

RAN away from the subscriber, living in Calvert county, near the 20th instant, a negro fellow named Jessy, of a yellow complexion, has an impediment in his speech, aged about 30 years, about 5 feet 2 or 3 inches high; had on an old shirt, green Walsington jacket and breeches, a pair of English varn stockings, country shoes tied with it up, he may change his dress having other cloaths. Whoever will bring the said negro to the subscriber near Hunting-town, in the aforesaid county, or secure him in any manner so that he can be had again, shall receive five pounds reward, and if taken 40 miles from home, twenty dollars, JOSEPH IRELAND.
N. B. All masters of vessels are hereby warned that if they do not carry the said negro off.

To be sold by public auction, on the 15th day of June next,

ALL the lands lately sold with Lebanon Forge, situated in Harford county, on Deer creek, in the same tract, the same distance from the lower cross roads, and twelve miles from Harford, they will be sold in four lots or divisions, the first consisting of near three hundred acres, part of a tract called Arabia Petres, near one half cleared, and the rest in wood land, being the part next the chapel, and extending across the tract to Deer creek; the second consisting of nearly the same quantity of wood land and cleared land as the former adjoining to it, and extending also across the tract to Deer creek, in which the site is good for a mill. The third intended for a mill site, containing about forty acres of Arabia Petres, and twenty-five acres of a tract of land called Convenience, lying on each side the stream of Deer creek, and including the so-called mill buildings, a grist-mill and saw mill may be erected thereon at a small expense. The last lot consisting of two tracts of land called Rough Stone and Isaac's Decker, and containing near three hundred acres. The land in general is high and healthy, is well wooded and fertile, adapted to farming in a well settled neighbourhood, convenient to market and to many places of religious worship of different persuasions. Parts of the land may be seen at John Rumsey's near the premises, William Buchanan's at Battlement-town, or Benjamin Rumsey's at Joppa. Terms of sale, and the title will be made known on the day, by WILLIAM BUCHANAN, and BENJAMIN RUMSEY.

FIFTEEN POUNDS REWARD.

RAN away last night from the subscribers, living on Elk-Ridge, in Anne-Arundel county, Maryland, two English convict servants men, viz. William Green, a stout well set fellow, about 5 feet 5 inches high, of a brown or rather yellow complexion, short black curled hair, had on a good felt hat, a country tow linen shirt, a white kersey long skirted jacket, a blue broad cloth ditto under it, sewed with white thread, white kersey breeches patched with dyed yellow kersey, country knit stockings, old country made shoes nailed, and a pair of pumps much worn. He is a West country fellow, and speaks in that dialect. John Peacock, a shaver by trade, a lively well made fellow, about 5 feet 8 inches high, brown complexion, dark hair and eyes, is very talkative, an artful cunning fellow, is very officious in shewing his skill in drawing pictures and making print letters, pretends to understand the painting business, writes a tolerable good hand, and its probable may forge passes for himself and the others; had on when he went away an old felt hat, an esnabrig coat, a dyed kersey jacket, a coat n duto without sleeves, kersey breeches, country knit stockings, country made shoes with plated buckles, the silver chiefly worn off, an iron collar and iron on his ankles, has it likely he will get them off by the assistance of the other fellow, and may lead either cloths.

Whoever takes up Peacock, and secures him in any jail, so that his master gets him again, shall have, if taken 10 miles from home, forty shillings, if 40 miles five pounds, and if out of the province ten pounds, and real name of each if brought home. And for Green, if taken 10 miles from home twenty shillings, if 40 miles forty shillings, and if a greater distance five pounds, and reasonable charges if brought home, by JOHN HOOD, and MORDECAI SELBY.

NANTICOKE RIVER, December 2, 1774.

THE subscriber on the day aforesaid, discovered a schooner boat lying on her beam, with her sails up, grounded near a ragged point, in about five feet and a half at low water, the wind being then at W S W, the subscriber took the anchor of the said schooner on board his boat and set sail, endeavouring to force her on ragged point but could not, he then made a purchase to raise her, but the weather proving very cold, he took her two sails, ballast, cable and anchor, one rug, one blanket, one shirt, one frock, one small pot, one old Dutch oven, one knife, one bracket, one pewter basin, one small jug with some rum in it, one pair of old trousers, one pump hook, and some blocks, and went home, on the twentieth of the same instant I went to her again, and found she had moved about three-quarters of a mile up the river, and endeavoured to raise her but in vain; any person claiming the above articles may have them, proving their property, paying charges, and applying to WILLIAM LOYD.

FOR SALE.

