JACK MORGAN AGAIN—SCHOOL TRUSTEE'S RECREANCY—GREAT DEMAND OF SPECIE FOR COTTON, &c.

LOUISVILLE, July 12.—You know Jack Morgan has turned up again at Tompkinsville and Glasgow, and issued another manifesto against the "Hessian invader," "foreign horder," and "Northern tyrants." On the strength of "the late Richmond victory" he appears once more among us, to "raise h—ll and turn up Jack." He fancies himself a greater than Ashby or "Stonewall." In fact he has created quite a scare on the other side of Green river. But his doings so far seem to have been greatly exaggerated. However, it won't do to let him, Ferguson, Hamilton, Hunt and their brigand gangs run at large any longer. Gen. Boyle is doing his best to abate such nuisances and pests.

The Nashville Union learns that Beatty with 60,000 troops is at Chattanooga, but thinks soon to hear that ten. Buell and his grand Union army will possess it." Gen. Buell will not take it and Knoxville until ready to hold them, and to protect East Tennesseeans permanently.

Our school trustees, by a majority of one, have resolved not to apply any uniform and definite standard or test of loyalty to teachers. They only declare that "none but loyal teachers shall be employed in the Public Schools of this city." Messrs. Wolfe and Duffield, though of the Board's minority, are sustained by a large majority of the people.

Gold sells at 19 to 20 premium, silver 12 to 15, Demand Treasury notes 5. In rare cases persons submit to a shave of ¼ in exchanging Treasury notes for Kentucky currency. These Tresury notes in New Albany sell at over 7 premium for Bank of the State of Indiana currency. Some say it will require two or three hundred millions of specie to purchase the undestroyed portion of the cotton crop. A Louisville merchant, on the 8th, shipped $35 000 gold for cotton and sugar in Memphis; 400 bales received on the 10th, 890 bales shipped to Cincinnati yesterday; 27,500 sacks grain and 1,000 boxes pilot bread received here since the 7th.

The Banks at Lebanon, Danville, Frankfort and elsewhere are sending their funds here for safe-keeping. Two religious weeklies—the True Presbyterian and Baptist Recorder—are suppressed.—Several preachers are under arrest. Eighteen more Secessionists in the last ten days gave bonds for $134,000. Many are being disarmed.

LATEST FROM CHILI.

The new Ministry has been fixed upon. Don M. A. Torconnali is appointed Minister of the Interior and Foreign Affairs; Don Jose Victorino Lastarria, Minister of Hacienda; Don Manuel M. Huemas, Minister of Justice, Public Instruction and Worship; and Gen. Marcos Maturana, Minister of War and Navy. These appointments give great satisfaction to the Liberal Party. They had not yet taken charge of their portfolios.

Congress was in session at Sandiego, and had before them a bill for a loan of $420,000, with which to build a row of Custom House stores in Valparaiso. A loan of $800,000 would also be asked to meet a deficit of last year. A bill for a National Bank, with three millions capital, has been introduced into the Senate.

The fine floating dock at Valparaiso was destroyed on the 7th of June. The propeller Cloda, belonging to the Pacific Steam Navigation Company, was taken on it, but she being too heavy the bulwarks on the larboard side gave way, letting the Cloda fall on that side. The dock was turned also on the same side, exposing the whole frame and shipping large quantities of water. The Cloda was got out in safety, but the dock sunk and was a total loss. It cost $900,000, and was insured for only $30,000.

The American schooner Ann Eliza, 128 days from Boston, bound to Honolulu, arrived at Valparaiso on the 7th June, with a valuable cargo of silks. In the Straits of Magellan, on the coast of Terra del Fuego, three or four canoes, manned by about twenty Indians, assaulted the schooner and crew in the night, killing three of the men, leaving only the captain, cook and one sailor. The Indians took the vessel and tried to set her on fire, but the captain made a desperate resistance, and at last succeeded in expelling them, after shooting down three with his revolver. The remaining Indians then fled, taking with them their dead and wounded. The Ann Eliza left Valparaiso for Honolulu on the 12th June.

