NEW PUBLICATIONS.

THE EARL'S HEIRS; A TALE OF DOMESTIC LIFE, by the Author of East Lynne; The Castle's Heirs; The Mystery; A Life's Secret, &c. Published by T. B. Peterson & Brothers, Philadelphia. For sale by Henry Taylor.

The authoress of "East Lynne," a novel that was read with extraordinary interest at the time of its publication, and won quite a reputation for the writer, has put forth recently a new work of which the title is given above. In "The Earl's Heirs" we have a novel of unquestionable dramatic power, abounding in incidents of a romantic cast, yet not beyond the verge of possibility, and with characters, not only well drawn, but well sustained by speech and conduct. There is a vein of sadness running through some portions of the story, and coloring and softening its leading features.—To those readers who are fond of a novel that is not without scenes of excitement, and which has the merit of originality of treatment, "The Earl's Heirs" will no doubt prove specially attractive. It is furnished by the Publishers, moreover, at the low price of fifty cents a copy, and sent to any address free of postage.

FROM FORTRESS MONROE.

The Monitor—The Steamer Minnesota—Burning of the Gunboat Whitehall.

FORTRESS MONROE, March 10.—Nothing has been seen or heard of the rebel steamer Merrimac, since she retreated on Sunday.

The Monitor came down early this morning and was meet enthusiastically cheered as she passed the various vessels in the harbor. A number of gentlemen went on board of her during the day. She does not appear to have suffered at all, and is as ready as ever for another engagement. Her officers and crew speak in the highest terms of her performances, and think that they might have destroyed the Merrimac without much difficulty if they had been allowed an opportunity.

The steamer Minnesota was not afloat when so reported in my letter of Sunday. Subsequently, fearing that she could not be gotten off, her crew were sent ashore, and her guns were spiked preparatory to her destruction, when, by the praiseworthy exertions of Captain Howe, of the steamer Spaulding, she was finally got off during the night, and resumed her usual position at the entrance to the Roads.

The gunboat Whitehall took fire at 2 o'clock this morning and was totally destroyed. Three of her guns, which were all shotted, went off at intervals, and one shell, which burst in the air, sent several fragments in various directions, but doing no damage. The other gun was saved by the harbor crew.

The British sloop-of-war Rinaldo has arrived this forenoon from off Charleston. She brings no news.

On board the Congress three officers were killed: Lieut. Joseph B. Smith, Commanding; Acting-Master, Thomas Moore; Coast Pilot, Wm. Rhoder. Capt. William Smith, who, until recently transferred, commanded the Congress, was unhurt. The most recent estimate of the number killed on this vessel is fifty. Twenty-seven were sent ashore wounded, and forty were taken prisoners, not including any of the officers, so far as is known.—Master's Mate, Peter Hargous, is missing, and may be among the prisoners.

On board the Cumberland, Rev. Mr. Lenhart, the Chaplain of the ship, was drowned, and Master's Mate, John M. Harrington, was killed. No other officers were lost, and none are known to be seriously wounded. But few of the wounded on board escaped to the shore. The remainder were drowned. The whole loss is probably not over 150.

On board the Whitehall, Andrew Nesbit, 3d Assistant Engineer, Robert Waugh and Charles O'Conner, seamen, were killed, and three or four were wounded.

Three men were wounded on the Oregon, but none killed.

The Minnesota had six men killed and seventeen wounded. She received a very large number of shots and was pretty well riddled.

The Roanoke received two shots, doing no damage. No one was injured, except by the falling of a man from the rigging.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Special Despatches to the Philadelphia Inquirer.

A SKIRMISH NEAR FAIRFAX COURT HOUSE.

A skirmish took place on Sunday morning between two companies of the Second Maryland Infantry, capturing eleven privates and one lieutenant, named J. H. Stewart. Several of our men were wounded slightly. The rebel officer says he mistook our scouts for their own.

THE ALEXANDRIA REBELS.

The State prisoners, arrested at Alexandria on the charge of aiding the cause of the rebels, were asked whether they would take the oath of allegiance, but they unanimously refused.

CENTREVILLE DESERTED.

In the deserted fortifications the huge guns are overthrown as far as was possible in the hasty flight of the rebels, while military stores and ammunition are strewn about. There is no doubt, however, to-night, that, as far as Centreville is concerned, there is no evidence of the rebels occupying that position, after a careful scrutiny of the earthworks which so recently harbored them.

EXCITEMENT IN DOVER, DEL.

UNITED STATES TROOPS ORDERED THERE—THE TOWN UNDER MARTIAL LAW.

