DOCTOR FENDALL,
Operator upon the TEETH, will attend the Annapolis races, and may be spoke with at Mr. Chitholms

HE cures the scurvy in the gums, be it ever so inveterate, first scaling and cleaning the teeth from that correfive, tartarous, gritty fubiliance, which impedes the guins from growing, Intects the breath, and is a p incipal cause of the scurvy, which, if not timely prevented, eats away the gums, fo that many proples teeth fall out found: he prevents teeth from rotting, keeps fuch as are decayed from growing worse even to old age, makes the gums grow firm to the teeth, and renders them white and beautiful; fills up with gold or lead those that are hollow, so as to render them useful, and to prevent the air getting into them and aggravating the pain : he transplants natural teeth from one person to another, which will be as firm in the jaw (without any ligament) as if they originally grew there, and makes and fixes artificial teeth with the greatest exactness and nicety, and without pain. so that persons may eat, drink or GABRIEL DUVALL. and without pain. so that persons may eat, drink or fle-p with them in their mouths as conveniently as with ratural ones, from which they cannot be dif-tinguished by the sharpest eye: he also extracts teeth and flumps in the easiest manner, be they ever fo de ply fituated in the jaw.

His dentifrice (the same as Baker's) he has found to be greatly superior, both in elegance and efficacy, to any thing hitherto made use of for the teeth and gums: It is free from any corrolive preparation, will reftore the gums to their priftine state, prevent the troth-ach, and render the breath delicately sweet, lif the tartaron; (ubitance is off the teeth) and will remedy all those disorders which are the consequence of icorbutic gums. It may always be procured at doctor Fendall's residence, in Charles county, near Port-Tobacco, Maryland.

N. B. The fooner gentlemen and ladies apply, the better, as the doctor's flay in the city will be but about a week or two at further.
