A VERY INSTRUCTIVE BIT OF HISTORY.

A MYSTERY CLEARED UP—REASONS FOR THE ARREST OF GENERAL STONE—GENERAL STONE'S LETTER TO ADJUTANT WILLIAMS.

Governor Andrew's Hunter letter is not the first outburst he has made in the way of inciting insubordination, in attempting to control the soldiers of the United States who had been enlisted in Massachusetts. In December last he addressed a letter to Lieutenant Colonel Palfrey, then commanding the 20th regiment of Massachusetts Volunteers, in which he ordered him not to allow his soldiers to be employed in returning fugitive slaves. Governor Andrew, like Mr. Charles Sumner, did not stop to inquire whether these troops had been so employed, or were likely to be so employed; but having heard the word "negro," rushed on blindly, like the bull at the scarlet cloth. Colonel Palfrey, of course, transmitted Governor Andrew's extraordinary letter to his commanding General, and General Stone again transmitted it to General McClellan, with a letter which we print below. The letter was copied and sent by General McClellan's order to Governor Andrew. We understand that, at the same time, General McClellan addressed another letter to Governor Andrew, on the same subject, and in the same vein.

We commend Governor Andrew to get these letters off file, read them over carefully, lay their telling truths to heart, and see if he cannot learn to permanently "school" himself to silence and leave military matters to the officers and officials of the United States.

[COPY.]

"HEADQUARTERS CORPS OF OBSERVATION, "POOLESVILLE, Dec. 15, 1861.

"Brigadier General S. Williams,
Assistant Adjutant General:

"GENERAL: I have the honor to inclose herewith a copy of a most extraordinary letter, addressed by authority of a Governor of a State directly to the Lieutenant Colonel commanding a regiment of United States volunteers, serving in this division, and respectfully request that the matter may be brought to the attention of the Major General commanding, in the hope that he may be able to devise measures which shall in future prevent such unwarrantable and dangerous interference with the subordinate commands of the army.

"The fact that most of the soldiers in the regiment referred to were enlisted into the service of the United States, in the State of which the Governor referred to is the respected Chief Magistrate, does not, I conceive, give His Excellency a right to assume control of the interior discipline of the regiment; nor does it give him authority to command the punishment of a meritorious officer, for any offence, either real or imaginary.

"If the officer referred to has been guilty of any offence, (which, I am free to say, I do not believe he has been,) the military law prescribes the mode of preferring charges and the channels through which they shall be preferred, as well as the mode of trial and the extent and manner of punishment.

"While I endeavor to hold those under my command strictly amenable to stern military law, which they have sworn to obey, it is equally my study to protect all whom I have the honor to command against wrong attempted to be inflicted on them in defiance of the laws of the Union—the supreme law of the land.

"Thousands of brave men, gathered into the service of the Union (the whole Union) from five or more different States of the Union, are now serving in this division, and enduring unmurmuringly, cold, hardship and fatigue, simply because ambitious State officials have unconstitutionally used their power to wrest from United States officials the trusts confided to them by the nation.

"The usurpations of these ambitious State authorities commenced in much smaller matters than this of assuming authority in a United States regiment, serving in the field against the public enemy far removed from the State of which His Excellency is Governor, and it matters little to me whether the usurpation comes from North or South, Georgia or Massachusetts; I feel it my duty to bring the matter at once to an issue, and if possible, to arrest the evil before its natural fruit (open rebellion) shall be produced.

"The course of Major Anderson, one year since, in refusing to permit interference in the internal affairs of his command in Fort Sumter, on the part of the Governor of the State in which it was situated, to the Governor of South Carolina. Nevertheless, Major Anderson's sense of duty prevented him from fulfilling that Governor's desire.

"Disagreeable as it may be for me to do anything distasteful to the Governor of any State of the Union, I do not feel that it is consistent with my sworn duty to permit any Governor to give orders affecting the discipline of any regiment which the Government of the Union has intrusted to my command.

"I am not aware that there are here Michigan, New York, Pennsylvania, Minnesota or Massachusetts troops. I do know that there are there United States troops collected from all those States, and they are carefully taught that their duty is to serve the United States honest and faithfully against all those who set themselves in opposition to the Constitution and laws of the United States, whomsoever the opposers may be.

"I will only add, for the information which I know it will give to the Major-General commanding, that I do not believe that in the instance of the officer referred to in the letter of the Governor, inclosed, nor in any other instance, the orders of the War Department in reference to fugitive slaves have been violated by officers of the division; and I am equally happy to state, that in no instance within my knowledge and recollection (with one exception) have the laws on the same subject of the State in which we are serving been violated by the officers of the division. In that case the officer offending promptly retired from the service.

"I have the honor to be, General,
"Very respectfully, your most ob'dt serv't,
[Signed] "CHAS. P. STONE,
"Brigadier-General Commanding."

From the Dayton (Ohio) Daily Empire, May 31.

"THE REWARD COMING.

