to me at Philadelphia.

JOHN ZELLER, N. B. He has a scar under one of his eyes. — All masters of vessels are forewarned carrying him off at their peril.