THE following tracts of land, lying in Worcester county, in the province of Maryland, viz. Bachelor's Adventure, containing 338 acres, lying on a branch, known by the name of Johnson's Mill Branch. Addition, containing 212 acres, lying on Focomoke river; they will be sold for sterling or current money, if he title indisputable. For terms apply to WILLIAM T. WOOTTON.
N. B. Time will be given for payment of the greatest part of the purchase money if required.

RAN away from the subscriber, living in Calvert county, near Lyon's creek, a certain Joseph Lee, about five feet high, appears to be about thirty or six and thirty years of age; he took with him all his wearing apparel which consisted as follows, a thick-fet coat, a striped waistcoat, a pair of bearskin breeches, two pair of mixt coarse yarn stockings, and an old blue waistcoat; he is very remarkable in one of his feet, having lost the toes off one of them; wears his own hair which is very thin; he is very much given to drink. Whoever takes up the said servant, and brings him to the subscriber, shall receive eight dollars, or secures him in any jail, so that I may get him again, shall receive a reward of ten dollars, paid by GEORGE SMITH.

WANTED IMMEDIATELY.

A MAN who has been used to driving a wagg and taking care of horses, such a one who can come well recommended for his honesty, sobriety and industry, will meet with good wages by the month or year, by applying to the subscriber, living about four miles from Simpson's tavern, in the Upper part of Anne-Arundel county, Maryland, REUBEN MERIWEATHER.

FIVE POUNDS REWARD.

STOLEN from the subscriber, living on the head of South river, near Annapolis, a black horse, about 14 hands and 1 inch high, with a black face, one hind foot white, with a very thick neck, high crest, paces slow and very easy, he is branded with a woman's flourish, there is some gray hairs under his belly near his sheath, and some saddle spots; he is supposed to be carried into Charles or St. Mary's county, he was stolen the 23th instant. Whoever delivers the said horse to the subscriber, shall have twenty shillings reward if ten miles from home, if a greater distance, three pounds, and forty shillings for apprehending the thief if convicted, WILLIAM ST. LAWRENCE.

STERLING.

THE property of Harry Dorsey Gough, stands at Perry Hill, Baltimore county, where he will cover at two guineas the season, he is only to go to thirty mares; therefore those that send will find a better chance of a colt than in the common way; this horse never was backed, and it is intended never shall, but kept on purpose for covering, he is five years old this spring, handsome, and upwards of fifteen hands high, and well made in proportion; was got by Col. Sharp's noted Orbell, and out of a remarkable fine English dray mare, therefore he is what they call in England the coach horse; from this strain out of light mares, they breed those noble horses called hunters, which is preferred to any in Great Britain, for either strength, carriage, or saddle.

George-town, on Potowmack, December 27, 1774. THE manufactory of snuff of various sorts is now carried on by me at this place, where I can furnish it either in wholesale or retail, at reasonable rates. I have also manufactured tobacco for sale, viz. shag and cuttun, and shall shortly begin and continue to manufacture it in all the different forms, if I receive proper encouragement.

Orders from persons at a distance will be duly attended to, either by myself, or Mr. Joseph Birch; and I will give ready money, or snuff for empty snuff bottles delivered here, RICHARD THOMPSON.
N. B. I will now say, and with some degree of confidence, that at present I have by me, (and shall continue to make) as good snuff as is manufactured on this continent.

TO be sold or rented, the lot and improvements thereon where Patrick Toney lately lived in this city; consisting of a dwelling-house, brew-house, and other conveniences, all adjoining to the water; in the brew-house there are a large copper-boiler and distil with a malt-kiln. For terms, apply to JAMES DICK and STEWARD, and ROBERT COUTEN.

CHEROKEY.

A FINE dark bay, well made country horse, upwards of fifteen hands high, stands at the subscriber's dwelling plantation, and covers mares this season at fifteen shillings, GASSAWAY RAWLINGS.

THERE is at the plantation of Richard Rawlins, in Baltimore county, Potapco, Lower Hundred, a bay mare, about 13 hands high, 14 or 15 years old, marked with the saddle, and paces. The owner may have her again, on proving his property, and paying charges, WALTER BEAL.

WHEREAS I purchased of Agnes Walsh, of the province of Maryland, a lot containing half an acre in the town of Staunton, with a wood lot of 50 acres belonging to the same, for the consideration of fifty-two pounds ten shillings, current money of Virginia; for the payment of which sum, I together with Mr. Felix Gilbert, entered into a bond, payable to the said Agnes some time in the month of March next; and whereas since the said purchase, I have received notice from a certain Samuel Gay, that he has a prior title to the said lot and land, and discharging me to make any improvement on the said lot. These are therefore to forewarn all persons from taking an assignment on the said bond, as I am determined not to pay the same until the matter respecting the title is cleared up, or until this Agnes Walsh do enter into bond, together with good security, in the penal sum of one thousand pounds for the security of said title; as Elizabeth building a merchant mill and other houses high to that value. From under my hand, this 27th day of February, 1775. SAMPSON MATTHEWS.