Quite an excitement occurred in the town of Dover, Del., on Saturday last. The circumstances of the case are thus:—It appears that two companies of Home Guards have been raised in the town, one called the Hazlett Guards, and the other simply denominated Home Guards. Several months ago there was a difficulty in the organizations between the Democrats and Republicans. The former appeared to be the strongest, and thus caused a split. The Hazlett Guards were equipped by the State, but the other organization by the Government.—On Friday last the Government called on the Hazlett Guards to give up their arms, which they refused to do. Persisting in this determination, two hundred Government troops were immediately sent to the town, from Cambridge, Md., under the command of Colonel Wallace. Five of the ringleaders were arrested, but three were afterwards released, Captains Pennington and Wise only remaining in custody.

It is understood that if the other company give up their arms, they will also return theirs, but if they do not they will retain them. It is probable that the arms of the Hazlett Guards have been taken from the town, as they cannot be found; but to avoid this, in case of their still being there, pickets were stationed all around, and persons desiring to leave had to secure a pass from the Colonel before doing so. The whole company protest that they are not in their possession, but in case they are not brought forward the Captain will be made responsible for the whole of them. If the Governor will call on them for the arms, they say they will produce and return them, Captain Pennington being bound to the State of Delaware for the arms. When his bonds are duly released, he will then give them up. The soldiers are now encamped in the Court House. The Governor is also there, and he has sent for the Attorney-General. Both companies number about seventy men each. It is alleged that the trouble was caused by several parties in the other company, who requested the Government to recall their arms. The town numbers about two thousand persons, and the whole place is now under strict martial law.

A PANIC ON A SMALL SCALE.—We hope the recent news from Hampton Roads has somewhat reassured the timid souls who were certain, on Sunday night, that the Merrimac would speedily visit this harbor and lay New York in ashes. Their magnificent project of sinking stone-boats in the channel, for the purpose of keeping her out, may safely be postponed for a few weeks. Naturally enough the exploits of the Merrimac excited some consternation. Her movements were bold and brilliant, and if she had met nothing more formidable than the ordinary wooden frigates of our navy, it is not easy to limit the amount of mischief she might have done. But it was absurd to suppose that, under any circumstances, she could have been tempted to visit New York. In the first place, it is very doubtful whether she could possibly stand the sea voyage. In the next, there is scarcely one chance in three that she could pass the forts that guard the entrance to the harbor. And in the third place, even if she could get in, it is not easy to see how she could possibly get out. In any event, she is not likely to enter upon such an adventure as a hostile visit to this port; and it is not worth while to destroy the harbor by way of protecting the city just yet.—New York Times, March 10.

THE ERICSSON BATTERY—Return of the Steamer which Towed Her to Fortress Monroe.—The steamer Seth Low, Capt. Coffin, from Fortress Monroe, in twenty four hours, has just arrived at this port. She sailed hence on the 6th instant, at 10 A. M., with the battery Monitor in tow, the wind light from N. W. At 11 P. M. she made Barnegat light, wind N. W. On the 7th, at 4 A. M., Absecomb light was in sight, and the wind was from the north and quite strong. At 10.30 A. M., made the Capes of the Delaware, the wind still blowing strong from N.N.W., and the sea breaking over the battery, when she set her colors Union down, and reported that the sea had broken in her smoke-pipes and put out the fires. She shaped N.W. for five hours to keep her head to the sea. The gunboats Sachem and Currituck were in sight, but were unable to render any assistance. After five hours the wind moderated, and she arrived at Fortress Monroe at 9 P. M. on the 8th.—N. Y. Times.

GETTING BETTER.—Queen Victoria, says a letter just from London, no longer surrenders herself to grief, but, during the last ten days, has taken carriage drives, accompanied by her daughter, the Princess Alice, who seems to be an excellent and affectionate young woman. Her Majesty still declines seeing people on business—except the Duke of Newcastle. Her eldest daughter, the Princess of Prussia, is visiting her now, and her spirits have much improved. Prince Alfred, the sailor, who is reported to be a "Little Pickle" in his way, returns to England immediately.

CITY INTELLIGENCE.

FUNDING FLOATING DEBT.—Yesterday Mr. Dukehart, in the First Branch of the City Council, reported an ordinance entitled, "An ordinance to fund a portion of the floating debt of the city." The Commissioners of Finance are authorized to issue city bonds, redeemable in twenty years, bearing interest at the rate of six per cent. per annum, not to exceed three hundred thousand dollars, and apply the proceeds for the sale of the same to the payment of the floating debt of the city. The ordinance provides that a tax of two cents on the hundred dollars shall be annually laid on every hundred dollars of assessable property, for twenty years, or such time as the stock issued may be redeemed. The tax thus collected shall be invested in city stock as a sinking fund. The City Register is appointed as the trustee of the same.