The American steamer Bio Bio, engaged in the Southern coast trade, from Valparaiso, has been bought off by the British Mail Company, that they may have a monopoly of the trade, and has left for Rio Janeiro.

Mining is dull in Chili, the mines barely paying expenses at present. The late silver discoveries at Amolanos has proved a humbug. Good coal has been discovered in the mountains, near Copiapo, where it is much needed in the copper furnaces.

THE ESCAPE OF CONFEDERATE PRISONERS FROM FORT DELAWARE.

The report that two hundred Confederate prisoners had escaped from Fort Delaware was no doubt an exaggeration. The following despatch received by the Philadelphia Bulletin probably comes much nearer a true version of the affair:

NEW CASTLE, Del., July 16.—This morning, between 2 and 3 o'clock, eight Confederate prisoners reached here, who made their escape from Fort Delaware on a raft made by lashing boards together. They were kindly received by the Secession sympathizers of this town, provided with clothing and refreshments, and safely conducted from town on their road to Dixie, again to take up arms to murder the friends and relations of those that provided the means of their escape.

Last Saturday an excursion party, composed principally of Secession sympathizers, visited Fort Delaware. They were kindly received by Colonel Gibson, and permitted to roam over the island, and, of course, had opportunities of communicating with the prisoners. It is our opinion that unless some restrictions are placed on disloyal persons visiting the island, those that made their way to New Castle this morning will not be the last. It would accord with the feelings of the Union citizens of this section if the authorities would pay some attention to the red necks who assist in the escape of persons confined for the crime of attempting to destroy our Government.

The fugitives must have known that they were to be thus treated, and it is not improbable that some of the people who thus welcomed them connived at their plans for escape. If it is true that an excursion party, chiefly composed of New Castle Secessionists, has been allowed to visit the fort, it is very easy to see how the escape may have been contrived. If the fort is so easy of access to visitors, and to spies in the guise of excursionists, it is not a safe place to confine ten or twelve hundred prisoners.

MORE SICK AND WOUNDED.

ARRIVAL OF THE DANIEL WEBSTER.

The Daniel Webster, hospital steamer, arrived on Thursday morning from Harrison's Landing, James river. The Purser makes the following report:

The Daniel Webster arrived at Harrison's Landing from Fortress Monroe at 4 P. M. on Thursday, July 10, and after waiting there over four days, returned to Fortress Monroe under a convoy of two gunboats, with a load of 250 sick soldiers. We were not favored with any bullets from Confederate guns on our way down the James river, but had prepared ourselves in anticipation of such favors. Arriving at Fortress Monroe at 6 P. M. on Tuesday, 15th inst., we were detained a little taking in a supply of bread for the soldiers, and a storm arising, delayed us till next morning, when we left for New York at 5 A. M.

During our stay at Harrison's Landing we had an opportunity of visiting the camps, and several of our party were fortunate enough to arrive at McClellan's headquarters on Sunday morning in time to be present at the service. The commissary of the Webster was frequently called upon to distribute oranges and lemons, and such other delicacies as could be spared from our supplies for sick soldiers in camp and at the hospitals, and the recipients were all very thankful to the Sanitary Commission for such attention.

We have on board eighty-seven soldiers from New York, seventy-one from Pennsylvania, twenty-six from New Jersey, ten from Massachusetts, ten from Maine, sixteen regulars, and the balance in small proportions from Indiana, Connecticut, Michigan, Vermont and New Hampshire. The men generally are suffering from diarrhœa, dysentery, and fever of a malarious character, in which the typhoid element is generally predominant. There are but a few wounded cases, mainly of the hand, one amputation of the foot, and one fracture of the skull.

JUDICIAL REORGANIZATION.

