Imported in the Ocean, Capt. Dixon, from Whitehaven, and to be sold at a moderate advance for cash, or bills of exchange,
ABOUT £260 prime cost of goods, they consist of one hundred and four pieces of Kendal cotton in packages, of five or six different prices in each package, five packages of felt hats, with a few castors each package, the cost of each package about £22; some coarse lawns, silk handkerchiefs, and white muslin thread make up the rest.

JOHN BAYNES.
The subscriber proposing to decline the store kept by him in this city for James Buchanan and company having on hand about £1600 prime cost of well stored goods, (a very small part of which have been reported above three months) which he will lump off at first cost and charges, for cash, good bills of exchange, or tobacco.

Those persons who are indebted to James Buchanan and company for dealings at the above store, are requested to make as speedy payment as possible.
ROBERT BUCHANAN.

November 20, 1774.
Was left on board the sloop Industry, the latter end of September last, at the mouth of Pauxent river, by four sailors, a small boat about ten feet long, five feet beam, a white turpentine bottom, tarred abait and on the inside, ring-boats in the head and stern with two oars. The owner may have her again, by proving his property, and paying charges, by applying to Stephen Lynch, Skipper of said sloop, at St. Mary's river.

All persons are forewarned from hunting and shooting within the subscriber's inclosures.
WILLIAM THOMAS.

December 3, 1774.
Will be exposed to sale to the highest bidder, on Wednesday the 4th of January next, by the subscriber, at his dwelling plantation,
SUNDRY negroes, the effects of Benjamin Hance, late of Calvert county, deceased, consisting of men, women, boys, and girls.
SAMUEL HANCE, executor.

To be sold by the subscriber, living near Annapolis, a TRACT of land, lying in Frederick county, adjoining to Thomas Dorley on Linganore; containing two hundred acres of good timbered land, and bought twenty-five acres of good meadow ground, being part of a tract of land taken up by Benjamin Clary, decided by him to Moses Maccubbin, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased, called Meab; any person who wants to purchase, may be satisfied, by applying to
WILLIAM MACCUBBIN, of Moses, administrator.

Annapolis, December 7, 1774.
To be sold or rented, the lot and improvements thereon where Patrick Tonry lately lived in this city; consisting of a dwelling-house, brew-house; and other conveniences, all adjoining to the water; in the lower-house there are a large copper-boiler and distill with a malt-kiln. For terms, apply to
JAMES DICK, and STEWART, and ROBERT COUDEN.

I hereby caution all persons from hunting or shooting within my inclosures at my different plantations, as I am determined to sue the persons or persons I find therein.
W. DENTON HAMMOND.

TEN POUNDS REWARD.
RAN away, or supposed to be stolen by Anthony Mooringdollar, a Dutchman, on the 25th of September last, a likely dark mulatto-man slave, named Samuel, about seventeen years of age, five feet eight or nine inches high, had on when he went away, a new felt hat, on his shirt, a pair of trousers, and an old cotton jacket much worn and mended with country cloth. Mooringdollar was seen lurking about the neighbourhood for some days before the fellow went off, with light blue cloaths and a green surlout, and as he absconded about the same time, I am apprehensive he has carried the above slave along with him; whoever secures the supposed thief so as he may be punished accordingly, or brings the said slave to the subscriber, living near Piscataway, shall be entitled to a reward of five pounds currency for each, or for both the above-reward of ten pounds.

ELIZABETH GREEN.
Baltimore county, December 4, 1774.
RAN away from the subscriber, living near the Northampton Furnace, Baltimore county, two convict servant men, viz. William Hurin, a likely well-looking fellow, about 25 years of age; had on a dark with him a surlout coat with the skirts cut off, two red jackets, one of them had leather buttons, a small tarred hat, blue coat, and some stockings, short brown hair. The other named Joseph Cozman, a little portly fellow, about 19 or 20 years of age, a weaver by trade; had on a small neat coat cut up, brown hair tied behind, a light blue coat, quilt coloured jacket, white knit breech, white cotton stockings, good shoes, one pair of plated in one pair of pinchbeck buckles. Whoever takes up and secures the said servants, so that their masters may get them, shall have ten pounds reward, or five pounds for either of them, and reasonable charges if brought home, paid by
WILLIAM BOSLEY,
JOHN WILLMOTT, jun.

