Enquire at Mr.

Baltimore-town, October 25, 1784.

IN looking over the Maryland gazette, No. 1967, I saw an advertisement of John Mackall's, of St. Mary's county, wherein he sets forth, that he intends to apply to the next general assembly for an act to make valid a deed he has from Vernon Hebb, for the lands he says he bought of me, as attorney in fact for William Hicks, Esq; of Great Britain, in the year 1774. I deny that he ever bought any lands from me; he bought several tracts of land of Vernon Hebb, most of which he saw run out, and was shown the titles thereto by Mr. Hebb, who had a deed from Mr. Hicks for them. It is true, I advertised the lands for sale, with many other things, as attorney in fact for William Hicks, under an agreement with Mr. Hebb; and when Mr. Mackall agreed for the land at a certain price per acre, before he entered into any contract for the same with Vernon Hebb, the said land was run out by a surveyor in his presence, and the whole of the titles laid before him. Some time afterwards, John Mackall gave Vernon Hebb his bond for five hundred and forty-seven pounds nine shillings and sixpence sterling money, with security, to be paid by a certain day mentioned in the bond; and the same day Vernon Hebb gave John Mackall his bond to convey the lands on the payment being made, which bonds I never saw. A few days afterwards, Mr. Mackall, at his own house in Calvert county, gave me two bonds payable to William Hicks, one for £.144 2 0 sterling, payable the first of January 1775, the other for £.144 0 0 sterling, payable the first of March following, which was to be in part for the lands aforesaid for money due from Vernon Hebb to William Hicks. Mr. Mackall has never paid me, as attorney in fact, or otherwise, any part or parcel of the two bonds above mentioned, due William Hicks, which bonds are now in suit against him, in order to comply with the direction of the act of assembly of this state in my particular circumstance made and provided. How can John Mackall say he has paid me any part of the purchase money if he calls it so? I am well informed he paid Vernon Hebb off in depreciated money. When he complies with his contracts in making his payments, (if I am not under a mistake) the legislature of this state hath already empowered me to make a title to any person or persons whatsoever, any real or personal estate the property of William Hicks, Esq; of Great-Britain, in the same manner as if he himself was here present. Until the payments are complied with, John Mackall need not expect to hear any more from

2 BENJAMIN WARD.

Annapolis, October 11, 1784.

THE subscriber having just returned to this state, after a seven years service in the American army, finds himself under the disagreeable necessity of applying to the next general assembly, for a law to enable him, in a summary way, to compel payment of the balances due him as sheriff of Cecil county, which office he held at the commencement of the late war, and by which he was prevented from making his collections.

7 JOHN HAMILTON.

NOTICE is hereby given, that I intend to petition the general assembly, at the ensuing session, to pass a law, to take the collection of the tax out of the hands of Simon Nicholls, late collector of the tax for Montgomery county, and to appoint another in his stead.

7 ALEXANDER CATLETT.

T E N D O L L A R S R E W A R D.

Prince George's county, Sept. 8, 1784.

RAN away on the 2d of this instant from the subscriber, living three miles from Bladensburg, on the road leading to George-town, a negro fellow named JAMES, about 5 feet 10 or 11 inches high, a young lusty fellow; had on when he went away, a striped country cloth jacket, an old cotton shirt, old light coloured wool hat, and a pair of old rousers; it is likely he may call himself Butler if he goes to any strange place, or he is a little akin to that family; he has a good coat of wool upon his head, the top of his head is cut short, and all the other part of the wool is left pretty long, turned up before in the fashion. Whoever takes up the said fellow and brings him home to me, shall receive the above reward and travelling charges paid by the subscriber. If not convenient to bring him home, secure him in some gaol as I may get him.
