BALTIMORE.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 4, 1862.

FROM BEFORE RICHMOND.

Correspondence of the Philadelphia Inquirer.

RIGHT WING ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, CHICKAHOMINY RIVER, FIVE MILES FROM RICHMOND, May 29

THE RIGHT WING IN MOTION—EXCITEMENT ALL ALONG THE LINES.

The last twenty-four hours have been very exciting; the close proximity of the two armies upon Richmond has tended to keep the camps in a constant state of excitement. The right still rests on Mechanicsville, and our left stretches away off towards the James River.

The right wing runs for four miles along the river, which winds its way down a green and fertile valley half a mile wide; upon both sides are high hills, from one to two hundred feet above the level of the water, the ascent to the top of which is gradual, and the sides are dotted with beautiful residences, around each of which cluster from six to twenty negro huts, giving them the appearance of small villages. Upon the Richmond side the Confederate pickets are coily scattered along, while our camp fires light up this. This is as near Richmond as we have yet reached. The distance by th river is from four and a-half to six miles to Richmond, but it is a mile or two further to go by the roads.

CONFEDERATES FIRE AT COL. LOWE'S BALLOON.

The Georgia troops still remain in front of us opposite Mechanicsville, and can be seen in groups lying around through the fields; in the edge of the woods, on the summit of the hill, are a number of field batteries, but no earthworks. Yesterday Prof. Lowe had one of his balloons up about a mile (on this side) from Mechanicsville, when the Confederates opened upon him with four batteries; all the shot fell short but four, fired from a rifled gun, one of which passed over the balloon, and one through the netting. One exploded but a few feet from the detail of the Massachusetts 20th under Lieut. Meper; the men stuck to the ropes and towed it off to the edge of the woods, and they soon quit firing; when they first commenced the shots all fell short, but were good line shots; the last ones all fell around the balloon. They have fired occasionally since, but done no damage.

WHERE THE CONFEDERATES ARE—THE COUNTRY AROUND US.

Encamped in considerable numbers below Richmond, and about opposite to the Confederate "Fort Darling," is the largest Confederate encampment. Here are a large number of the impressed Virginia troops. There is no chance for them to desert here, as there would be if thrown in front towards the Chickahominy. They evidently fear a land attack by troops unloaded from gunboats and transports. The road running from Bottom's Bridge runs some miles through a swamp, after it leaves the river, then it comes upon an open country, and about four miles from Richmond is a road running parallel to the river, which comes out to the road we are on, to Richmond, about two and a half miles from Gaines Hill, or three from Chickahominy Bridge. It crosses the Richmond and York River Railroad within six miles of Richmond. Before this road is occupied, we must cross here and be ready to make a juncture with the left wing across the Chickahominy at this point. We heard cannonading, yesterday, in the direction of that road, and but a few miles off, but understand it to be merely a reconnoissance.

In front of our left wing, and separate from the camp on the river, is a large camp under General Magruder, to prevent the further movements of our left wing. They have a very large force there, but not near as large as the encampment to the right or in front of Mechanicsville, and between the two railroads running nor hward; within a day or two there was a large number moved this way and encamped about two miles from Mechanicsville.

The numerical force of the Confederates we cannot yet learn, but they are being reinforced now daily. The first report that Beauregard was in Richmond is incorrect, but he was expected at an early date. They are suffering from want of food now, troops as well as citizens.

They are in good spirits, however, and expect to drive us back at an early date. The recent victory of Stonewall Jackson over Banks has led them to circulate the story that he had crossed over into Pennsylvania and Maryland, and as soon as they routed McClellan they would at once take possession of Washington and Philadelphia, and having taken sufficient plunder to remunerate them for their losses, force us to recognize them.

They continue at work upon their line of works around the city, some three miles out, but up to this time have nothing like as formidable ones as they had at Yorktown. They have nearly all their field artillery out on the hills around the city, from four-and-a-half to five miles out. With this they expect to keep us back as long as possible, and then to fall back to their main line.

THE NEXT NAVAL ENGAGEMENT ON THE JAMES RIVER ANXIOUSLY LOOKED FOR.

The next attack upon Fort Darling, on the James river, is anxiously looked for, and as in a direct line from Gaines Hill, the left of the right wing, it is but ten miles, we can hear the firing distinctly. If the air be calm, from the balloon we can see the firing, and note the flash of every gun; and if the fleet be successful, the telegraph wire running from Lowe's balloon to camp will announce it to the world almost as quick as they pass the obstructions. So, when the fleet goes, look out for an early report.

THE LAST FIGHT AT FRONT ROYAL.

Special Correspondence of the New York Herald.

FRONT ROYAL, May 31.—Lieutenant Crawford, of the First Virginia Union infantry, was accidentally killed. Seven of the First Maryland regiment, Colonel Kenly, were recaptured. In the engagement yesterday the first brigade, General Kimball, were the principal participants. The New Hampshire battalion of the First Rhode Island cavalry, Major Nelson, led the advance and captured one hundred and fifty prisoners and re-captured eighteen of our men. The Fourth Ohio, Colonel Mason, and Fourteenth Indiana, Colonel Owens, immediately followed. Adjutant Tarr, of the First Maryland regiment, was among those recaptured. He was very severely wounded in the head by sabre strokes, but is now rapidly recovering, and is able to walk about. Colonel Kenly's wounds are not serious, and he is doing very well. Strasburg will without doubt be in our possession by to-morrow night. The First Maryland rebel regiment was engaged in the fight when the First Maryland loyal regiment was driven back.