December 7, 1774.
To be sold by the subscriber, a tract of land, lying on Bennet's creek, in Frederick county, containing five hundred and forty-nine acres; as to the quality of said land, apply to Capt. Henry Griffin, and he will satisfy any person that inclines to purchase. For title and terms, apply to
NICHOLAS MAC UBBIN.

Calvert county, December 1, 1774.
To be rented for a term of years,
A DOUBLE-GEERD grist-mill in good repair, with a pair of best French burrs for wheat, and a pair of Cologne for corn, with proper bolting cloths, and every other necessary; the stream is very good, and few equal her in grinding well and fast—situated in an excellent neighbourhood for custom, and where the manufactory of flour and bread may be carried on to great advantage, as she lies very convenient to Pauxent river, where there is a great demand for both from the shipping and country; with many other advantages too tedious to mention—for particulars, apply to the subscriber near Lower-Marlborough.
WILLIAM ALLEIN.

CARRIED away by Richard Tucker, who was lost between the twenty-fifth and thirtieth of November, a batteau with poplar sides, painted yellow, black gunwails, Mulberry timbers, twenty eight feet long, two and a half feet wide. Whoever takes up and secures the same, shall receive thirty shillings reward, on her being delivered to
STEPHEN STEWARD.

SIXTEEN DOLLARS REWARD.
WHEREAS a Negro fellow of mine, named Will, is now run away, for having resisted his overseer, by throwing him down, throttling him and striking him sundry times with his fist, it is therefore to be hoped that as he has been guilty of so flagitious a crime that all masters of negroes and servants will encourage the taking of him, by promising them the above reward, which I will pay, either upon his being brought home or his being secured in any goal within this province; it cannot be doubted but all overseers will be vigilant on this occasion; He is about five feet ten inches high, a very stout likely fellow, with large full eyes; had on old cotton breeches, new shoes, and yarn stockings, which are of a thread of black and a thread of white, an on his shirt his other cloaths he left behind. He has an extensive acquaintance in and about Annapolis. There were two more fellows went off at the same time for refusing to assist their overseer, one named Will Jack and the other Sam; had on brown jackets, &c. for each of them I will give twenty shillings.
ROBERT TYLER.

CAME to the subscriber's plantation near Elk-ridge Church, in Anne-Arundel County, in October 1773, a steer about 3 years old, having his belly, legs, and tail white, a white list over his shoulders, and another on his rump, a white triangle in his forehead, both his ears cropped, and a bit out of each, above and below, the rest of his body a dark brindle. And a red heifer about 18 months old, having a list in each ear. They were advertised in November and December 1773. The owner may have them on proving property, paying charges, and applying to
JAMES MACGILL.

Cecil County, Nov. 15th 1774.
COMMITTED to my custody this day as a runaway, a negro fellow by the name of Dick, who says he belongs to Mr. Philip Nowland of Loudon County, Virginia. His master is desired to pay his charges and take him home.
JOHN HAMILTON, Sheriff.

To be sold, a stout likely mulatto slave, 20 years old, he has been brought up in the house and is very handy, he also understands taking care of a horse; his faults the purchaser will be made acquainted with, though they are only such as may be corrected by tolerable looking after.
N. B. Enquire of the printer.

TO cover next season, if not sold, WHYNOT, a fine bay horse, fifteen hands high, eight years old, got by Fearnought, near New-Town, Chester, at three pounds a mare, and five shillings to the groom. WHYNOT's character and pedigree are well known, and he is allowed to be as good a bottomed horse as any in America.—B ADGER, a beautiful, strong, bony, grey horse, six years old, fifteen hands and one inch high, imported from England; got by Lord Chedworth's Bosphorus, who won seven king's plates, his dam by the noted Othello, commonly called Black and all Black, and his grand dam, by the famous flying Childers, near the city of Annapolis; at five pounds a mare, and seven shillings and sixpence to the groom.—At the same place a strong black horse, of the wagon breed, at thirty shillings a mare, and half a dollar to the groom. The money for each mare to be paid at the stable door. Any gentlemen breeders, who intend sending their mares to any of the above horses, are desired to give as early notice thereof as they conveniently can to JOHN CRAOOS, at the Governor's, to prevent their being disappointed, as he is limited to a certain number; and in the mean time, if any gentleman is desirous of purchasing all or any of the above horses, he may apply to John Cragge above mentioned, who will also sell the beautiful dark chestnut horse STIM, who is remarkably speedy, and six years old; he was got by Mr. Wildman's Babraham, his dam by Mr. Rogers's Babraham, his grand dam by Sedbury out of Lord Portmore's Ebony.

