DIRGE-MYTHE.

Alone, I watch the dying day,
I see its tints of orange paling;
And just beyond the ruffled bay
Grey mist the purple hills are veiling;
Upon the roof weird fingers play,
And all the winds are full of wailing.

Life's open book before me lies,
And as I turn its leaves back, faintly
The pictures of the past arise,
Strange forms go by—apparelled quaintly;
Sweet voices whisper, and dear eyes
Shine as of old—divine and saintly.

Once more I hear the gentle rhyme
Where falling leaves still waters dimple,
The woods low murmur, and the chime
Of silvery streamlets as they wimple.
And live again the golden time
Of childhood's joys—so pure and simple.

What pretty pebbles pave the creek,
The deaf old creek by mulberries shaded!
There the sly frogs played hide and-seek
Through lilies—with sweet spices laded;
And our wee shadows seemed to speak
From whispering wavelets, as we waded.

What leagues of nectar wooed the bees
To buckwheat hills or daisy-dotted!
What twitterings birds on blooming trees
Crooned tenderly, and played the lover!
Ah, Time, with odorous breath of ease,
Told the delicious idyl over!

We reckoned then each year a gain;
Now, they are counted with our losses;
Sharp thorns and the pale worm's venom
Where then we trod Spring's velvet mosses!
The joys of our flowery garlands vain,
And new, sweary with our crosses.

I gathered wild flowers yesterday,
But somehow flowers have lost their sweetness;
Some quail were startled—even the
Seem to have lost their old drowsiness,
And only hopped beneath the
As if they had no need for fleetness.

But when I see the children meet,
Flower-laden, from their plays returning;
Care trampled by their heedless feet,
Their trustful souls all shade-or-spurning
Their heights wild with the pulsant beat,
And hope's bright fires within them burning—

I know life blooms the same, but I
Shall breathe its old-time fragrance—never!
Oh, dreary Now—th. dear Gone-by,
The bridgeless floods of sorrow sever,
Ah, me have wistfully I sigh
For dreamtime lost—and lost I never!

ELLICOTT'S MILLS, Sept. 4, 1865.

Circuit Court for Howard County—Hon. Jno. E. Smith, Judge; Geo. W. Sands, State's Attorney, prosecuting.

The following named gentlemen, summoned as Grand Jurors, appeared in court, and after taking the oath of allegiance prescribed by law, were duly sworn: Barney McCormick, Elias W. Frost, Edward A. Hall, John H. O. Cooling, Charles O. Lathbury, Amos Gorsuch, Earl Helms, Marshall McCauley, Charles Pettibord, George W. Cole, Michael O. Dorsey, Joseph D. Pettit, Jesse Gorsuch, Andrew Mercer, C. B. Rowe, W. Burdett, Mahlon Sadell, James A. Curtis, Henry W. Warfield, George Stewart, Samuel Bridge, Benjamin Bridge, Seth H. Warfield and Samuel Elias Bridge, each of whom delivered the usual pass. His honor delivered the usual charge, after which the grand jury retired to transact business. The appearance and sub poena dockets were called and cases assigned. Three of John Boyle, (convicted from Anne Arundel county,) four cases for assault with intent to murder, and one for the murder of Cap sin Watkins, were assigned for trial on the fourth Monday of September. Boyle was tried on one indictment, that of assault with intent to murder, at the October term of the Anne Arundel County Court, at Annapolis, convicted, and sentenced to imprisonment in the penitentiary for seven years. Thomas Joseph B. Greenwood, J. Henry Brandt and William L. Fisher, removed cases from Caroline County Court, where they were indicted for treason, were assigned for next Monday, 11th inst.

The trial docket was then called by His Honor, and the removed criminal cases from Baltimore city were postponed until further notice. The trial of the cases of Boyle will occupy several days, and there is every indication that this will be a long term. The Attorney General of the State will assist in the prosecution. Witnesses will be summoned from five or six different counties to testify in the Boyle case.

