Maryland, Queen Anne's county, Nov. 1, 1774.
WANTED, an excellent millwright, who will undertake, next spring, to build a windmill, and that will contract to find every material; to such person a handsome price will be given; a part of the contract money, if required, shall be advanced; the whole shall be paid immediately upon the work being completed. No person need apply unless he comes well recommended for his workmanship, his industry and fidelity.
JAMES HUTCHINGS, junior.

George-Town, November 3, 1774.
THE subscriber intends at the end of the year, to give up the management of the business which he has carried on for some time past at this place, on account of Colin Dunlop, Esq. son, and company, merchants of Glasgow; requests all those who may have open accounts standing on the books, to come and make settlements as speedily as possible, and he hopes those who are indebted to the store, will be kind enough to pay as far as in their power without further trouble, which will entitle them to every reasonable indulgence on the remaining balances. All claims against the company will be paid on demand.
N. B. The business will be continued as usual under the direction of Mr. John Dunlop.
ADAM STEUART.

To be sold for ready money, pursuant to the late will of Newton Keene, deceased, by public auction, to the highest bidder, on Monday the 19th day of December next, if fair, otherwise the next fair day, at Carr town, sometimes called Newgate, in the county of Loudon, in the colony of Virginia.
A tract of valuable land, lying in the said county, adjoining to the aforesaid town, and partly bounded by the mountain road, containing about fourteen hundred acres, having upon it only one small plantation, and but little cleared ground. About one hundred acres of the said tract is under a lease for one or two lives at a final year's rent; there is upon it a considerable quantity of ground fit to be improved into meadow, and it is very well watered and timbered. The situation of this land is very convenient for trade and public house-keeping, being only twenty-five miles distant from Alexandria, twenty-three from Dumfries, and eighteen from Colchester, all of which are good markets for every thing the farmer or planter raises. It has also a merchant-mill within one mile. The land may be entered upon the 25th day of December next, and deeds executed for the same on the day of sale, by the executors.
RICHARD LEE, DAVID BOYD.

To be sold at public vendue, on Wednesday the 7th day of December next, for sterling or current money, or good London bills of exchange.
ABOUT twenty valuable country born slaves, consisting of men, women, and children, together with stock, household furniture, and other effects, late the property of Elisha Harrison, of Anne-Arundel county. The sale to begin about eleven of the clock, at the late dwelling plantation of the said Harrison; if fair, if not, the next fair day, and to continue till all are sold.
ELIZABETH HARRISON, SAMUEL HARRISON, Executors.

October 20, 1774.
To be sold at public vendue, by the subscriber, living in Baltimore county, on the twenty-first day of December next, at the coffee-house in Annapolis.
FIVE tracts of land, lying in Anne-Arundel county, on the fourth side of Magotty river, on Deep-creek, within four miles of Annapolis; and on the twenty-ninth of December, will be exposed to public sale at Mr. Joseph Ellicott's mill, sundry tracts of land lying in the county aforesaid, on Patapco Falls, near Messrs. Hood and Ellicott's mills: one third of the purchase money to be paid in hand, one other third in six months, the remaining part in twelve months; being interest and giving security if required; the sale to begin at one o'clock, attendance each day will be given by the subscriber. Also sundry horses, mares and cattle to be sold at private sale, at my dwelling plantation, and at my plantation near Mr. Samuel Worthingtons.
THOMAS COCKEY.

THERE is at the plantation of Brice Gallaway, in Anne-Arundel county, taken up as a stray, small black horse, about 13 and a half hands high, branded on the shoulder T W, and on the buttock something like a turned R, with a figure of 3 after it, trots and gallops, appears to be old. The owner may have him again, on proving his property, and paying charges.
TEN POUNDS REWARD.
RAN away on the 18th of July from the subscriber, living near Elk-Ridge landing, Anne-Arundel county, Maryland, two convict servant men, viz. Thomas Boucher, an Englishman, born in West-Chester, by trade a blacksmith, about 30 years of age, 5 feet 4 or 5 inches high, short curled red hair, freckled face and pock-marked, with a blemish in one of his eyes; had on and took with him gray farnought jacket, gray cloth lapped ditto without sleeves, two ofnabrig shirt and trousers, country made shoes, and felt hat.
Laurance Fisher, born in the West of England, and speaks in that dialect, about 5 feet 2 or 3 inches high, short red hair, red beard, wide mouth, and thick red lips; had on a cotton jacket, ofnabrig shirt and trousers, country made shoes and felt hat, supposed to have a forest cloth jacket faced and turned up with red. Whoever takes up the said runaways, and secures them, so that they may be had again, shall receive the above reward, or five pounds for either, and reasonable charges paid if brought home, by CALEB OWINGS.

THE subscriber hereby forewarns all persons from shooting within his inclosures.
BENJAMIN OGLE.
To be sold, agreeable to the last will and testament of John Biscoe, late of St. Mary's county, deceased, on Thursday the first day of December next, on the premises, and entered on at Christmas, for cash, or good London bills of exchange.
A TRACT of land called Thompson's Purchase, containing two hundred and eighty-three acres, which is divided into three plantations, and each rents for two thousand pounds of crop tobacco per year; there is on one plantation, a large dwelling-house with a brick chimney at each end, and four rooms on a floor, and all other houses suitable; a good garden, the land is very good for tobacco and any kind of grain, and is very convenient for fish and oysters, and lies about two and a half miles below the city of St. Mary's.
ANN BISCOE, executrix.
N. B. If the abovementioned day is bad, the sale to be the first fair day after.
THOMAS PRYSE, COACH-MAKER, from LONDON.

