LOCAL NEWS.

Closing of the Maryland Institute Fair.—The jam last night at the Institute was exceedingly unpleasant for persons affected with bad tempers and corns, and it required the most herculean efforts to make the circuit of the hall without being scolded by the ladies for stepping on their dresses or damaging their dear little bonnets. At half past ten o'clock the Blues Band performed a lively air and the audience dispersed feeling grieved that another year must elapse before the pleasures of the Institute fair can be again enjoyed. The principles of the Emancipation of slavery is the greatest blessing that has yet been conferred upon our native State and its benefits will be felt in all time to come.

I have conceived it proper under these circumstances to recommend that such suitable demonstration shall be made on Tuesday, (today), as you in your judgement may deem proper to celebrate the consummation of a

The Lieutenant took an active part in the above battles, and was attached to the old 13th Massachusetts, of 1st Corps, 2d Division. The medal was presented by Mr. Robert Wills, of Company F.

Legislative Districts.—The Committee appointed a few days since by the City Council, to take into consideration the matter of dividing the city into three Legislative districts, as provided for by the New Constitution, submitted their report yesterday. The ordinances proposes that the first district shall consist of the first seven wards; the second district those of the 8th, 9th, 10th, 11th, 12th, 19th and 20th wards; and the third district those of the 13th, 14th, 15th, 16th, 17th and 18th wards.

The Seven Sisters.—This beautiful spectacle was witnessed last night by a crowded audience, and every person present was delighted at the magnificence in which the play has been gotten up. Miss L. Mr. Ward was also well received and came in for his share of recognition during the evening. A grand family matinee will be given on Saturday afternoon. The bill for to-night will present excellent opportunities for Miss Cushman and Mr. Ward to display their great talents.

Runaway and Accident.—Wm. Richardson, C. Trautfelder, Beverly Dix and C. Baldwin, were badly cut and bruised yesterday morning by the upsetting of a carriage. The horses attached to the vehicle in which the men were seated, became frightened when at the corner of Baltimore and Register street, and upon reaching the Philadelphia turnpike, the carriage upset and severely injured the men above named.

Steep Figures.—A letter was received in this city yesterday from Richmond, Va., from which we make the following extract: One dollar in gold in that city will bring twenty seven hundred dollars in Confederate currency, and the gold is extremely scarce at that price. Virginia State funds commands a premium of 400 per cent, over the regular trash. Flour was held at $150 and $500 per barrel.

Held as Prisoners of War.—Daniel Hamitt and Jeremiah Artis, formerly of St. Mary's county, were arrested a few days since, and brought to the office of Col. Woolley, charged with having been in the rebel army, and with failing to report to the Federal authorities after they had escaped from the rebel lines. They were committed to jail for an examination.

Supposed Theft.—Perry Spencer, colored, was arrested last night, charged with having in his possession several woollen shirts and a pair of boots, supposed to have been stolen. The accused was locked up in the Central police station for a hearing.

A MODEL PASSPORT.—A West Virginia correspondent of the Springfield Republican furnishes the form of a passport given by a rebel guerilla, to a loyal man in Wayne county, Virginia, as follows: "Virginia vs. Wayne Co. I ——— co solemly swear that I will not for the space of ninty days take up arms against the Sothern Confederacy nor ade to tak eny on em prisoners and that I will remane at my home and keep the peace now and all times and give information to the enemy for feed and cloth them to help me God ——— given under my hand this 28th day of Aug. 1864. "WM. SMITH Commanding."

VISIT OF MEXICAN OFFICERS.—A correspondent writing from Grant's army, says: Among other arrivals at Gen. Grant's headquarters are the distinguished Mexicans, Sen. Romero and Gen. Debiado, who arrived yesterday by mail boat, accompanied by a friend or two of less celebrity. The round of entertainment to army visitors is unvarying. A visit to the front of Petersburg, with a peep at the spires of its churches, and a walk through the trenches in front of its defences, a ride to Deep Bottom and Aiken's Landing, and a call on Gen. Butler at his headquarters—these are matters of interest to all, but camp life affords few inducements for protracted visits.

A PARTY SPEECH.—The wife of General Harvey, of Wisconsin, who has actively administered to the wants of the Wisconsin soldiers during the war, was complimented at Vicksburg a few days ago with the gift of a handsome gold watch, purchased by the Second Wisconsin cavalry. Her little speech in reply to the presentation address contained this pretty passage:—"I should pray your every heart throb be as strong, steady and true as the tick of your treasured gift; your every wish pure as its polished gold, every loyal aspiration full and free, as my gratitude is to you!"

SEWING MACHINES.

ON ALL SIDES we hear the merits of the GROVER & BAKER'S extolled. The ladies declare it the "very best," and prove it to us in so many undeniable facts that we are bound to confess our conviction of the truth of the declaration. What other machine will embroider so beautifully, braid so elegantly, hem so faultlessly, quilt so evenly, stitch so accurately, gather so regularly, operate so easily? None, we conscientiously affirm.

CELEBRATED SEWING-MACHINE