The case of the State vs. Wm. Smallwood, indicted for assaulting David H. White, removed from Baltimore city, was tried before Court and judgment of not guilty given. Judgment under the rule for want of plea was given for the plaintiffs in the case of Burns & Sloan vs. Geo. A. Rhodes. George W. King, Esq., for plaintiffs. The Court adjourned until to-morrow (Tuesday) morning at 10 o'clock.

THE CITY COUNCIL.

FIRST BRANCH—Monday, September 4, 1865. Present, Jas. Young, Esq., President, and a quorum of members.

Mr. Larrabee offered a petition of Mr. Wingate, to erect a steam engine on corner of Caroline and Aliso Ann streets; referred. Mr. Nicholls offered a petition of the Extra-men of the Baltimore City Fire Department, for an increase of compensation; referred. The President presented the petition of Sam. Kessman, a soldier of the Second Regiment Eastern Shore H. G., for obtaining the promised bounty of $100; referred. He also presented a petition of Jeremiah Horn for constructing a switch on the east side of Central Avenue, and erection of a steam engine upon a lot known as Carr's Pottery; referred. He also presented a communication of Rev. L. Van Hockelin in relation to the erection of a State Normal School; referred. Also, the communication of the Police Commissioners, relating to the expenses of the Department from January 1st, 1865, to June 30th, 1865; read and ordered to be printed.

Mr. Ewalt presented a petition for the opening of Jackson street from Clement to Fort street; referred. Mr. Price offered a resolution directing the City Register to pay to the chairman of each Board of Registration in this city the actual expenses incurred and not provided for by the State appropriation; referred. Mr. Nicholls moved a reconsideration of the vote taken upon the resolution recorded on page 839 of the journal, appointing a committee of five members, including the Mayor, whose duty it shall be to visit the neighboring cities and to inquire into the mode of lighting said cities with gas, with the view of purchasing the works of the Balt. Gas Light Company; reconsideration carried and laid over. Adjourned until this evening.

SECOND BRANCH—Branch met pursuant to adjournment on the 15th of June last, and on the call of the roll by the Secretary, six members were found to be present, consisting of Daniel Harvey, Esq., President, and Messrs. Beech, McClymont, Burke, Nalls and Irelan. The number present not being a quorum, the Branch adjourned until this evening at five o'clock.

TREASURE TROVE.—On Thursday morning a boy purchasing some potatoes of Mr John Cummins, at the old market, tendered him an old silver half dollar, and when Mr. C. informed him that he had no silver change, the reply was that he had a plenty and it did not matter. Astonished at meeting with a person who had as much specie as he wanted, Mr. C. inquired into the particulars of so unusual a case, and received in return the following story, which has since been verified.

On Wednesday the youth in question and his father were engaged in removing the ashes from a burned house which belonged to the father in Hanover county, when, near the fireplace, the boy dug out several half dollars, and on further search the sum of $200, all in fifty cent pieces of old style, was unearthed.

The house had been for some time prior to its destruction rented out by the owner, but the only tenant who had occupied it for many years was an extremely poor man who is said to have never had ten dollars at once in his life, so the affair remains shrouded in mystery.

In connection with this case we will mention a transaction which occurred some weeks since, when a little boy, finding a purse on the Central Railroad containing six $20 gold pieces, was so ignorant of their value that he sold the whole sum to another little shaver for thirty-five cents, both being under the impression that the double eagles were simply big coppers, and the vendor departed delighted with his bargain, while the buyer went home to exhibit his new toy to his parents. Richmond Bulletin.

GENERAL GRANT ON MEXICO.

"Again," the Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette, says:

"It is true that General Grant has repeatedly and openly expressed his private opinions—differing in no respect from that of thousands of his fellow citizens—against the French occupation of Mexico, and in favor of sending it, by diplomacy if possible, by war if need be. He talked so with the utmost freedom when here last; and it is quite probable that he didn't take any pains to change the tone of his conversation when he got into Canada."