TAKES this method to inform his friends and the public in general, that he has removed his shop from the town-gate, to the house opposite doctor Steuarts, near the stadt-house, where he carries on the said business in all its various branches, as he has supplied himself with exceeding good workmen from London; as also every article of the best sort to a very great amount, consisting of several sets of the best steel springs, spring curtains for coach and chariot, brass boxes, &c. &c. He has also a very good coach and herold painter, that undertakes painting of coaches, chariots, or chairs, either in cyphers, festoons of flowers, or coats of arms, with varnishing, gilding, or japanning, in the neatest and best manner, and at the most reasonable rates; those ladies and gentlemen that chuse to favour him with their custom in any of the above branches, may rest assured, that his constant endeavours shall be to give general satisfaction to those that please to employ him, and the favour gratefully acknowledged, by the public's most-humble servant,
THOMAS PRYSE.
N. B. I still continue the saddling and harness-making business as usual, and hope for encouragement from the public: to be sold as above, a quantity of faddlers orrace, and frenge birth wibs, &c. &c.

August 1, 1774.
To be rented for three years from the first of October next, a very convenient store house, with a lodging room and counting room adjoining, and a kitchen large enough for a small family, with one acre of ground. The premises are situated on the head of the north-west branch of Langford's bay, in Kent county, (which leads unto Chester river), and on the main road from Rock-Hall to Chester town, about 6 and a half miles from each. Its situation is thought a good one for a retail store, being in the midst of a fine wheat country, and near to three public tobacco warehouses. If the tenant should chuse, he may have a granary built upon the lot for the receipt of smaller parcels of wheat, and he will have the use of one upon a convenient landing within one mile of the store, to take in larger quantities. For terms, apply to Mr. Thomas Ringgold of Chester-town, or to the subscriber living near the premises.
JAMES DUNN.

Annapolis, October 7, 1774.
ROBERT BUCHANAN has just imported a general assortment of goods, which he will dispose of upon the lowest terms, at his store near the coffee-house.

THERE is at the plantation of James Drather, taken up as a stray, an iron grey horse, about thirteen hands high, branded on the off buttock with something like I, and a star in his forehead and some saddle spots. The owner may have him again, on proving property, and paying charges.

June 24, 1774.
To be sold by the subscriber, a house and lot adjoining the dock, in the city of Annapolis, lately in the possession of Mr. Isaac M'Hard, and now possessed by Captain Pitt; under the house are four warehouses or cellars, which are very valuable, being so near the dock; the conveniences above are well known, and need no describing; time will be given for payment, on giving bond and security if required. For terms apply to Mr. Robert Couden, or JOHN SWAN.

Maryland, September 25, 1774.
FIFTEEN POUNDS REWARD.
RAN away last night from Doffy's forge, 3 servant men, viz. William George, born in England, about 34 years old, about 5 feet 7 inches high; he has a down look, light coloured short hair, pock marked, round shouldered, and has had his left wrist broke, which occasions it to be much larger than his right; he is a carpenter and joiner by trade; had on and took with him, one check shirt, one ofnabrig shirt, old leather breeches, light blue jacket without sleeves, small round hat, bound with black worsted binding, and has a small piece of craped tied round the crown, a pair of ribbed worsted stockings, and a pair of pumps with steel buckles. Had on an iron collar.
Solomon Burnham, born in Yorkshire, and speaks in that dialect; he is about 26 years of age, about 5 feet 10 inches high, swarthy complexion, down look, short black curled hair; had on and took with him, one ofnabrig shirt, blue grey jacket without sleeves, leather breeches, a coarse hat about half worn, a pair of yarn stockings, and one pair of shoes and buckles; he professes himself to be a compleat farmer. Had on an iron collar.
Samuel Chapman, an Englishman, 23 years of age, 5 feet 7 inches high, a lusty well made fellow, a little round shouldered, he has a swarthy complexion, has a large boney face, thick lips, and a very full set of teeth; had on and took with him a cloth jacket, an ofnabrig shirt, a check ditto, ofnabrig trousers, a pair of stockings, new shoes with buckles, and a new felt hat.
Whoever takes up said servants, and brings them to the subscribers, that have if 20 miles from home thirty shillings, if 30 miles forty shillings, and if 60 miles five pounds for each, including what the law allows, and reasonable charges.
SAMUEL DORSEY, jun. EDWARD NORWOOD.

TO BE SOLD,
A TRACT of land containing upwards of 3000 acres, situated in the county of Richmond upon the Rappahannock river, opposite to Mr. Robert Beverley's, extending between two and three miles upon the river; a great part of it lies well, is extremely rich and abounds with timber. There are also, besides the quantity of dry land abovementioned, between 4 and 500 acres of valuable marsh, which may be easily reclaimed. Great quantities of meadow land, together with a valuable mill seat, are to be had on a large water-course running through the greatest part of the tract, which affords several delightful situations for gentlemen's seats, commanding extensive prospects up and down the river, where the greatest plenty of fish and fowls may be had. A part of the tract is at this time in possession of tenants at will, some of whom pay from £. 20 to £. 25 annual rent for 100 acres. It will be sold (and possession given at Christmas) either together or in parcels, by private bargain, at any time before the 10th day of October; and if not disposed of before that time in this manner (of which public notice shall be given in the Virginia gazette) it will be offered for public sale upon the premises, on the third Monday in November. Twelve or eighteen months credit will be allowed, upon giving bond with good security. The lands will be shewn, the terms made known to those who incline to purchase privately, and an undoubted title made by the subscriber in West moreland county.
