August 19, 1783.
NOTICE is hereby given, that the inhabitants of Dorchester county intend to petition the next general assembly of Maryland, for an act to enable them to levy a sufficient sum of money to purchase a piece of ground, and to build a bridge thereon for the use of the poor of said county. 10/19/83

NOTICE is hereby given, that the inhabitants of that part of Cecil county, containing Bohemia Manor, Middle Neck, North Sassafras, West Sassafras, and Bohemia hundreds; of Kent county, containing Chapel, Upper, South Sassafras, and George-town hundreds, that part of Morgan's-creek hundred lying to the eastward of the great road leading from Georgetown to Colchester's ferry; intend petitioning the next general assembly of Maryland for an act to erect the said districts into a new county. J. F. Chase

NOTICE is hereby given, that a petition will be offered by sundry of the inhabitants of Charles county to the next general assembly, for an act to pass for building a court-house at the place formerly laid out for a town by the late rev. Mr. George Hunter, at the mouth of Port-Tobacco-creek, and also for the condemnation of the land there necessary to build a town on, and the present proprietor should give notice of the day to the said court-house on reasonable terms.

SIXTEEN DOLLARS REWARD.

August 18, 1783.
RAN away from the subscriber, living in Charles county, on the 9th instant, a negro man called W. L. L., about 5 feet 10 inches high, 26 years of age, has a downy roguish look, has several sorts of cloaths that I cannot describe, only a white country cotton jacket with slips of black cotton velvet down each side and on the sleeves; I expect he will try to get to Philadelphia, as he has been heard to say that he would try to get there; he has a brother that lives there; he will make a stout resistance before he will be taken, and if taken will get away without he is well secured. Whoever takes up and secures the said fellow so that I may get him, shall, if taken within 10 miles from home receive six dollars, if within 20 miles from home ten dollars, if out of the county the above reward, paid by PHILIP BRISCOE.

Alexandria, August 9, 1783.
Will be exposed to public sale, at Piscataway in Maryland, on Monday the 15th day of September next, if fair, if not the next fair day.

A TRACT of land, containing 304 acres, being at the mouth and south side of Piscataway creek, on Patowmack river, and in full view of his excellency general Washington's seat Mount Vernon, and within four miles of Piscataway, and seven of Alexandria. About four fifths of this land is entirely level, and a large proportion of it may at a very small expence be made into excellent meadow; the other one fifth is high open ground, and remarkable for raising fine sheep and other stock. It is presumed a minute description of this land is not necessary, as no doubt any person inclinable to purchase will view the land before the day of sale; let it suffice, that no land on Patowmack excels it for fishing and tawling, and its elegance of situation. The title is clear and can admit of no dispute whatever. I have also 150 acres of poor wood land, within one mile of the land aforesaid, which I will sell at private sale to the purchaser of the other. The terms of sale will be made known on the day of sale, which I have no doubt will be agreeable to the purchaser. w 4

COMMITTED to my custody at a runaway, a negro man by the name of NACE, who says he belongs to James Edmonston, near George-town. He is a likely fellow, appears to be about 22 years of age, 5 feet 6 or 7 inches high, and has on a tow shirt and striped country cloth breeches. His master is desir'd to pay charges and take him from CHARLES MANKIN, sheriff.

THREE POUNDS REWARD.
Fort Frederick, August 10, 1783.

RAN away from Parkhead-forge, in Washington county, on Thursday the 7th inst. a negro man named CHARLES GAMBY; about 50 years of age, 5 feet 9 inches high, has a remarkable long head, and more remarkable for lying and a deceitful tongue, being a very artful villain; his cloathing is a good country cloth jacket, shirt, trousers, and shoes; he will probably make for Annapolis, and may be lurking in that neighbourhood; he can easily take on him any name, as he formerly used that of Daniel Rogers in a former trip. Whoever takes up and secures him in any gaol within this state, shall receive the above reward, and reasonable charges if brought home.

2 DENTON JACQUES.

To be LET,
July 22, 1783.

And may be entered on immediately.
A VERY valuable plantation, on West-river, in Anne-Arundel county, Maryland, 12 miles from Annapolis, containing upwards of 1000 acres, about 400 of which is wood land, and 600 of cleared upland, 20 acres of meadow fit for the sith, and 50 more may be made; a large proportion of level low ground, very rich, and suitable for either grain, clover, or other grass, and a body of it marsh, which affords a great deal of late and early pasture. The whole of the land is equal in quality to any in the state, and the situation preferable to most, both for health and convenience; vessels of considerable burthen come up to the land, which affords an easy and cheap conveyance of the produce to Baltimore, the Head of Elk, or any other market on Chesapeake bay. Fish, oysters, and wild fowl, are taken in great plenty and perfection, close to the land.

The premises are accommodated with a large new house, two story high, with four rooms on each floor, and an handsome passage, in a pleasant and healthy situation, and also with all other houses necessary for the use of the plantation. It will be let for a term of years, to a complete farmer, of sufficient ability to manage it to the best advantage, and no other need apply. For further particulars inquire of ANNE PEMBERTON on the premises, or CALEB CARMALT, in Philadelphia.
