RELIGIOUS MEETING.—We call special attention to a meeting which is to be held in the Lecture Room of the Second Presbyterian Church, corner of Baltimore and Lloyd streets, this evening, at 7½ o'clock (Rev. G. P. Hays,) this evening, at 7½ P. M. We were not aware until recently of the great amount of Missionary labor that is performed in this city and State, by the Maryland Tract Missionary Society.—Thousands have read the book called Missing, with the deepest interest, which gives an account of the labors of Bible and Tract men in London.

This Society is performing the very same kind of labor in this city on a large scale among the poor and unfortunate, and the results are of the most cheering character. Many facts of interest will be brought out at this meeting. The Rev. T. Stork, D. D., will preach a sermon on City Missions, after which a report will be made of the nature, extent and success of the work.

The officers, tract distributors, and friends in the cause are invited to attend. These meetings are to be held monthly hereafter in different churches. Over 400 laborers are at work in this city alone.
