

and expected, did, cruelly and savage like, kill four of our party—Colonel Thomas Lewis, captain Lochart, captain Lambertson, and another gentleman.

A late English paper lays, that the following extraordinary circumstance may be depended on as a fact—A young woman, who formerly lived as a servant to a publican in Lower hill, hearing that her lover was in the custody of a press-gang, and sent on board the tenet, dressed herself in the habit of a sailor, and immediately entered with the officer who commanded the party—shortly after they were sent on board the ship which conveyed admiral Rodney to the West-Indies, and when the admiral took the command of the fleet on that occasion, the faithful pair were ordered on board the formidable, the young woman doing her duty with uncommon diligence, and without a single man on board the ship (save her lover) having the least suspicion of her sex. In the battle with De Grasse, they were stationed aloft, and at the close of the action, a random shot struck the unhappy girl in the forehead, which in an instant put a period to her existence; as Thomson expresses, "who can paint the lover as he stood!" recovered in a short time from this scene of horror, he, in a few words, to his companions who the object was that lay at that moment breathless at his feet. He then embraced the corpse with a tenderness not to be defined, and clasping her sad remains fast in his arms, leapt with them from the round top into the sea, amidst the tears and lamentations of his brave companions.

THOMAS DEARD.

Baltimore, July 1, 1785.

Lands for Public Sale.

To be sold by public vendue, at the vendue store in Baltimore-town, and the sale to commence, on the 5th day of September next, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, and continue until all are sold.

ABOUT 4050 acres of very valuable land, the property of the Baltimore company, viz. Orange, containing about 2800 acres, adjoining said town, the greater part of it very well wooded, the soil tolerably good, and lay well for farming. — Philipburgh, containing about 900 acres, lays nearly adjoining said town, and on the banks of Patuxent river and Morris's creek, where the navigation is very good, and there may be several good and commodious ship-yards easily made; — this tract abounds with different kinds of timber and fire-wood, and contains several swamps and valleys, which may be easily made into valuable meadow, and a considerable quantity of the upland well adapted to farming. — Gorsuch, containing about 500 acres, this tract lays adjoining Philipburgh, and extends down to the point opposite the fort, which joins the mouth of our harbour, and lays two miles on navigable water; there has been to merly a few acres of this land cleared; but the remainder of it abounds with large lefty timber, chiefly white oak of the first quality for ship building, and with fire-wood; on this tract there is a very large proportion of valuable meadow and upland of the first quality for farming. — In short the many advantages it has, over most other lands, renders it the admiration of all who examine it.

Three small tracts, laying round the Old Mount Royal forge, on both sides of Jones's falls, about one and a half miles from said town, containing about 250 acres; on this land there are three excellent mill-seats; on one of which stands the old forge, with other considerable improvements. — About one half of these tracts is very well wooded; but what adds exceedingly to its value, there are a considerable number of quarries of excellent stone for building.

Bare-Hills, containing about 200 acres, laying about six miles from said town, in the neighbourhood of col. Darby Lux, and will be particularly described at the time of sale.

The whole of these lands will be laid off in lots of various sizes, according to their situations, and as it may be thought will best suit the purchasers. As there are many beautiful situations for gentlemen's country seats, a number of lots will be laid off for that purpose, and the remainder in mill-seats, stone quarries, gardens and farms.

The terms of sale of these lands are the one tenth of the purchase money of the three tracts, laying round the Mount Royal forge, to be paid down the next day after the sale; and bonds with approved security, payable in five years from that date on interest, to be paid annually, for the residue; — and for the remaining tracts, one twentieth part of the purchase money to be paid down the next day after the sale, and bond with interest in the same manner as aforesaid, for the residue.

Plans of the whole will be made out in a short time for the examination of the public — any person desirous of viewing Philipburgh, or Gorsuch, before the day of sale, are requested to apply to Mr. Miles Love, living on the latter; those who may be desirous to view the other lands, are requested to apply to captain Zachariah Mackubin, surveyor on Howard's Hill, Baltimore. Attendance will be given at the time and place of sale, by

ABRAHAM VAN BIBBER, CLEMENT BROOKE, JOHN MERRYMAN.

ANNAPOLIS RACES, OCTOBER MEETING.

THE Jockey Club purse of ONE HUNDRED GUINEAS, will be ran for at Annapolis, on Thursday the 6th of October next, free for any horse, mare, or gelding, belonging to a member of the club; heats and weights as usual. The subscriptions to be paid to Mr. Mann the 6th day of October.

TAKEN up as a stray, by Joseph Turner, near Port-Tobacco, a small bay HORSE, about twelve hands high, has a hanging mane and switch tail, a star in his forehead, his hind feet white, seems lately to have had a sore back, and appears to be about seven or eight years old, branded on the near buttock I B. The owner may have him again on proving property and paying charges.