December 1, 1774.
The copartnership between the subscribers will end and be dissolved the 31st day of next March, which has been carried on under the firms of Thomas Contee and company, and Contee and Bowie at Nottingham; therefore all persons indebted to them on bond, bill, or open account, are desired to make speedy payment: those that fail payment by the first of February next must excuse us for disagreeable consequences, as we must take legal methods to enforce payments without respect to persons.
THOMAS CONTEE, FIELDER BOWIE.

N. B. We have on hand a parcel of valuable goods, which we will dispose of on reasonable terms, for cash, tobacco, or good bills of exchange.
W.

At the plantation of Thomas Miller, living in Anne-Arundel county, taken up as a stray, a brown bay gelding, about fifteen hands high, six or seven years old, paces and gallops, has a star in his forehead, and white hairs on his neck near to his withers, as if rubbed with a collar; appears to be branded W R joined together, but not very plain, and has lost his left eye. The owner may have him again on proving his property and paying charges.
W.

To be rented from year to year, or for a term of years,
BELVOIR, the beautiful seat of the honourable George William Fairfax, Esq; lying upon Patowmack River in Fairfax county, Virginia, about fourteen miles below Alexandria. The mansion house is of brick, two stories high, with four convenient rooms and a large passage on the lower floor, five rooms and a passage on the second, and a servants hall and cellars below, convenient offices, stables, and coach-house adjoining, as also a large and well furnished garden, stored with a great variety of various fruits, in good order. Appertaining to the tract on which these houses stand, and which contain near 2000 acres (surrounded in a manner by navigable water) are several valuable fisheries, and a good deal of cleared land in different parts, which may be let together, or separately, as shall be found most convenient. The terms may be known of colonel Washington, who lives near the premises, or of me in Berkeley county.
FRANCIS WILLIS, junr.

This day is published, by WILLIAM AIKMAN, bookseller and stationer, Annapolis, in two large volumes, handsomely bound and titled, price 16s. currency.
W.

A NEW VOYAGE ROUND THE WORLD, in the years 1768, 1769, 1770, and 1771, undertaken by Capt. James Cook in the ship Endeavour, drawn from his own journal, and from the papers of Joseph Banks, Esq; and published by order of the lords of the admiralty, by JOHN HAWKSWORTH, L. L. D. with cuts, and a map of the whole navigation.—This edition of Cook's voyages contains the whole of the second and third volumes of Hawkesworth's collection of voyages, which was published in London in three volumes, and sold for three guineas.—Where may be had, Poor Will's Almanack for 1775, price 8d. and Father Abraham's pocket Almanack, interleafed with writing paper, price 1s.

ELEVEN DOLLARS REWARD.
STRAYED or stolen sometime in June last, from the plantation of Dr. John Parnham at Newport Charles County, a bright bay gelding, 3 years old last spring, about 13 1/2 hands high, remarkably truncky and strong made, branded on the near buttock with two dots, thus, . . . Whoever will deliver the said horse to Dr. Parnham, or the subscriber, living in Picawaxen, shall receive three dollars reward for the horse, and eight dollars for the apprehension and conviction of the thief, if stole.
CHARLES BRANDT.

TWENTY-EIGHT DOLLARS REWARD.
RAN away, or carried away by land or water, on the sixth day of September last, from the subscriber, living in Calvert county, Maryland, a likely negro man, named Jacob, about 30 years of age, 6 feet high, middling slender, as for his cloathing it is needless to mention as he has been gone so long. I suspect the said negro is harboured in Virginia about ten miles from Belhaven, near Capt. Cartie's. Whoever apprehends the said negro man, and secures him in any jail so that he may be had again, shall have a reward of eight dollars; if carried away by any person, or persons, whoever will apprehend the said thief or thieves, and secures him or them in any jail, so that he or they may be dealt with as the law directs, shall receive the remaining twenty dollars as a reward; at the conviction of the said thief or thieves, paid by
EDWARD REYNOLDS.
