NICHOLAS MACCUBBIN.

SIXTEEN DOLLARS REWARD.

WHEREAS a Negro fellow of mine, named Will, is now run away, for having resisted his overseer, beating him down, throttling him and striking him sundry times with his fist, it is therefore to be hoped that as he has been guilty of so flagitious a crime that a number of negroes and servants will encourage the taking of him, by promising them the above reward, which I will pay, either upon his being brought home or his being secured in any goal within this province if it can be doubted but all overseers will be vigilant on this occasion. He is about five feet ten inches high, a very stout likely fellow, with large full eyes; he don't cotton breeches, new shoes, and yarn stockings, which are of a thread of black and a thread of white, an off-abrig shirt; his other cloths he left behind. He has an extensive acquaintance in and about Annapolis. There were two more fellows went off at the same time for refusing to assist their overseer, one named Will Jack and the other Sam, had on torn night jackets, &c. for each of them I will give twenty shillings.