Congress has perfected and passed a most important bill, recasting the Judicial Districts which are presided over by different Justices of the Supreme Court. Those Districts will hereafter stand as follows:

1.—New England (most).....Justice Nathan Clifford.
2.—New York and Vermont.....Justice Samuel Nelson.
3. Pennsylvania and N. Jersey....Justice Robt. C. Grier.
4.—Del., Md., Va. and N. C...Ch. Justice Roger B. Taney.
5.—S. C., Ga., Fla., Ala. and Miss....Jus. Jas. M. Wayne.
6.—La., Texas, Ark., Ky. and Tenn..Justice John Catron.
7.—Ohio and Indiana.....Justice *Noah H. Swayne.
8.—Mich., Wisc. and Illinois.....
9.—Mo., Iowa, Kan. and Minn....Jus. *Daniel F. Miller.

*Nominated by President Lincoln.

Mr. Miller's name is printed Samuel in the despatches, but we presume it is Daniel F. Miller, the first Whig member of Congress ever chosen from Iowa. Mr. Swayne was Gen. Jackson's Marshal of the District of Ohio, appointed in 1829; he was formerly a Democrat, but has been a Republican ever since there was a Republican party. It is understood that Senator Browning and Judge Daniel Davis—both of Illinois—are candidates for the Justiceship for the 8th District. The names of William A. Howard of Michigan and Senator Doolittle of Wisconsin will probably also receive consideration.

FIFTY DOLLARS BOUNTY.—Gov. Morgan, on behalf of the State of New York, assumes the responsibility of proclaiming a bounty of $50 for each new recruit under the recent call for troops.

THE ADJOURNMENT OF CONGRESS.

Among the acts passed by Congress during the session which has just closed are the following:

The Free Homestead Act.

The prohibition of Slavery, absolutely and forever, in all the Territories of the Union.

The Abolition of Slavery in the District of Columbia.

The Pacific Railroad Act.

The revision of the Supreme Court Judicial Districts.

The act appropriating Public Lands to the foundation and support of Agricultural and Mechanical Colleges in the several States.

The act Retrenching Military Expenditures and Allowances.

And finally, the Confiscation bill.

These, with the necessary provisions of ways and means for carrying on the struggle with the rebellion, would seem to be quite enough for a single session. But the following measures failed to pass:

The National Bankrupt Law;
The Abolition of the Franking privilege;
The Mileage Reform;
The admission of the State of West Virginia;
The bill providing for a National Banking System;
The bill providing compensation for those States which may see fit to abolish slavery;
The bill providing for the ascertainment and satisfaction of the losses of loyal citizens by military devastation;
The bill providing for the Enlargement of Locks, &c., on the New York and Erie and Illinois and Michigan Canals;
The bill providing for the discharge of State prisoners (in Forts Lafayette, Warren, &c.)

BILLIARD MATCH.—The return match at billiards between the two well known professional players, John Deery of this city and Wm. Goldthwaite of Boston, for $250 a side, came off last evening at Mr. C. O'Connor's room in Union Square. The first match for a similar amount, between the above parties, played in Boston a fortnight ago, was won by Goldthwaite, beating his opponent, in a game of 1,500 up, by 230 points. At 11 o'clock last evening, Deery, when on his eight hundred, was leading his opponent more than 100 points. Deery's play was very steady and cautious, while the Boston representative's, although occasionally showing some brilliant play, was not equal to that which he exhibited in the previous match. As the game would not, in all probability, be terminated until an early hour this morning, we shall give the final result in our Evening Edition.—N. Y. Tribune.

FRENCH IRON CLAD VESSELS FOR THE GULF.—It is announced in late French journals that the Government intends to send two or three iron-clad vessels to the Gulf of Mexico for the purpose, it is said, of testing their naval qualities. La Gloire and La Normandie have already been appointed to sail in a short time with that destination. Admiral Jullien de La Graviere will hoist his flag on La Normandie, taking with him Captain de Russel, late of the Montezuma, who is to be raised to the rank of Flag Captain. La Normandie is now fitting up in the harbor of Cherbourg, and was to be ready for sea on the 20th instant. General Forey, commander of the land troops, will not leave France before the month of September. The Emperor evidently means to be prepared for emergencies.—N. Y. Tribune.

☞ The Chicago Tribune is informed by a gentleman who has just returned from a visit to St. Joseph, Michigan (opposite Chicago, on the lake), that the prospect is that the extensive peach orchards of that region will yield the largest crop ever known in any previous year.