THE LOAN FOR THE CITY'S DEFENCE.—Yesterday Mr. Dukehart presented an ordinance in the City Council providing for the re-payment of the money borrowed last summer by the city authorized under the act appropriating $600,000 for the defence of the city. The report states that the sum of eighty thousand dollars was borrowed and expended, and authorizes the Commissioners of Finance to issue bonds of the city to the amount of the money expended, and pay the money thus derived to the City Register, who shall apply it to the payment of the money borrowed. The ordinance provides for the levy of one cent on every hundred dollars, annually, for twenty years, and invest the money thus raised in city stock as a sinking fund. The ordinance was laid on the table.

MUTILATED TREASURY NOTES.—Our citizens will do well to be on their guard in relation to the reception of Treasury Notes which are in any degree mutilated by having the corners torn off. We have just seen a $5 note of this character which had been transmitted to New York by one of our Banks and returned, with the information that it would be received at only $4.25. As these notes now form a large portion of our circulating medium, serious losses may be avoided by refusing all that are thus mutilated. The note referred to had simply the corner torn off, but neither the lettering or the signatures were in any degree interfered with.

MEETING OF LOYAL METHODIST PREACHERS.—Last night quite a number of ministers of the East Baltimore Conference, who profess to be the loyal portion of that body, met in Temperance Temple.—There was also a large number of ladies and gentlemen present. Speeches were made by Dr. A. A. Reese, Dr. J. McK. Reiley, Rev. R. D. Chambers and others, and there was what is called a good time afterwards in the way of a patriotic experience meeting.

A BAD HUSBAND.—John Reisley was yesterday before Justice Shoemaker upon the charge of abusing his wife, threatening to kill her, and attempting to cut his own throat. He was intoxicated at the time. The Justice committed him to jail to answer.

ASSAULTS.—Thos. Morrison was yesterday taken into custody upon the charge of assaulting Evan Petticord with a knife. Justice Logan committed him for Court. Wm. Hagan was also before Justice Logan upon a charge of assault. The same disposition was made of his case.

ALARM OF FIRE.—The alarm of fire yesterday afternoon at 4½ o'clock was occasioned by the partial burning of the roof of the house, corner of North and Madison streets. The damage was not serious.

Amusements.

THE OCTOROON.—This great American play, which has met with a success unprecedented in the annals of the drama, is announced for representation at the Holliday Street Theatre this evening. It has been most admirably gotten up, with beautiful scenery and many new and startling effects. The cast embraces every member of the popular company, who, we feel convinced, will do full justice to their respective roles. The laughable farce of a Highway Robbery and a beautiful dance by Miss Olivia will conclude the entertainments of the evening. Let there be a crowded house.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE CITY COUNCIL.

(Regular Session.)

FIRST BRANCH.—The Branch met at 5 o'clock.—Present Wm. S. Crowley, Esq., President, pro tem., and all the members.

Mr. WILLIAMS presented a petition from Thos. W. Griffin, Esq., asking permission to extend a sign more than three feet from his premises, No. 170 Broadway. Referred.

Mr. DUKEHART presented an ordinance providing for the funding of $300,000 of floating debt. Laid on the table.

Mr. MILES called up the ordinance granting permission to the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company to reconstruct the railroad on Howard street, from Camden street to its connection with the Northern Central Railroad.

Mr. SATTERWHITE opposed the passage of the bill on the ground that it was illegal in that part of it which empowered the Railroad company to reconstruct the track. The track was laid by the owners of property, and could not be touched unless by the authority of an act of Assembly. The ordinance was passed.

A communication was received from the City Commissioners stating that it will cost $3,800. Referred. Adjourned.

SECOND BRANCH.—Branch met. Chas. J. Baker, Esq., President, in the chair, and all the members present.

A resolution adverse to the petition of Dorothea Gist, praying indemnity for the loss of her husband, who was killed in Pratt street on the 19th of April, was received from the First Branch and concurred in.

Also, a resolution referring to the Appeal Tax Court the petition of J. W. Isaacs in relation to taxes paid in error.

Adjourned.

REMARKABLE CASE OF RESURRECTION.—A very remarkable circumstance occurred in the township of Chesterfield, Michigan, recently. The wife of Lewis Thorp, Esq., who had been seriously ill for some time, apparently died, and every preparation was made for her funeral. Our informant (Dr. Kittridge) says that there were no evidences of life remaining, but, on the contrary, all the usual appearances that occur after death seemed to be manifest, when, to the astonishment of all, after lying in this condition nearly two days, she began to show evidences of returning life, and ultimately grew better, and is now doing well.
