INTERESTING FROM NASSAU, N. P.

Correspondence of the New York Tribune.

NASSAU, June 9 —The following are the names of seven steamers now in port, recently arrived from England: Memphis, Bahama, Lloyd, Pacific, Tubal Cain, Hero, and Oreseo. The last named is said to be fitted out for a privateer, and report says that Lieut. Maffit, of the Confederate navy, is to command her. Maffit is now here. There are so many different reports in circulation as to the nature of the cargoes on these vessels, that it is difficult to arrive at facts. All parties, however, agree in saying they each have a cargo suited to the wants of "Dixie." I have no doubt most of them are loaded with arms, and are waiting the turn of events before attempting to run the blockade. Let our vessels off Charleston and Wilmington keep a sharp lookout, as they will prove rich prizes.

The steamer Cecil arrived a day or two since from Charleston, making the tenth time she has been successful in running the blockade; small sailing craft are arriving almost daily from Wilmington and Charleston. We should have a dozen light steamers to cruise near the shore, with Drummond lights attached to each, as by that means the vessels could easily be seen, as it is well known they never attempt to come out except during very dark nights. Let our Government look to this, as it is a very easy matter to put a stop to the large trade now carried on between this place and the South.

Your readers can form no idea of the bitter hostility expressed by the people here against the North. A Northerner cannot safely express himself without being insulted. It extends to all classes, white and black, and I am sorry to say that some flunkey America s from the State of New York, who have been spending the winter here, have proved themselves first-rate traitors.

From the Nassau Guardian, May 17.

The screw steamer Hero (from Queenstown, which arrived here last night) was boarded by the Union gunboat Mercedita (9 guns) no less than three times, 35 miles E. N. E. of the Hole-in-the-Wall. Is this outrage to be repeated ad libitum? We have before had occasion to remark that the port of Nassau was more effectually blockaded by Union gunboats than that of Charleston, and shall we be compelled to repeat this assertion? It is not long since one of the Union gunboats actually came up to the mouth of our harbor and went off again without even saying "How do you do?"

It is true that H. M. S. Steady went out as far as the Berry Islands after her, but she escaped with impunity. Surely it is high time that we had one or two gunboats stationed between the Hole-in-the Wall and Berry Islands, to counteract this growing evil and protect our commerce. The unenviable manner in which the Bahamas have been shown up by dastardly and designing persons, whose espionage system is just beginning to be found out by our over-confiding population, demands us to speak out. We rejoice that we are living in a land of liberty, where everything is above board—a liberty far greater than of the land of boasted freedom, whose honest citizens are expatriated for daring to differ with their fellows on a point of government. Had any Bahamian acted in the United States as some of the citizens of America have acted here, he would have suffered the penalty of riding the rail, and been immersed in that adhesive liquid to which the feathered tribe have frequently added an extra coating.

From the New York Herald, June 14.

SHOCKING TRAGEDY IN BROADWAY.

A MAN SHOT DEAD BY HIS WIFE—DEALISM THE CAUSE—ARREST OF THE PERPETRATOR—POST MORTEM EXAMINATION OF THE BODY.

A shocking affair occurred at No. 256 Broadway, third floor, yesterday afternoon, about half past three o'clock, involving the life of Peter C. Real, a well-known manufacturer of gilt braid, doing business at the above number. The particulars of the affair, as communicated to our reporter last evening, are as follows:—Mr. Real, it appears, was busily engaged at work, about three o'clock, when a young woman, named Mary Stewart, entered the workshop, and accused him of having found fault with her. Using language then not fit for women to hear, and leaving her upon the cold charity of the world; that he seldom returned home after business until a late hour at night, and frequently stayed away from her for a week at a time. She thinks that she is perfectly justified in the course she has taken, and is sanguine of regaining her liberty when the matter comes up for investigation. Coroner Collin will hold an inquest upon the body of Real at ten o'clock this morning, when some interesting developments may be expected.

ANOTHER MUNCHAUSEN IN THE FIELD.

The Baltimore correspondent of the New York Post, who is fast getting famous for the incredulous rumors he puts afloat, in his last published letter gets off the following:

REBEL MILITARY ORGANIZATION.

Public suspicions that there has been and still is an actual Rebel military organization in Maryland have been freshly aroused of late. It is believed to extend through all the ramifications of a regularly organized force, from a Major General down. The latter personage has even been indicated as a resident of this city, who has played a prominent part in Maryland politics. He and his army were to spring suddenly from the ground, just as Cadmus did, on the moment that Jeff. Davis could plant the foot of his invading legions upon the soil of this State. Authentic revelations of this matter cannot be much longer kept from the public eye, I should think, if what is in everybody's mouth for the last few days be true. This Cadmian host, it is also believed, is well supplied with small arms, which now lie concealed in the wardrobes and other hiding places of the female secesh in this city and in the counties. For myself, I never had any doubt of the fact of such an organization, and that it has always been, and is now, in the power of the military authorities of this department to unmask it and bring it to the light. But it will probably be done by other parties at an early day.

In publishing the above sensation paragraph, the New York Express remarks:

It is kind both of the secession leaders and their historian to put this invasion of "the Cadmian host" till "Jeff. Davis plants the feet of his invading Lost upon Maryland soil," on record, the Unionists of Maryland will breathe freer after hearing of this long delay.

True to its singular instinct for disorganization and mischief, the Herald is the only paper in this city that openly approves of Mr. Chase's proposition to issue another $150,000,000 legal tender notes, including the swarm of paper lies in the way of bills of small denominations. That journal is noted for helping to blow all popular bubbles until they burst, and then turning upon and rending their inventors. The Herald now regards Mr. Chase as the embodiment of all the financial wisdom of the country. Let him wait a year, and he will see what he will see.—New York World.

ETIQUETTE AND DIGNITY AMONG REPUBLICAN SENATORS.—Senator Wilson calls Senator Chandler a drunkard; Senator Wade calls Senator Cowan (one of the most respectable members of that body) a dog; and Senator Sumner accuses Senator Sherman of being a slavery eulogist. All belong to the Republican family.

THE FREEDOM OF THE PRESS PARTIALLY RESTORED.—After an involuntary absence of about three months, during which time we were made familiar with the classic and once hallowed grounds of Fort McHenry—we again resume, partially, our old vocation of "enlightening the world with lamp-black." Our Press, being deemed dangerous by the Government, has been kindly limited, and, for the future, instead of publishing "THE SUN, or any other paper, without consent of the Commanding General," we shall modestly labor in the humbler department of the "art preservative of all arts," by executing every description of BOOK AND JOB PRINTING, hoping through that medium to sustain ourselves and those dependent upon us, and would earnestly appeal to our friends to favor us with their patronage. We have prepared our Job PRINTING DEPARTMENT to execute all kinds of printing neatly, expeditiously and cheaply, and solicit a call at our old buildings.

STILL ANOTHER TRIUMPH.
BALTIMORE, May 1st, 1862.
I have experienced so much benefit by using PEARSON'S MEDICATED TAR DROPS, that I believe it not only a duty but a pleasure, to make it known to others. I was afflicted with a sore Throat and dry Cough, which debilitated me so that I could get no rest. My friends told me that I had the consumption. I am now happy to inform you that your MEDICATED TAR DROPS have cured me.
I find that your MEDICATED TAR DROPS are counterfeited, and I caution the afflicted to be on their guard. This is really a shame that so efficacious a remedy should be injured by unprincipled men. I am glad, however, to see that your signature is now on each package, and I advise those who purchase to bear that in mind.
YOURS, truly, HENRY FISHER,
No. 15 North Bond street.
