set, broad shouldered, about five feet two inches high, his hair between a sandy and lightish brown, gray eyes,

JOHN KING, late coachman to his excellency governor Eden, takes this method of informing the public and his friends in particular, that he hath taken the stables belonging to Mr.
John Warren, at the rose and crown tavern in Annapolis, where he hath provided every thing that is necessary for the accommodation of gentlemen horses; he has also provided himself with good saddle horses, which he intends letting out; those gentlemen which favour him with their custom, may be assured of his best endeavours to merit their approbation, as it shall ever be his study to please, he hopes to gain the favour of the public.

Port Tobacco, Feb. 23, 1774.

THE subscriber intending to leave this province soon, takes this method to inform those concerned, that the business of Mess. Alexander Cunninghame and co, of Mess. Cunnighame, Findlay and co. of Glasgow; formerly under his direction, is now carried on under the management of Mr. John Craig of this place, who will comply with any engagements entered into by me for behalf of said company. And those who are indebted to the said company's stores at Newport and this place for dealings with me, are requested to make payment to that gentleman as soon as possible.

ton, in Prince George's county, a stray sorrel Alexandria, Feb. 23, 1774.

BAY BOLTON, a full blooded HUNTER, WILL stand this next season at Thororald, my plantation, about half way between Alexandria in Virginia and George-Town in Maryland, the place he stood at last year, and will cover Mares on the same terms; at one guinea the leap and five shillings to the groom, or two guineas the season and ten shillings to the groom. I think it needless to describe him, as so many good Judges have seen him, and agree he is the completest horse that has been imported for this country; he is in much better order this year than he was last, and is grown.

Those who choose to go by the season may depend on good pasture and great care, but I will not be answerable for any mares that may be lost. Last season we had twenty-odd mares at a time, some staid near a month, none were lost or hurt, and all returned in better order than when they came.

The money will be expected, when the mares are taken away, by

JOHN CARLYLE.

THE subscriber begs leave to inform his friends and the public in general, that he has lately removed from the house he lived in at the Dock, and has now opened a tavern in the house where Dr.
Steuart formerly lived, in Francis street, and opposite to Mr. Robert Couden's store; the house is much enlarged and rendered very commodious, the lodging rooms are light and airy and have most of them fire places, there are good stables and yard for the reception of horses, and as the house is situated about half way between the Stadt-house and the Dock, it is equally convenient to the gentlemen of the Eastern and Western shore. No expence has been spared to procure every necessary article of the best quality, and as he is determined to do every thing in his power to oblige, he hopes for the encouragement and approbation of the public.

ISAAC M'HARD.
