DAILY CLIPPER.

WM. WALPS.....Publisher.

THURSDAY, FEB 2, 1865.

TO ADVERTISERS.

The following exhibit of our regular rates will be found of service:

1 Square 1 Time	$ 50
" 2 Times	75
" 1 Week	1.00
" 1 Month	1.75
" 3 Months	4.00
" 6 Months	6.00
" 1 Year	10.00
" 1 Year	30.00

ONE SQUARE CONTAINS SIX LINES OF SPACE.

[Reported for the Baltimore Clipper.]

PROCEEDINGS OF CONGRESS.

38th Congress—2d Session.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 1, 1865.

SENATE.—The credit bill, before the Senate on answer to a resolution of the body, was returned to them by the Secretary of War, with three others, made yesterday. Hon. O. Ferry and Mr. Frank W. Bolt of Kentucky, it appears, that Col. Wolford was arrested in compliance with a telegram from Lieut. Gen. Grant, for his speeches in an improper manner, and discussing civil measures. Subsequently he pledged himself to refrain from complaint to the Government and was released. On November last Lieut. Wolford disobeyed an order issued by order of Gen. the Army, and banished South for having published a circular and speech intended to weaken the efforts of the Government.

Mr. Anthony presented a petition from citizens of Rhode Island, praying that in the passage of any bankrupt act it be made prospective instead of retrospective. Laid on the table.

Mr. Morgan presented resolutions of the Chamber of Commerce of New York, concurring with the act of the Philadelphia Board of Trade in recommending an amendment of the Constitution, so as to prohibit of export duties. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

Mr. Hale presented a petition from the commissioners of the Capitol Library, which was referred to the Committee on Public Buildings.

Mr. Fessenden, from the Judiciary Committee, reported the House joint resolution tendering the thanks of Congress to Major Gen. Sheridan, his officers and men, for their victories in the Shenandoah Valley, and especially for the battle of October 19th. It was considered and passed.

Mr. Sherman, from the Committee on Finance, reported adversely on the bill for increasing the pay of members of Congress, and the report was concurred in.

Mr. Sherman also reported from the Finance Committee, the general appropriation bill from the House for 1866, with amendments.

Mr. Sherman from the Finance Committee, reported a bill supplementary to an act to provide a national currency, secured by United States stocks, and to provide for the circulation and redemption thereof. It provides that national banking associations organized under the act may, at any time, deposit with the Treasurer of the United States, United States bonds, and receive from the Treasurer circulating notes to the amount of ninety per cent. of the market value of such bonds, not exceeding the amount of their capital stock. The circulation issued to any such association on the security of United States bonds shall be subject to all the provisions of the act.

Mr. Trumbull, from the Judiciary Committee, reported back the bill to amend the act to prohibit the slave trade, with a recommendation that it be indefinitely postponed. Agreed to.

Mr. Trumbull, from the Judiciary Committee, reported back the bill to amend the act to prohibit the importation of persons to be held to service or labor, with a recommendation that it be indefinitely postponed. Agreed to.

Mr. Sherman, from the Committee on Finance, reported adversely on the bill for increasing the pay of members of Congress, and the report was concurred in.

Mr. Sherman also reported from the Finance Committee, the general appropriation bill from the House for 1866, with amendments.

Mr. Sherman from the Finance Committee, reported a bill supplementary to an act to provide a national currency, secured by United States stocks, and to provide for the circulation and redemption thereof. It provides that national banking associations, organized under the act, may at any time deposit with the Treasurer of the United States, United States bonds, and receive from the Treasurer circulating notes to the amount of ninety per cent. of the market value of such bonds, not exceeding the amount of their capital stock. The circulation issued to any such association on the security of United States bonds shall be subject to all the provisions of the act.

Mr. Trumbull, from the Judiciary Committee, reported back the bill to amend the act to prohibit the slave trade, with a recommendation that it be indefinitely postponed. Agreed to.

Mr. Trumbull, from the Judiciary Committee, reported back the bill to amend the act to prohibit the importation of persons to be held to service or labor, with a recommendation that it be indefinitely postponed. Agreed to.

Mr. Wilson, from the Military Committee, reported the House joint resolution tendering the thanks of Congress to Major Gen. Sheridan, his officers and men, for their victories in the Shenandoah Valley, and especially for the battle of October 19th. It was considered and passed.

Mr. Sherman, from the Committee on Finance, reported adversely on the bill for increasing the pay of members of Congress, and the report was concurred in.

Mr. Sherman also reported from the Finance Committee, the general appropriation bill from the House for 1866, with amendments.

Mr. Sherman from the Finance Committee, reported a bill supplementary to an act to provide a national currency, secured by United States stocks, and to provide for the circulation and redemption thereof. It provides that national banking associations, organized under the act, may at any time deposit with the Treasurer of the United States, United States bonds, and receive from the Treasurer circulating notes to the amount of ninety per cent. of the market value of such bonds, not exceeding the amount of their capital stock. The circulation issued to any such association on the security of United States bonds shall be subject to all the provisions of the act.

Mr. Trumbull, from the Judiciary Committee, reported back the bill to amend the act to prohibit the slave trade, with a recommendation that it be indefinitely postponed. Agreed to.

Mr. Trumbull, from the Judiciary Committee, reported back the bill to amend the act to prohibit the importation of persons to be held to service or labor, with a recommendation that it be indefinitely postponed. Agreed to