A valuable file of LANDS. TO be sold, a tract of land in Berkeley and Freder- ick counties, containing 12,076 acres; it lies seven miles on each side of Senando river, the quantity on the east side, being only a slip of low ground, is inconsiderable; the quality of the land is remark- ably good, and the conveniences attending it great. There are two plentiful streams of water running through marshes three miles in length, some of which are already reclaimed meadows, and the rest, at a very small expence, might soon be reduced to the like state. On each side of the streams, mills might be erected and furnished, the land affording stone, lime, iron, and lead ore. On one of the streams I have already erected a complete merchant mill, with a pair of the best French burrs for grinding of wheat, and at pair of common bones for grinding of Indian corn; besides this, there is near the daming-house a tub- mill, and on the other stream there is a valuable saw mill. There are five fenced and improved plantations; on one of them is a good stone house, two stories high, with two rooms on a floor, a kitchen, dairy, and all other convenient out-houses; on another plantation where Michael Pike lived, there is a good stone house; and at the other plantation there are overseers house, negro quarters, barns, stables, tobacco houses, &c. The above tract shall be either partitioned off in lots of 1000 or 500 acres, or sold bodily to one purchaser. Belonging to this estate there are 112 negroes to be disposed of, together with all the flocks of cattle, equal to any in the colony, horses, mares, colts, hogs, &c. likewise all the necessary implements for the planter or farmer. Any person or persons inclinable to purchase are desired to make their proposals to me at Rosegill, on Rappahannock river, or to leave them with the overseer, who lives at the house plantation, and will show the land. In November if shall be on the pre- mises, and may then be personally treated with. Part of this land, and some of the negroes, belong to my eldest son, who leaves to me the disposition thereof, and will confirm any engagement I enter into on his part. w 4 10/27/74 RALPH WORMELY.

Those gentlemen that please to fa- vour him with their kind custom, may depend on the gentlest and kindest treatment, and the greatest care taken of their horses; he has also provided himself with able saddle horses, for ladies and gentlemen, which he intends letting out at a reasonable rate; it is needless to add further, as his friends are well con- viced of his care and fidelity to strangers and their horses. w 12

He wears his own dark hair-tied behind. It is supposed he is gone in company with some other man unknown to me, as I have missed two horses out of my pasture, one of which is a large sor- rel, about 15 hands high, paces naturally; the other a chestnut sorrel, about 14 hands and a half high, paces, trots, and gallops; he is low before, crest fallen, and has a shaggy tail; the horses are both shod before. The man took with him a half worn saddle and curb bridle; one of the staples is gone off the fore part of the saddle on the near side. Amherst county, Virginia, November 7, 1774. THE subscriber having undertaken the collection of debts in the southern provinces, for a number of gentlemen, merchants, and others in this colony, and being informed that there are many persons in Maryland who have debts due them from people in those provinces, takes this method to inform them, that he is willing to undertake the collection of such debts at a commission of one half the sum collected, without any expence to the creditor; gentlemen inclin- ed to employ him on those terms, may enquire his character from Philip R. Fendall, Esq; Mr. Robert Townshend Hoop, or Mr. Robert Mundell, merchants at Port-Tobacco. He proposes to be at Port-Tobacco sometime in the month of June next, in order to re- ceive the accounts and specialties of some gentlemen in Maryland, who have already promised him their busi- ness, and will be glad if all those who may chuse to employ him, would have their papers lodged with any of the above named gentlemen, (against that time) to whom he will give proper receipts. w 3 10/27/74 WILLIAM PENN.

Whoever apprehends the said negro man, and secures him in any jail so that he may be had again, shall have a reward of eight dollars; if carried away by any person or persons, whoever will apprehend the said thief or thieves, and secures him or them in any jail, so that he or they may be dealt with as the law directs, shall re- ceive the remaining twenty dollars as a reward, at the conviction of the said thief or thieves. paid by w 4 EDWARD REYNOLDS.
