NEW BOOKS.

From the Publishers: For sale by Henry Taylor. JOURNAL OF ALFRED ELY, A PRISONER OF WAR IN RICHMOND. Edited by CHARLES LANMAN. D. Appleton & Co., New York. 8vo., pp. 350.

The narrative of Mr. Ely, as a piece of literary composition, will certainly not stand in the same rank with Picciola, nor will it vie in point of interest with the adventures of Baron Trench. There are, however, a great many persons who will naturally feel interested in the first written narrative of the experience of one of the earliest victims of our civil war, even when expressed with as little cleverness as is displayed by Mr. Ely; and perhaps some few others who are sufficiently interested in Mr. Ely, personally, to read with pleasure Mr. Ely's accounts of Mr. Ely young and Mr. Ely old, Mr. Ely well and Mr. Ely sick, Mr. Ely prisoner and Mr. Ely free. There are many things, certainly, in the book, which are by no means devoid of interest, as well as some facts which the author might well have spared the public—as, for instance, on page 100, where he alludes to the luxury of washing, which he had somewhat neglected at home. There is an occasional flight of fancy; and one which will particularly strike the reader will be found on page 237, where Mr. Ely tells of a murderous attack made upon him, while in the next sentence he says he did not know anything of it for several days afterwards. At other times, Mr. Ely expresses himself in a frank and candid manner, and it would be an injustice to him not to allude to those passages where he stamps the stories of the Northern Press about the inhuman treatment of prisoners in the South, as falsehoods, and where he admits that his ideas of Southern people were totally changed by more intimate acquaintance with them, and that he became fully convinced that such a people fighting for the right of self-government, "will fight long and bravely, even to the very verge of extermination."

From the publishers: For sale by James S. Waters. A TREATISE ON MILITARY LAW, AND THE PRACTICE OF COURTS-MARTIAL, by Capt. V. S. BERRET. D. Van Nostrand, New York. 8 vo., pp. 377.

Prior to the publication of this important work there has been no American book of reference whatever on military law, and all points requiring legal interpretations had either to be settled by reference to English authorities, if they were to be procured—to custom, which was not always firmly established, or, what was most usual, to no authorities at all. Military law has, in fact, been hitherto entirely too vague and undefined, and the Judge Advocates appointed to special cares have conducted them, each one according to his own peculiar views. The establishment of the office of Judge Advocate in the army promises to make a change for the better in this particular, and opinions and decisions will now, probably, be carefully collected and placed in such a form as to be ready of access.

As a text book this volume is, no doubt, valuable, and will supply a want hitherto greatly felt by army officers in general. It contains much information as to the jurisdiction of courts martial and many definitions as to military law, expressed in a concise and intelligible manner. It has a most useful chapter on the law of evidence, and drafts of all necessary forms. It is certainly a work with the contents of which it is the duty of every gentleman officer of a grand army to make himself familiar.

From the Publishers: For sale by Henry Taylor. A LIFE'S SECRET: A STORY OF WOMAN'S REVENGE. By Mrs. HENRY WOOD.

This powerfully written novel is generally regarded by those who have read it as superior, in some respects, to the well known story of "East Lynne." The characters are well drawn and well contrasted, and the dialogue very natural. The plot, though intricate, is carefully [illegible]

Correspondence of the Maryland News Sheet.

PRINCE FREDERICK, Md., May 19th, 1862.

Among the proceedings of our Circuit Court, which met at this place last Monday and continued in session until Friday, the Court had a duty to perform which has been the case but once before in the last fifty or sixty years in our county—that of sentencing a man to be hung. The party referred to is a negro man named Bill Ferguson, a slave of Octavius C. Harris, (aged about thirty-five years,) who murdered a negro man, the slave of Mr. Harris, about the 15th of March last. The testimony against him was that he struck his victim on the left side of the head, with an axe, whilst his back was turned towards him, inflicting a wound of five inches in length and two inches in depth, from the effects of which wound the said negro man lingered and died, in thirteen days.—He was tried by a jury and found guilty of murder in the first degree, although he was ably defended by Judge Tuck (re entily from the bench of the Court of Appeals) and the Hon. James T. Briscoe (our present State Senator.) These parties, I understand, were employed by his master—Mr. Harris—who seemed to express much sympathy for his man Bill, although he believed him to be guilty of the crime. Mr. Harris stated that he had been a faithful servant and did not like the idea of his being hung; yet he wished to see him severely punished for the offence. The negro man Bill Ferguson is now confined in jail, and the sheriff is awaiting the order from the Governor, fixing the day and time of execution. He seems to be very penitent and to exhibit or express no hope of Executive clemency. LIMBO.