THE ATTACK ON VICKSBURG.

AFFAIRS AT NEW ORLEANS.

Special despatch to the New York Tribune.

CAIRO, June 2.—The Memphis Appeal, of May 27, has this despatch:

VICKSBURG, May 26, P. M.—The Union fleet is still below this city. Their gunboats fired at our batteries this evening. We returned the fire, and they retired. It is supposed they are waiting for reinforcements.

The Appeal says the Mayor of New Orleans is confined in Fort Jackson, and that several of the City Council have been arrested or removed. The Provost Marshal performs the functions of Mayor and Police Judge of New Orleans.

The papers say provisions are coming in from the interior.

The military authorities have suppressed the Daily Crescent, and taken possession of the Delta.

The Appeal says the Confederate rams can hold the Mississippi against Foote and Farragut.

From the New York Express of Monday Afternoon.

ADVICE FROM FRANCE.

The Journal des Debats, (Paris,) friendly to the United States, and one of the most enlightened exponents of opinion in Europe, in commenting upon the restoration of New Orleans to the Union, says:

"It is far more important for Congress to conquer by purausion than by force of arms. The winning of ten pitched battles would be of less service to the ultimate success of the cause than the striking manifestation of the fact that whenever the Federal flag shows itself, a party is ready to hail it as the symbol of deliverance."

We wish that could be well drummed into the heads of the M. C's, prior to Wednesday—when an important vote is to be taken—as well as into the President's head.

THE YELLOW FEVER.—The New York correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger says:

Some little uneasiness was created to-day by an official announcement by the Commissioners of Health, that the yellow fever had prevailed to some extent on board the Spanish man-of-war Ulloa, which arrived at this port, as previously announced, on Saturday last. The Health officer has been instructed not to permit the vessel to approach nearer than three miles of the city, and to see to it that no communication be had with her except such official intercourse as may be unavoidable. The disease, it would seem, prevailed on board the steamer while on her passage from Vera Cruz to Havana, and while at the latter port, it is said, there were several fatal cases, but during the voyage to this port there was little or no sickness. The Commissioners say that the officers of the vessel at first denied that there had been any fever whatsoever on board, at any time, but on closer investigation the facts above narrated were made manifest.

THE ELEVENTH NEW YORK REGIMENT.—Colonel J. Mischoff telegraphs the following from Harper's Ferry:

The correspondent of the New York Times has stated an untruth about the 11th N. Y. S. M. The companies of Captains Roth, Kuhle, Sollman, and Fisher refused to be sworn in, except in Washington. They were disgraced and sent back. The other six full companies were sworn in by General Saxton, and, like one man, gave three hearty cheers for the Union, and went immediately on the battlefield, although they had been on the march for fifty-four hours without rest, and returned only to their camp at half-past one o'clock at night, in a terrible thunder storm.

HIGH PRICED TOBACCO.—At the public warehouse sale this morning a hogshead of fine leaf tobacco brought $37 per 100 lbs.—the highest price of the season. It was grown by Mr. Silas Drace, of Franklin county, sold by Messrs. Chiles & Bassett, and purchased by Messrs. Liggett & Dausman, manufacturers of this city.—St. Louis News, May 29th.

THE FREEDOM OF THE PRESS PARTIALLY RESTORED.—After an involuntary absence of about three months, during which time we were made familiar with the classic and once hallowed grounds of Fort McHenry—we again resume, partially, our old vocation of enlightening the world with lamp-black.* OUR PRESS, being deemed dangerous by the Government, has been kindly limited, and, for the future, instead of publishing "THE SOUTH, or any other paper, without consent of the Commanding General," we shall modestly labor in the humbler department of the "art preservative of all arts," by executing every description of BOOK AND JOB PRINTING, hoping through that medium to sustain ourselves and those dependent upon us, and would earnestly appeal to our friends to favor us with their patronage. We have prepared our Job PRINTING DEPARTMENT to execute all kinds of printing neatly, expeditiously and cheaply, and solicit a call at our old buildings. SAMUEL S. MILLS, BOOK AND JOB PRINTER, m22-1m Office—122 Baltimore st., 2 doors from North.

STILL ANOTHER TRIUMPH.

BALTIMORE, May 1st, 1862.

I have experienced so much benefit by using PEARSON'S, MEDICATED TAR DROPS, that I believe it not only a duty but a pleasure, to make it known to others. I was afflicted with a sore Throat and Dry Cough, which debilitated me so that I could not rest. My friends told me that I had the consumption. I am now happy to inform you that your MEDICATED TAR DROPS have cured me.

I find that your MEDICATED TAR DROPS are counterfeited, and I caution the afflicted to be on their guard. This is really a shame that so efficacious a remedy should be imposed by unprincipled men. I am glad, however, to see that your signature is now on each package, and I advise those who purchase to bear that in mind.

Yours, truly, HENRY FISHER, No. 15 North Bond street.

PEARSON'S MEDICATED TAR DROPS are prepared and sold by GEO. PEARSON, No. 5 Liberty street, Baltimore. Sold also by the principal Druggists at 10 cents per package. m10-tf
