A CARD FROM MANSFIELD T. WALWORTH—THE SHOOTING OF LIEUT. WHARTON AT THE OLD CAPITOL PRISON, WASHINGTON.

The Albany, New York, Atlas & Argus contains the following communication from Mr. Mansfield T. Walworth, a son of Chancellor Walworth, of New York, in which is a narrative of the facts relative to the shooting of Lieut. Wharton at the old capitol prison at Washington by the sentinel on guard.

Editors of the Atlas & Argus: My attention has been called to an article in your paper relating to Lieut. Wharton, who was shot by a sentinel in the old capitol prison, Washington. I have no question in my mind that the same spirit of falsehood which characterized your paper before I became a citizen of Kentucky, still prevails, and will induce you to give this article a place in your columns. I speak from knowledge of the occurrence. I was arrested by order of General McClellan, imprisoned for nearly three months in the Confederate prison, and am still a prisoner with the parole of Saratoga county, and am obliged to report to this Government, daily, my whereabouts. I was beside Lieut. Wharton in the room when he was shot, being the altercation with the sentinel and the charges made by the dying man. I was his friend, and when the fellow-prisoners left him with his wife he requested me to remain with him and her until he died.

He did not provoke the altercation. He was resting with his arms upon the window-sill, and when ordered to take in his head, withdrew his arms and stood perfectly erect, and a few inches back from the window. The words of the sentinel, which provoked Wharton's sarcastic retort, were not the order to take in his head, but the sentinel's use of opprobrious epithets, and cursing him.

He was in no mood for quarrelling, having that very moment closed a Bible, from which he was reading aloud his mother's favorite chapter, and remarking upon his respect for the Episcopalian religion, occasioned by her life. When the altercation had gone on for a few moments, and while Wharton was standing a few inches back from the window, with his left hand resting upon his right elbow, the sentinel, under the order of an unseen person below in the prison-yard, raised his musket to the second-story window and fired. The ball passed through his left hand, his right arm, and thence through his right breast, going entirely through him and striking the wall beyond.

He was my friend, and I shall vindicate his memory.

It would be proper for those who have friends prisoners in Richmond to make some effort to have a fair examination of this case; for retaliation upon prisoners by the hasty and uncontrolled soldiers of either side should, for the sake of humanity, be postponed by the good sense of the belligerents.

Lieut. Wharton had resigned from the United States Army in Utah, and is a nephew of a member of the Cabinet at Richmond. His relatives in Virginia and Maryland are of the most prominent families. MANSFIELD T. WALWORTH.

VESSELS DESTROYED AT FREDERICKSBURG, VIRGINIA.

The Fredericksburg Christian Banner of Thursday last gives the following list of vessels destroyed at that place by the Confederate military authorities previous to the evacuation of the town:

Steamer Virginia, steamer St. Nicholas, schooner May, owned by McConkey, Parr & Co., Baltimore, Maryland; A. Henry Armstrong, valued at $45,000; schooner Ada, owned by Samuel G. Miles, of Baltimore, valued at $3,500; schooner Northern Light, valued at $2,000; Reindeer, owned by Capt. W. C. Moore, Middlesex county, Virginia, valued at $1,500; Decapolis, valued at $700; Mary Pierce, owned by R. W. Adams and L. B Eddens, Fredericksburg, Virginia, valued at $5,600; Helen, Capt. Solomon Phillips, Essex Company, valued at $2,000; W. J. Valiant, valued at $1,500; Anglo-Saxon, owned by Segars & Perkins, Middlesex Company, valued at $1,600; Dazzling Orb, Fredericksburg, Virginia, valued at $600; Putala, owned by A. Williams and B. Walker, Lancaster county, Virginia, valued at $1,500; James Henry, owned by Captains Mullin and Dickinson, Richmond county, Virginia, valued at $400; J. Wagner, Lancaster county, Virginia, valued at $225; Active, Capt. Henry Taylor, Richmond county, Virginia, valued at $2,200; Sea Breeze, owned by Miles, of Baltimore, Crabb & Sanger, Richmond, Virginia, valued at $2,000; Mary Miller, owned by G. Burgess, of Northumberland county, Virginia, and Miller, of Middlesex county, Virginia, valued at $4,000; Nannie Shrevel, owned by E. Mann, valued at $2,500; Lucy Renn, owned by a citizen of Gloucester county, Va., valued at $600; Hiawatha, owned by Mr. Garland Richardson, valued at $2,000; sloop Amethyst, owned by Capt. Charles Gutheridge, of Fredericksburg, valued at $900; including the value of the Virginia and St. Nicholas.

In connection with the burning of bridges and vessels, we would state that from $15,000 to $20,000 worth of cotton was also burned.

SUICIDE OF E. P. CHRISTY.—The well-known minstrel performer, E. P. Christy, endeavored to commit suicide on Friday afternoon, at his residence, 78 East Eighteenth street. For some months past Mr. Christy has shown signs of mental aberration, fearing that he should eventually come to poverty, and that the Southern armies would invade the North and reach this city, and thus render his property of little value. There are various statements regarding his condition, but all tend to the fact that he has gradually been progressing to insanity. On Friday he sent for his coachman, who resides in Grand street, and desired that he should be at the house that afternoon. As soon as he learned of the arrival of his servant, which was about four in the afternoon, he watched a favorable opportunity, while sitting with Mrs. Christy in the second story back room, and threw himself with great violence from the window. He was taken up by his servant and others and conveyed to his bed-room. His body was terribly bruised, two of his limbs and his spinal column being broken. His head was badly cut also, and there are severe internal injuries. Medical assistance was called in, but he has for the most time remained unconscious of anything going on around him. It is the opinion of the physician that he may linger days and even weeks, though he is liable to die in a few hours.—N. Y. World.

THE PRINCE OF WALES VISITS ABRAHAM'S BURIAL-PLACE.—A letter from the Holy Land says:

"The Prince of Wales was at Hebron recently.—He and his suite obtained permission to visit the Cave of Machpelah, Abraham's burial-place. They are the first Christians who have been allowed to enter it since the Crusades, nearly 700 years ago. Dr. Stanley says everything is kept in the most beautiful order, and nothing could be more satisfactory than the state in which the tombs are preserved. Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, Joseph, Sarah, Rebecca and Leah are buried there. Two of the sheiks were inclined to give annoyance and show their animosity at Christians being allowed to enter the cave. The Governor of Hebron, however, had them turned out, or rather he escorted them out himself, and the remainder were very complimentary to the Prince, saying that they were very glad to have the opportunity of showing any civility in their power to one of the Princes of England, to whom their Government was so much indebted for kind offices that they looked on it as a great compliment to themselves that the heir to the throne of England had visited one of the holy places."

STILL ANOTHER TRIUMPH.

BALTIMORE, May 1st, 1862.

I have experienced so much benefit by using PEARSON'S MEDICATED TAR DROPS, that I believe it not only a duty but a pleasure, to make it known to others. I was afflicted with a Sore Throat and Dry Cough, which debilitated me so that I could get no rest. My friends told me that I had the consumption. I am now happy to inform you that your MEDICATED TAR DROPS have cured me.

I find that your MEDICATED TAR DROPS are counterfeited, and I caution the afflicted to be on their guard. This is really a shame that so efficacious a remedy should be injured by unprincipled men. I am glad, however, to see that your signature is on each package, and I advise those who purchase to bear that in mind.

Yours, truly, HENRY FISHER, No. 15 North Bond street.

PEARSON'S MEDICATED TAR DROPS are prepared and sold by GEO. PEARSON, No. 5 Liberty street, Baltimore. Sold also by the principal Druggists at 10 cents per package.