A PHILANTHROPIC PLAN.—Some gentlemen of wealth and influence are discussing plans for the relief of the colored people who are thrown on the community for support by the chances of war.—They propose to purchase some extensive tracts of land in the neighborhood of Worcester, Mass., and in New Hampshire, where tenement houses can be erected at small cost, and where the industrious habits of the people will afford an excellent example to the poor negro. It is supposed that factories will furnish ample work for the male and female children, while the farming knowledge of the fathers can be put to good account on the lands.—It is hoped that the prejudice against color will not be found to prevail in those parts of the country as it does in other portions, and that the children of the blacks will be allowed to mingle freely with those of the white inhabitants in schools and out of them, and that the privileges of equality in churches, hotels, railway cars, theatres and public places in general, will be readily extended them by the enlightened people of Massachusetts. It is estimated that the expense of colonizing twenty thousand blacks in Massachusetts will only be about one-tenth part of the expense of sending them to Liberia or Central America. We have nothing to say in favor of the plan.—Journal of Commerce.

MORE TROOPS FROM ILLINOIS.—A proclamation has been issued by Governor Yates calling for a large number of additional troops from this State, to fill up the regiments which have been so terribly decimated by battle and disease. Some of the Illinois regiments are reduced to two and three hundred men, and there is hardly one in the service, from that State, which is able to muster the minimum number. The call is made in pursuance of the request of Gen. Halleck, and in conformity with an order from the War Department. It would not surprise us if a similar call should be made upon Wisconsin and all other States.—Milwaukee Daily News.

WESTWARD EMIGRATION.—A correspondent, writing from Des Moines, Iowa, May 14th, says:—The tide of a most immense emigration westward continues to pour steadily through our streets. Day after day, and for week after week, we have had a constant succession of the long emigrant trains, toiling slowly and patiently in the direction of the distant West. A very large majority of this emigration is going to California, the balance to Colorado, Oregon, and the newly-discovered gold mines on the Salmon River.

AN ORDNANCE EXPERIMENTAL PARTY.—There is at present organizing an experimental party to test the power of the different kinds of shot on iron plates. The experiments, which will be similar to those lately made in England, will take place in a few days, and, on being made known to the authorities, will probably be given to the reading public. A target, at which the ordnance will be tried, is now in process of construction, and guns of proper calibre are being selected for the work.

GERMAN EMIGRATION TO THE WEST.—A large number of Germans are about to emigrate to this country, and will settle in Illinois, Wisconsin and Minnesota. This immigrating party consists principally of wealthy land-owners, and among them are several barons. About twenty thousand acres of land have already been purchased for them in the three States named, and it is expected they will arrive by the middle of July.

The greatest catch of shad within the memory of old fishermen—25,000 in one night—was made at Saybrook, Conn., on the 14th. The men were obliged to stop fishing and go on shore to assist in dressing the shad caught, to save them from spoiling.

The French war steamer Lavoisier, Commander Ribourel, arrived at New York on Friday from Havana. She mounts six guns and has a crew of one hundred and thirty-two men. A considerable fleet of French war vessels is now at anchor in the harbor of New York.

THE FREEDOM OF THE PRESS PARTIALLY RESTORED.—After an involuntary absence of about three months during which time we were mad familiar with the classic and once hallowed grounds of Fort McHenry—we again resume, partially, our editorial vocation of "enlightening the world with lamp-black." OUR PRESS, being deemed dangerous by the Government, has been kindly limited, and, for the future, instead of publishing "THE SUN, or any other paper, without consent of the Commanding General," we shall modestly labor in the humbler department of the "art preservative of all arts," by executing every description of BOOK AND JOB PRINTING, hoping through that medium to sustain ourselves and those dependent upon us, and would earnestly appeal to our friends to favor us with their patronage. We have prepared our JOB PRINTING DEPARTMENT to execute all kinds of printing neatly, expeditiously and cheaply, and solicit a call at our old buildings. SAMUEL S. MILLS, BOOK AND JOB PRINTER, m22 1m Office—122 Baltimore st., 2 doors from North.

STILL ANOTHER TRIUMPH.
BALTIMORE, May 1st, 1862.
I have experienced so much benefit by using PEARSON'S MEDICATED TAR DROPS, that I believe it not only a duty but a pleasure, to make it known to others. I was afflicted with a Sore Throat and Dry Cough, which debilitated me so that I could get no rest. My friends told me that I had the consumption. I am now happy to inform you that your MEDICATED TAR DROPS have cured me.
I find that your MEDICATED TAR DROPS are counterfeited, and I caution the afflicted to be on their guard. This is really a shame that so efficacious a remedy should be injured by unprincipled men. I am glad, however, to see that your signature is now on each package, and I advise those who purchase to bear that in mind.
Yours, truly, HENRY FISHER, No. 15 North Bond street.
PEARSON'S MEDICATED TAR DROPS are prepared and sold by Geo. PEARSON, No. 5 Liberty street, Baltimore. Sold also by the principal Druggists at 10 cents per package. m10-tf
