To be sold to the highest bidder, on Thursday the 14th day of December next, (unless disposed of in the interim by private sale) A very valuable tract of land, lying in Prince George's county, four miles from Upper Marlborough, nine miles from Queen-Anne, ten miles from Bladenburgh, and twelve miles from Alexandria, containing about five hundred acres, whereon are four or fifty feet tobacco houses covered with lapped shingles, with overseers houses, and negro quarters; the soil is excellent, and suitable either for planting or for raising of valuable meadow land, reclaimable with a little trouble and expence, timber sufficient to supply it for many years, with five apple orchards, &c.
 The terms and title (which is indisputable) may be known, and the land seen, at any time between this the day of sale, by applying to the subscriber, or his assistance to Mr. George F. Magruder, Mr. Peter Magruder, or Mr. Basil Magruder, living near the premises.
 B. The terms of sale will be rendered easy to the purchaser, as credit will be given for part of the purchase money, on giving bond with security, if required.—The sale to be on the premises.
 W 3 100/76 THOMAS MAGRUDER.

To be rented from year to year, or for a term of years, BELVOIR, the beautiful seat of the honourable George William Fairfax, Esq; lying upon Patowmack River in Fairfax county, Virginia, about fourteen miles below Alexandria. The mansion house is of brick, two stories high, with four convenient rooms and a large passage on the lower floor, five rooms and a passage on the second, and a servant's hall and cellars below, convenient offices, stables, and coach-house adjoining, as also a large and well furnished garden, stored with a great variety of valuable fruits, in good order. Appertaining to the tract on which these houses stand, and which contains near 2000 acres (surrounded in a manner by navigable water) are several valuable fisheries, and a good deal of cleared land in different parts, which may be let altogether, or separately, as shall be found most convenient. The terms may be known of colonel Walling-ton, who lives near the premises, or of me in Berkeley county. W 48 FRANCIS WILLIS, jun.

Amherst county, Virginia, November 7, 1774.
 THE subscriber having undertaken the collection of debt in the southern provinces, for a number of gentlemen, merchants, and others in this colony, and being informed that there are many persons in Maryland who have debts due them from people in those provinces, takes this method to inform them, that he is willing to undertake the collection of such debts at a commission of one half the sum collected, without any expence to the creditor's gentlemen inclined to employ him on those terms, may enquire his character from Philip R. Fendall, Esq; Mr. Robert Townshend Hooe, or Mr. Robert Mundell, merchants at Port-Tobacco. He proposes to be at Port-Tobacco sometime in the month of June next, in order to receive the accounts and specialties of some gentlemen in Maryland, who have already promised him their business, and will be glad if all those who may chuse to employ him, would have their papers lodged with any of the above named gentlemen, (against that time) to whom he will give proper receipts.

November 29, 1774.
 To be sold to the highest bidder, on Monday the 12th day of December next, on the premises, THE following tracts or parcels of land, situated in Prince George's county, within three miles of Boucher's chapel, viz. part of Walnut-hill engaged, containing two hundred and thirty-eight acres and a half; Hopewell, containing eighty nine acres and a half; Tyler's Delight, containing fifty-five acres; the two first-mentioned tracts join each other commodiously, the other is a small distance from them. The above lands are exceedingly well watered and wooded, are very level, and have plenty of meadow ground; the soil is well adapted to farming, and open to a good range; there are, on one of the tracts, about twenty five acres cleared, and under good fence, with a dwelling house, kitchen, and tobacco house, all new and in good repair, likewise a small apple orchard of fine young trees: the title is indisputable. Time will be given for payment, on giving bond and security if required.
 W 2 100/61 SAMUEL TYLER.

A valuable file of LANDS.
 TO be sold, a tract of land in Berkeley and Frederick counties, containing 12,076 acres; it lies seven miles on each side of Seneca river, the quantity on the east side, being only a slip of low ground, is inconsiderable; the quality of the land is remarkably good, and the conveniences attending it great.
 There are two plentiful streams of water running through marshes three miles in length, some of which are already reclaimed meadows, and the rest, at a very small expence, might soon be reduced to the like state. On each side of the stream, mills might be erected and furnaces, the last affording stone, lime, iron, and lead ore. On one of the streams I have already erected a complete merchant mill, with a pair of the best French burrs for grinding of wheat, and at pair of common stones for grinding of Indian corn; besides this, there is near the dam a large tub-mill, and on the other stream there is a valuable saw mill. There are five fenced and improved plantations; on one of them is a good stone house, two stories high, with two rooms on a floor, a kitchen, dairy, and all other convenient out-houses; on another plantation where Michel Pike lived, there is a good stone house; and at the other plantation there are overseers house, negro quarters, barns, stables, tobacco houses, &c.
 The above tract shall be either partitioned off in lots of 1000 or 500 acres, or sold bodily to one purchaser.
 Belonging to this estate there are 112 negroes to be disposed of, together with all the stocks of cattle, equal to any in the colony, horses, mares, colts, hogs, &c. likewise all the necessary implements for the planter or farmer. Any person or persons, inclinable to purchase are desired to make their proposals to me at Rosegill, on Rappahannaock river, or to leave them with the overseer, who lives at the house plantation, and will show the land. In November I shall be on the premises, and may then be personally treated with. Part of this land, and some of the negroes, belong to my eldest son, who leaves to me the disposition thereof, and will confirm any engagement I enter into on his part.

