RAN away from the subscriber, living in Philadelphia, on the 24th day of April last, a negro man, named Jack, about 22 years of age, about 5 feet 10 or 11 inches high, has been used to the still, he formerly belonged to Mr. Zephaniah Bond, in St. Mary's county, in Maryland. He stole and took with him, about 10 pounds currency, and was seen some time in the month of May last, at the house of Mr. Philip Briscoe, in Charles county, where his father and mother live: had on, when there, a blue broadcloth coat, lapelled, a red flannel jacket lined with white flannel, black plush, or cotton velvet breeches, ribbed worsted stockings, and channel pumps; a fine fashionable hat, two or three white shirts. It is supposed he has a forged pass, as he travelled from Philadelphia to Charles county without being taken up. Whoever will deliver the said negro to Mr. William Faris, or to Mr. John Fry, in Annapolis, shall receive the sum of ten pounds Pennsylvania currency reward, or fifteen pounds like money, if brought to me at Philadel-

Qui visum vitam dat. Cic.

THE infinitely wise author of nature has assigned to the eyes and ears the most useful and important offices of life: the structure of those delicate tender organs is so exquisitely minute; the mechanism and properties of their various parts so admirably curious, that they may be stiled with propriety, the miracles of nature! The great variety of dangers and diseases, manifest and occult, to which these precious senses are exposed; the little attention that hath hitherto been paid to the improvement of this noble science; and so few, properly qualified, have engaged in its practice, that to study them in any degree suitable to their importance is still business for life.

The inestimable blessings and great advantages, which attend a perfect enjoyment of the sight and hearing are obvious to all; but the deplorable and truly pitiable condition of the blind and deaf, is attended with such solitary discomfort, such gloomy ideas, and constant uneasiness of mind, as no one can be truly sensible of who has not in some measure experienced it himself. How noble therefore, how deserving of the nicest cultivation must that art be, that can restore sight to the blind, hearing to the deaf, speech to the dumb, and keep in order the springs of those master-pieces of creative wisdom! That art must needs be divine, because thus assisted, the wonders of nature and of art, opening on the mind, expand it with the most exalted apprehensions of the great artist!

To the inhabitants of MARYLAND,
DR. GRAHAM
OCULIST and AURIST,

MOST respectfully offers his best services, and acquaints them that he intends positively to be at New-Town-Chester, in Maryland, on Wednesday the 15th of September next, where he will continue two weeks; and on Friday the 1st of October, he purposes to be at Baltimore-Town; there to practise till the 1st of November; at these places such persons whose circumstances or situation have precluded them from receiving assistance at Philadelphia, may consult him in all disorders of the eye and its appendages; and in every species of deafness, hardness of hearing, ulcerations, noise in the ears, &c. Those persons who have had the unspeakable misfortune of being born deaf and dumb, and those who labour under any impediment in their speech, by applying personally, will probably be assisted. Those persons likewise whose eyes are utterly perished, or sunk in their heads, may have the deformity removed by artificial eyes, so curiously fixed and adapted to the orbits, as to have, in appearance, the beauties, motion, &c. of a natural eye in its healthy state.

Medicine and Surgery have always been his favourite study; but the structure and diseases of those tender, sympathetic, and nearly connected organs, to which nature has assigned the most important offices of life, have for many years particularly engaged his attention and practice; whence, regardless of vague conjectural hypotheses, he hath, on rational principles, deduced methods of cure, improved and confirmed by the most accurate observations in a course of practice, the most extensive, and the most successful of any of his contemporaries in Europe, or on this vast continent.

The candid and intelligent inhabitants of these parts of the British colonies can readily distinguish true merit from pretended knowledge. To conciliate therefore their favour, Dr. Graham begs leave to assure them, that, with tenderness and moderation, even to the poorest individual, his best abilities shall at all times be exerted to serve them; and as the success, which daily attends his practice, is a better testimony of his skill than any thing he might advance in his own behalf, let it suffice only to mention, that after several years study, at the justly celebrated university of Edinburgh, he has travelled in pursuit of knowledge, in his favourite branches, attending the infirmaries and hospitals, as well as the lectures of the most eminent professors in Europe.

Since his arrival at Philadelphia, in October, 1771, many hundred patients have been cured or relieved of the following disorders, many of which had been of long standing, and deemed incurable by other practitioners, even by gentlemen who otherwise do honour to the profession; the success, attending their practice sufficiently evinced that they are worthy and capable of the great and important charge with which they are entrusted.
The chief disorders are as follow, viz. Periodical, partial, and total blindness, whether occasioned by a cataract, glaucoma, or gutta serena; weaknests, and dimnests of sight; squinting; pain, swelling, and inflammation of the eyes; spots, specks, pearls, or films, occasioned by the small-pox, blaws, or extraneous substances; weak, watery, red, spongy, and ulcerated eye-lids; spasmodic twitchings of the muscles; involuntary weeping of the tears; tumours and excrescences; fistulae lacrymales.
Total and periodical deafness; thickness of hearing; pain and inflammations; painful sensations in consequence of loud sounds; cracking, itching, continual and remitting noises in the ears; offensive runnings, occasioned by cold, swelling, swimming, picking, and improper applications, or by long and severe sicknesses; insects and extraneous bodies getting into the ears; ulcerations with caries of the bones; pteryg, &c. and several persons born deaf and dumb; flammering, &c.

The poor, who apply properly recommended, will be assisted gratis, with advice, medicines and manual operations, at their respective cases may require; and for that purpose we will appropriate every morning, between the hours of five and seven. The doctor intends positively to sail for England in a few months; those, therefore, who have occasion for assistance in sight, hearing, or speech, must apply immediately.

The doctor intends not to shew any partiality, but to attend to patients in regular order as they apply, or as they give in their names at the bar of the coffee-house, or head tavern in each place.

Aequi pauperibus prodet, locupletibus aequi, Aequi neglectum pueris senibusque nocebit. Hor.

Prince-George's county, July 28, 1773.
To be sold, at publick auction, on the premises, on the first of September next, if fair, if otherwise, the next fair day.

A VERY valuable tract of land, being the plantation whereon I now live, containing nearly 1100 acres. A part of this land was advertised some time ago; the reserved part, now offered for sale, is esteemed the best. On this land is a very good dwelling-house, and every necessary and convenient out-house, with a good garden and yard well paved in; as well as sundry tobacco-houses, quarters and tenements, well disposed on the different parts of the land: a large stream runs through the middle of it, on which lie between two and three hundred acres of rich low grounds, most of which may be made into meadow, a good deal of it being already cleared for that purpose. The high land is of various qualities; but, in general, well adapted to farming or planting. It lies within four miles of the ware-houses, at Broad creek; within eight of Piscataway; and within two or three of Alexandria, in Virginia. Long credit will be allowed for the greater part of the purchase money, if required; the purchaser, giving bond, with approved security; or, a proper discount will be made for ready money.

JOHN ADDISON.
N. B. Such of my creditors as have not yet received securities for the payment of their debts, are requested to bring in their claims on the day of sale, when I hope to have it in my power to offer them such terms, as they will approve of.
