

was justifiable in so doing. I know that might often overcome right, but this with me can never turn right into wrong. You have me in your power and must do as you please with me. I ask no favour.—
Judge. Away with him to the gallows—Let him be executed immediately. I cannot dine in peace and safety until this be done.—

As the case is now very different from what it would have been had we been subjugated, it needs no explanation to say, which of the two rebels, for so they would then have been called, ought to be trusted by a whig community, at the present or any future day.

A MARYLAND SENTINEL.

Office for confiscated estates, Annapolis, March 17, 1783. Pursuant to an act of assembly passed at the last session, will be exposed to sale, by way of auction, at Baltimore town, on the 10th day of May next,

SEVERAL thousand acres of land late the property of the Principio company. The land will be surveyed and laid off into convenient farms and farms for gentlemen; the quality of the lands and their contiguity to that flourishing town, from which they are distant but a few miles, render them extremely valuable. One or more persons will attend on the premises, where the Kingsbury furnace stands, for three days before the day of sale, to show the different lots to any person who may incline to view the same. One third of the purchase money to be paid in thirty days, another third in two years, the remainder in three years. Bond and security will be required on the day of sale.

By order, J. DORSEY, clk.

Port-Royal, February 9, 1779.

UPWARDS of two years ago I was struck with a paralytic stroke, which afflicted me very much; it happened that I met with Mr. Logan, who promised to make a cure of my leg and arm, without any inward application, by applying a kind of ointment; I found in about a fortnight a great deal of relief in my right arm, knee, and ankle; from the anguish of the gout it continued rather longer than I expected. I write this for the good of mankind.

EDWARD DIXON.

Gloucester county, April 14, 1779.

I HEREBY testify, that my wife has been had with rheumatic pains these six years, and captain Wharton sent Mr. Logan to see her; when he came he said he could relieve her, and in three weeks time she was clear of all pains in her arms. This I write in behalf of Mr. Logan, as several doctors have had her in hand and did her no good.

EDWARD LAYTON.

Baltimore, August 6, 1779.

THIS is to certify, that Mr. Logan, of Annapolis, prescribed medicines for John Hayman, who was confined to his bed with the rheumatism for a long time, by which I was restored to perfect health.

JOHN HAYMAN.

Kent county, April 11, 1781.

MICHAEL DARLE, Esq; who had a white swelling for about sixteen years, was also restored to perfect health by Mr. Logan's medicine.

Prince-George's county, February 3, 1782.

AGENT SIMON who had the palsy and gravel for about sixteen years, was also restored to perfect health by Mr. Logan's medicine.

I ALSO relieve pithis, rheumatism, gout, gravel, fluxes, contractions of the limbs, white swellings, dropsy, running ulcers, &c. &c. I will take patients at my own house, or elsewhere in Annapolis; but cannot attend any in the country, except such as are confined to their beds. Constant attendance will be given, by their very humble servant,

WILLIAM LOGAN.

To be sold on Tuesday the 13th of April, if fair, if not the next fair day, at Newington rope-walk,