TWENTY-EIGHT DOLLARS REWARD.
 RAN away, or carried away by land or water, on the sixth day of September last, from the subscriber, living in Calvert county, Maryland, a likely negro man, named Jacob, about 30 years of age, 6 feet high, middling slender, as for his clothing it is needless to mention as he has been gone so long. I suspect the said negro is harboured in Virginia a-out ten miles from Belhaven, near Capt. Cartie's. Whoever apprehends the said negro man, and secures him in any jail so that he may be had again, shall have a reward of eight dollars; if carried away by any person or persons, whoever will apprehend the said thief or thieves, and secures him or them in a jail, so that he or they may be dealt with as the law directs, shall receive the remaining twenty dollars as a reward, at the conviction of the said thief or thieves, paid by RAN away from my plantation near the head of Leonard's Creek, in Calvert county, the 20th of September last; a healthy stout strong negro fellow, named Davie, near thirty years of age, and about 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high; he had on a country cloth jacket, flannel shirt and trousers made of brown rolls. I bought him from Mr. James Campbell, who lives at or near Allen's-Field in Charles county, in whose neighbourhood, I have reason to think, the fellow now conceals himself. Whoever will be pleased to secure him in such a manner that I may have him again, shall be entitled to twenty shillings more than the law allows, and if brought home, reasonable charges paid by

 JOHN KING, late coachman to his excellency Robert Eden, Esq; takes this method of informing the public and his friends in particular, that he has taken the house and stables lately belonging to John Warren, where he has fitted up the same in a genteel manner for the accommodation of gentlemen and their horses. Those gentlemen that please to favour him with their kind custom, may depend on the genteelst and kindest treatment, and the greatest care taken of their horses; he has also provided himself with able saddle horses, for ladies and gentlemen, which he intends letting out at a reasonable rate; it is needless to add further, as his friends are well convinced of his care and fidelity to strangers and their horses.

TO BE SOLD,

 THE land and plantation where Mrs. Elizabeth Contee lately lived, in Calvert county, lying near Patuxent river, between Nottingham and Lower Marlborough, containing about 700 acres, on which are valuable buildings of most kinds, added to a pleasant healthy situation; also a grist mill with a good stream of water, capable of grinding large quantities of grain, with several apple orchards and a variety of fruits of most kinds; the whole under good fence and repair, with a sufficient quantity of wood to support the same for a great number of years; a considerable quantity of low grounds, with a small expence, may be turned into valuable meadow; with many other conveniencies and natural advantages too tedious to mention, and too often abused under the credit or inclinable to purchase said land, may view the same, place, who can inform at what time they may be treated with on the occasion, by RAN away, on Wednesday the 2d of November, 1774, from on board the schooner Endeavour, when lying in Langford's-Bay, Kent county, Maryland, a certain Richard Coe, a convict; he was brought into this country in February last; had on, when he went away, an old flannel jacket, a check shirt, and canvas trousers, and took a dirty osanbrig shirt along with him, also a brown coloured coat and jacket about half worn, with plain plated buttons, a pair of white stockings, and plain plated buckles; he is about six feet high, and stoops or hange forward as he walks, speaks much in the Lancashire or west of England dialect, and expresses himself very badly; he is of a fair reddish complexion, but of a down look, and pitted with the small-pox. Whoever takes up the aforesaid runaway, and secures him in any jail on this continent, and gives notice thereof in the public papers, shall receive six dollars reward; or, if brought to Deep-Water-Point, Miles-River, Maryland, shall receive the above reward, and reasonable charges, from

FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD.
 Rock-Creek, Frederick county, August 3, 1774.
 RAN away last night from the subscriber, a convict servant man named Joseph Barker, an Englishman, about 25 years of age; he is a well looking fellow, of a ruddy complexion, about 5 feet 10 inches high; had on and took with him, a reddish coloured mixed broad-cloth coat with a velvet cape, two white flannel short jackets bound with red, two pair of nan-keen breeches, a pair of old leather breeches, a pair of old worsted stockings, a pair of thread ditto, old shoes; and a felt hat. He wears his hair tied behind. It is supposed he is gone in company with some other man unknown to me, as I have missed two horses out of my pasture, one of which is a large forrel, about 15 hands high, paces naturally; the other a chefnut sorrel, about 14 hands and a half high, paces, trots, and gallops; he is low before, crest fallen, and has a shaggy tail; the horses are both shod before.
 The man took with him a half worn saddle and curb bridle; one of the itaples is gone off the fore part of the saddle on the near side. Whoever takes up said servant and brings him home to the subscriber, shall have, if taken 30 miles from home, 20 dollars, and 5 pounds for the other man and the two horses, and so
