THE intendant of the revenue informs all persons who have bonds in the treasury, that monies and securities have been lodged in it, which together with one sixth of the unboarded debts as will be sufficient for the redemption of the emissions of June 1780, and that in consequence thereof a draught of bonds has become unnecessary; but he takes the liberty of informing those persons who have hitherto neglected to pay the sixth part of their debt in specie, or of the aforesaid emissions, that the intendant will, without discrimination, bring suit to October court against all defaulters in this respect, and compel payments according to contracts: he also informs all persons who are indebted for interest that do not pay it by the first of September next, agreeably to the act for consolidating the funds, that he will put the bonds of every such person, without distinction, in suit. All collectors of the taxes are likewise informed, that unless they pay into the respective treasuries the monies they are in arrears, that indulgence can no longer be given.

6X DAN. OF ST. THO. JENIFER, intendant of the revenue.

Annapolis, July 13, 1785.