BELLIGERENT SPIRIT.—The Western Continent seems to have aroused its belligerent spirit. Our great war has just ended, but we have a half dozen others in Mexico and South America. That between Brazil and Paraguay is of a very sanguinary character, the Brazilians having the advantage both by sea and land. There is war in Peru, war in Hayti, and indeed nearly all the American powers are trying to use up their wealth by investing it in gunpowder, the poorest kind of an investment of national surplus, except for national integrity and independence. It is difficult to trace what all these wars are about, but if a universal peace convention ever had a motive for assembling, it should be about this time, to settle upon some principle of arbitrament of national quarrels, without resorting to arms.

☞A gentleman named Arthur W. Brown, a dry goods merchant from Louisville, Ky., arrived in Baltimore Monday night from Washington en route for home, and states that while at the depot in Washington he was swindled out of $100 by a sharper, who represented that amount "until he arrived in Baltimore," but upon arrival at the train the man made off, leaving Mr. Brown waiting, but in vain, for his return.

GEN LEE—The Richmond Whig is informed that Gen. Lee has consented to accept the Presidency of Washington College.

MEDICAL.

NO MEDICINE GIVEN.

DR. J. DODGE WARREN,

ON LEXINGTON AVENUE, NEW YORK.

PRACTICAL PHYSICIAN,

FOR CHRONIC DISEASES,

Late of New York City, Albany, Montreal Quebec, Detroit, Chicago, St. Louis, Cincinnati and Philadelphia, has taken the NEW ASSEMBLY ROOMS, BALTIMORE, Where he will Publicly heal the sick, free of charge from 9 A. M. till 11 A. M., WITHOUT MONEY AND WITHOUT PRICE, FROM WEDNESDAY, September 6th, to FRIDAY, October 6th. ALSO, TAKES PARLORS AT THE EUTAW HOUSE, Where those who are able and willing to pay may come, FROM 3 UNTIL 6 P. M., EACH DAY. No Medicines Given! No Surgical Operations Performed! Chronic Diseases Cured! Acute Pain Instantly Relieved! The Lame Walk! The Blind See! The Deaf Hear. OVER 50,000 OPERATIONS IN FIVE YEARS!

So many thousands are already acquainted with my mode of operating it seems necessary only to say that by this method an equilibrium of the vital powers is at once established, and an equalization of the circulation maintained: thus nature is enabled to throw off the effete matters which generate and foster disease, and health at once ensues.

From one to five minutes are required for the most inveterate cases of any curable Chronic Disease. In many instances a single operation of one minute is sufficient. In rare instances of exceedingly obstinate character, a second or even a third operation may be required. No exception to Fractures, Dislocations, Curvature of the Spine, or Suppurating Tumors.

The diseases which yield most readily to the curative agency of this method, as practiced by me, are Dyspepsia, Constipation, Asthma, Angina Pectoris, Chlorosis, Loss of Voice, Rheumatism, Rheumatic Gout, Liver Disease, Disease of the Biliary Passages, Irritable Bladder, Headache, Nervous Irritation of the Brain, Bronchitis, Catarrh, Diseases of the Heart, Eruptive Diseases, Convulsions, Hysteria, Neuralgia, Thrush, Congestion of Spleen, Irritation of Stomach, Liver and Kidneys, Urinary Diseases, Prolapsus of the Womb, Morbid Appetite, Wakefulness, General Debility, Nervous Depression, Difficult Breathing with pain in the Lungs.

Paralysis, Consumption and General Dropsy are the most slow and uncertain with this treatment. Patients afflicted with these have rarely been restored. They are, however, always benefited.

Deafness, when dependent upon destruction of tympanum, and Amaurosis dependent upon paralysis of the optic nerve, are incurable.

All operations performed in the public Hall are open for criticism and investigation.