It is gratifying to the Democracy of the Third District to know, that while here and there an Abolition cur snaps at the heels of the Representative of this District, the entire Democratic press of the loyal States are bearing testimony to his worth as a man, his ability as a statesman, and his able and unflinching defence of the Constitution, that sacred instrument which made, and by maintaining which, the Union can alone be preserved. He is rising to the highest point—his sagacity as a statesman has been vindicated by the history of the past year, and his firmness been the means, more than any other, of preserving and reviving the (for a while) languishing spirit of Jeffersonian Democracy. Truly does the Racine (Wisconsin) Press say "we is no longer the Ohio Congressman, but a representative of the noblest patriotism of the nation."

Mr. Vallandigham has already commenced reaping the reward, in the endorsement and affection of the American people, which always, sooner or later, is meted out to those who firmly and consistently, through evil and good report, stand by the rights and interests of the people, and boldly defend those Constitutional doctrines which form the base of American freedom. One year ago, and no man was more persistently calumniated and defamed than he—to-day no man occupies a prouder or nobler position in the hearts of the Democracy of the country.

Well may his constituents—those who voted for him, and those who have so steadfastly sustained him—feel a just pride in the result. As the friends of Mr. Vallandigham, they were made the recipients, at the hands of neighbors and fellow-citizens, of the vilest abuse which party hatred and partizan spite could invent; but their friendship in the hour of need is now receiving the applause of their political friends, not only in this State, but in every State where true Democracy finds worshippers, and political honesty has its advocates—everywhere where men have a love for constitutional liberty, and the Union of Washington finds admirers.

Who to-day lies crushed—Vallandigham or his assailants? Read the records of Congress and the voice of the Democratic press for your answer.

MATCH-MAKING IN FRANCE.—The Ami de la Religion, a journal which from its title might be expected to be scrupulous on the score of veracity, tells the following story, which, although it would not in any case be prosecuted as "false news," and may possibly not be true, is good, at least, as a satire upon the system of match-making in France. A rich young merchant having met a young lady at an evening party, who pleased him, asked her hand from her father, without saying a word to her. The papa, having satisfied himself that the proposed son-in-law was eligible, gave his consent, and informed his daughter that he had found a husband for her, that she must order the wedding dress immediately, and that she would be married in a week. "Very well, papa; but who am I to be married to?" "Oh! a friend of mine; he is gone into the country on business; but you will see him on Sunday." "And the wedding is to be on Monday, papa?" "It's all right; don't make yourself uneasy." On Monday, May 5, the wedding party appeared before the Mayor of one of the arrondissements of Paris, to celebrate the civil marriage, which is alone the essential legal contract in France. On the Mayor putting to the bride the usual question—"Do you consent to take this man to be your wedded husband?" the girl answered, "Why, to tell you the truth, M. Mayor, you are the first person who ever asked me that question." "Well, but what do you say?" "Well, if I had been asked before, I should doubtless have said 'Perhaps;' but, under present circumstances, my answer is, 'No.'" The Mayor at once left his chair, and the matter stands over for further consideration.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE.—We regret to learn that one of the tobacco houses belonging to William Worthington, in Aquasco district, filled with tobacco, was destroyed by fire on Thursday night last. The tobacco from all the other houses had been removed to this house for packing, and therefore Mr. W. lost all his crop, valued as some $3,000. It was evidently the work of an incendiary.—Marlboro' (Md.) Gazette.

STILL ANOTHER TRIUMPH. BALTIMORE, May 1st, 1862. I have experienced so much benefit by using PEARSON'S, MEDICATED TAR DROPS, that I believe it not only a duty but a pleasure, to make it known to others. I was afflicted with a Sore Throat and Dry Cough, which debilitated me so that I could get no rest. My friends told me that I had the consumption. I am now happy to inform you that your MEDICATED TAR DROPS have cured me. I find that your MEDICATED TAR DROPS are counterfeited, and I caution the afflicted to be on their guard. This is really a shame that so efficacious a remedy should be injured by unprincipled men. I am glad, however, to see that your signature is now on each package, and I advise those who purchase to bear that in mind. Yours, truly, HENRY FISHER, No. 15 North Bond street. PEARSON'S MEDICATED TAR DROPS are prepared and sold by GEO. PEARSON, No. 5 Liberty street, Baltimore. Sold also by the principal Druggists at 10 cents per package. m10-tf

THE FREEDOM OF THE PRESS PARTIALLY RESTORED.—After an involuntary absence of about three months, during which time we were made familiar with the classic and once hallowed grounds of Fort McHenry—we again resume, partially, our old vocation of "enlightening the world with lamp-black." Our Press, being deemed dangerous by the Government, has been kindly limited, and, for the future, instead of publishing "THE SOUTH, or any other paper, without consent of the Commanding General," we shall modestly labor in the humble department of the "art preservative of all arts," by executing every description of BOOK AND JOB PRINTING, hoping through that medium to sustain ourselves and those dependent upon us, and would earnestly appeal to our friends to favor us with their patronage. We have prepared our Job PRINTING DEPARTMENT to execute all kinds of printing neatly, expeditiously and cheaply, and solicit a call at our old buildings. SAMUEL S.
