

proclamation, than they unanimously shewed the utmost readiness to perform their duty to every extent of their ability, in conformity to the articles of confederation. In consequence of this general decision, the abandoned disappointed wretches, who had vainly flattered themselves with hopes of protection and success, dispersed, and embraced every opportunity to escape from a state to which they offered this audacious insult; nor is there, at this instant, a man of them to be seen in arms within the confines of our territory.

Shays and Wheeler, two of the principals in the insurrection, finding it impossible to procure an asylum in the United States, have gone for Canada, but were stopped at St. John's, the out post, where they were to remain, until the pleasure of lord Dorchester, respecting their admission into that province, should be known.

Bennett's-point, Wye, April 4, 1787.

FOR SALE,

By the subscriber,

A TRACT of land called the Revival, containing one thousand acres or thereabouts, lying and being in Caroline county, this land is well adapted to the growth of Indian corn, wheat and tobacco, advantageously situated on the waters of Choptank river; there is on the land a full proportion of wood and timber; it will be laid off in lots or sold altogether, as most convenient to the purchasers. Also to be sold, a tract of land called Chestnut Neck Corrected, lying in Queen-Anne's county, containing three hundred and fifty acres, or thereabouts, pleasantly situated on Chester river; a large proportion of this tract is in wood and timber, which from its contiguity to Chester adds greatly to its value. The terms of sale are for cash or good London bills of exchange, to be paid upon executing the deeds. For further particulars inquire of

RICHARD BENNETT LLOYD.
