Anne-Arundel county Swamp, October 1, 1777.

THIS is to acquaint my good old customers that my old crop of leather is all done and in my way, and shall be obliged to them to come and pay for it, and take it away. I am also drawing my new crop, and as the price of bark and oil is greatly advanced, hope my customers will not think hard of my advancing in my price. I still continue to take in hides, but must advance in my price in proportion to the advanced price of bark, oil, &c.

BENJ. NORMAN.

SALT-PANS, ten feet square, and sixteen inches deep, with screws ready to join and fit them up, made at Catechin furnace, about ten miles from Frederick-Town, at fifty-five pounds per ton. If different sizes are desired, they will be attempted.—Carriage from the furnace to Baltimore is now at seven pounds a ton.

JAMES JOHNSON.

Prince-George's county, July 23, 1777.

WILLIAM WATERS takes this method to desire all those whose accounts have been standing with him unsettled twelve months, to make immediate payment, which will prevent trouble and expence to them as well as to himself.

TEN DOLLARS REWARD.

Elk-Ridge, Anne-Arundel county, near Green's mill, Patuxent river, July 7, 1777.

RAN away from the subscriber, a convict servant man, named GEORGE HOLT, about 5 feet 4 or 5 inches high about 23 or 24 years of age, light sandy hair, topped back, has a weakness in one of his thumbs. Had on a country hat half worn, and a coarse country shirt, almost new, one lincey jacket with a yellow cotton cape, and one striped ditto with yellow metal buttons, coarse striped country trousers, old shoes newly laced, old stockings black and blue, an old razor, and an old day-book with his name in many places in it. It is imagined he has forged a pass, and will endeavour to get on board some vessel. Whoever secures the said servant, so that his master may get him again, shall have ten dollars reward, and, if brought home, all reasonable charges paid, by me.

WILLIAM RAY.

To be SOLD, FIVE hundred weights of WOOL. Enquire of the Printer.

SIXTEEN DOLLARS REWARD.

Anne-Arundel county, Oct. ber 14, 1777. RAN away, the 15th of last month, from the subscriber, at the subscriber's plantation, on the head of Severn, the head of Severn and Elk-Ridge, a NEGRO, named SAMSON, a well-made, squat, dapper fellow, of brownish complexion, and thick lips; but of straight address, art, and subtlety. He was early taught reading and writing, which he will practise occasionally, and may probably force a pass, or impose on some one for a FREE NEGRO.

He took with him, besides his common country-made linen and woollen clothing, a pair of black and brown breeches, of British manufacture, a blue coat of ditto, a white linen shirt, a pair of old shoes, stockings, and hat; and may possibly be provided with other apparel than is here described, or shroud enough to exchange for it. He declared intention was to get on board the first ship that went down the bay, in which he probably intended being top-late, and it is suspected he is at present aboard and entertained by his kin to be a full acquaintance, on the north side of Severn, either at Mr. King's plantation (the seat of the late col. Hammond) where he was born and bred; or at those of the late board, where he is said to have children, or somewhere in the neck, not far from there. He is a notorious offender, and audacious villain, and it is to be expected will be dealt with accordingly, wherever he is found talking.

The above reward will be paid immediately, on the delivery of him to my overseer, Thomas Woodman at my said plantation; or to William Hager, at the head of Severn; or at Annapolis, to

JOHN HAMMOND.

Charles county, Nanjemoy, Oct. 6th, 1777.

For S. A. L. E. A SLOOP, burthen about 30 hogheads of tobacco, with a six hoghead FLAT; the sloop is very well found, her sails and rigging very good, two cables and anchors, one of her cables quite new, the other about half worn, about six years old, has had a rough repair this last summer. Any person inclinable to purchase, may apply to the subscriber at Nanjemoy.

AND. BAILLIE.

October 6, 1777.

The subscriber has to rent or lease, for a term of years not exceeding eleven, and entered on immediately, TWO extraordinary MILLS, joining together, the one a grist, and the other a fulling-mill, with all the materials proper for each of them, situated on a never failing stream of water, lying on the head of Anne-Arundel county, on the head of South-River within nine miles of Annapolis, and eight of Queen Anne, and in the most plentiful place, perhaps, to custom, of any mills on the continent. Likewise small plantations with good buildings, to wit, a dwelling-house planked above and below, a cellar underneath, a good stone chimney, and all other necessary houses, a very fine paled garden, and a young apple orchard. Also a very valuable meadow, with prospect, capable of producing near one hundred pound per annum. This place would answer very well for a tavern, being on a very public road leading through the country. For terms apply to

CASSANDRA DUCKER.

Calvert county, Lion's-Creek.

TO be RUN for, near my house, on Friday and Saturday the 3d and 4th of October next, a quantity of exceeding good stall fed beef, not exceeding one thousand weight. If the gentlemen racers should not think proper to make up any beef, there will be a purse of ten pounds, free for any horse, mare, or gelding, carrying weight for size, one hundred and twenty to be the standard, and to raise and fall according to the rules of racing. Horses, &c. to be entered the same day of the races, with the subscriber, by one o'clock. The same purse of ten pounds, or beef, will be run for here every Friday and Saturday, agreeable to this advertisement, from that date, till the 19th and 20th of December next.

BENJ. LANE, of Richard.

N. B. Good entertainment for man and horse at my house, where they may always find good swamp oysters.

B. L.

FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD.

RAN away from the subscriber, a convict servant named SAMUEL WRIGHT, by trade a miller, but can turn his hands to almost any sort of business, thirty-eight years of age, about 5 feet 6 inches high, very swarthy complexion, black curling hair, much given to liquor; had on a frize waistcoat without sleeves, leather breeches, half worn shoes, country lincey shirt, and an old hat. Whoever takes up and secures the said servant, so that his master may get him again, shall have, if taken ten miles from home, three pounds; if twenty miles, five pounds; if forty miles, seven pounds, and, if out of the province, the above reward.

WILLIAM WHETCROFT.

FIFTEEN DOLLARS REWARD.

Washington county, Chew's-Farm, Sept. 13, 1777.

RAN away from the subscriber, on Chew's-Farm, a NEGRO fellow named Sampson, about six feet high, between forty and fifty years of age; had on and took with him, when he went away, an old full lincey jacket, a pair of blue breeches, a tow shirt and trousers, but may have other cloaths. He is remarkable by having a blemish in one of his eyes, is a designing, cunning rogue, though would often appear silly, or a fool, by which means he disguises himself. Having been failed on the eastern shore, I have reason to think he has gone that way, having frequently expressed a desire to be tithed. Whoever takes up said negro, and returns him to the subscriber, if within thirty miles, shall receive eight dollars, and if farther, the above reward, paid by