WHEREAS I have been informed by a letter from England, of a parcel of books shipped for my use from Dublin, some time in June or July last; and as they have not come to hand (I suppose) from my being a stranger in this province; I take this method, therefore, to inform any gentleman to whose hands they may possibly have fallen, that they will much oblige me if they inform Mr. Stephen W. or Mr. Richard Post, in Annapolis, either by letter or any other convenient way, who will be ready for any charges they may be liable to. The doing of which will be only in justice to their humble servant, THOMAS LLOYD.
N. B. I think Baltimore the most likely place for them to have come to.

TO be let and entered on immediately, the noted and well accustomed tavern in Chester town, Maryland, late the property of George Layburn, deceased. There are great improvements made on the premises, and still further encouragement will be given to any person applying, who will study to recommend the house to the public. For terms, apply to Joseph Couden, in said town, RALPH FORTER.

LOST at Prince George's county court, on Wednesday the 29th instant, a large red Morocco pocket-book, in which was between three and four pounds in cash, andundry papers belonging to Capt. Robert Etherington, of no use to any one but the owner. Whoever has found the said pocket-book, and will bring it with the papers to the subscriber in Upper Marlborough, shall be welcome to the money that was in it, and a reward besides of twenty shillings current money, and no questions asked, RALPH FORTER.

A white woman to be sold for her prison fee; she is an exceeding good spinner and knitter, RALPH FORTER.

OUR partnership is now at an end; all parties that have had any dealings with us, are desired to settle and discharge their balances, but if the regard was paid to our last advertisement. Constant attendance will be given at this place to settle and receive our debts, and those that do not comply by the 10th of July next, legal measures will be taken to enforce payments without respect to persons. We have between £700 and £800 cost of goods, which we would sell very cheap, and give two years time of payment, THO. COXTER, and FIELDER BOWLE.

TO be sold by the subscribers, a quantity of Barbados rum, Muscovado sugar, coffee, chocolate, soap, candles, &c. &c. either by wholesale or retail, for ready cash only, JAMES LEATCH, and Company.

N. B. All persons indebted to James Leatch, are desired to make immediate payment, as no longer indulgence will be given.

FIVE POUNDS REWARD.

RAN away from the subscriber, living in Frederick county, near Badsburgh, a lively mulatto fellow, named James Mason. He is about 5 feet high or so inches high, has short black hair curled behind, and is a straight well made active fellow, of about twenty-seven years of age. He undertakes a little of the blacksmith's business, and is a tolerable good workman; he had on when he went away, a brown cloth coat, an old double breasted jacket, a pair of white drilling or fustian breeches, a white shirt, a new hat with a white band and loop, and a pair of pated buckles in his shoes. As he is a sensible, active fellow, it is probable he may have a forged pass, or a discharged indenture from some of his acquaintances, and may endeavour to pass as a freeman. Whoever takes up the said slave, and secures him in any jail, so that I may get him again, shall have the above reward, and if brought home, their travelling expenses, paid by WALTER BEAL.

THERE is at the plantation of Anthony Wilcox, living in Frederick county, taken up as a boy, a small forrel gelding, about 3 years old, a small pacer, has a large star on his forehead, he has been docked, but no visible brand. The owner may have him again, on proving his property, and paying charges, WALTER BEAL.

FIVE POUNDS REWARD.

RAN away from the subscriber, living in Chester town, Kent county, in the province of Maryland, on the 27th day of January last, an indentured servant man, named John Dume, by trade a lawyer and roger carpenter; he is about 5 feet 3 inches high, and wears short light hair, is of a fair complexion, round shouldered, and stoops when he walks; he speaks something in the west of England dialect. He had on, and took with him, an old elegant coloured fur coat, a home-fun close-bodied light brown dress, which is much too large for him; a short fannel quilted waistcoat, two osnabrig shirts, a pair of good buckskin breeches, with a pair of plain yellow knee buckles, two pair of yarn stockings, the one pair white, the other brown, and pretty good shoes and shoe buckles; he can write a pretty good hand, and it is probable he will forge a discharge from Capt. Samuel Nicholson, (to whom he indentured himself) upon the counter part of his indentures. Whoever secures him in any jail so that he may be had again, shall receive the above reward, and if brought home, realizable charges will be paid, by J. NICHOLSON, junr.

GERMAN esnabrigs, by the piece or bale, and best London bottled wired porter, in casks of six dozen each, to be sold for ready money only, by JAMES CHRISTIE, junr.
