From where HELVETIA'S mountains rise,
M<sup>rs</sup> TELLS, shall gratulations bear;
Far fled from loft Heliperian skies Fair freedom fix'd her dwelling there;
From BELGIUM, long contested land,
The (b) NASSAUS come, a shining band;
For thee with fond officious care
A victor's wreath, their hands prepare;
Like thee, the rage of power they dar'd;
Like thee, their generous breasts they bar'd,
Like thee asserted freedom's equal reign,
Threw off a tyrant's yoke, and broke base slav'ry's chain.

Even from ALBION'S far fam'd isle
A virtuous few, shall glad repair;
There venerable LOCKE shall smile,
And HAMPTON love to visit there,
There SIDNEY hold the free debate,
And RUSSELL glory in his fate:
Immortal spirits! vain the aim
(i) Of sycophants to blast your fame,
Vain all their deep malignant rage,
Tho' it has blotted LEARNING'S page,
Vain their base arts to prop a tottering throne, Their DESPOT'S right divine, their millions made for one.

But who are those who hither haste,
Along the bright ætherial plain,
With honest wounds each bosom grac'd?
They are my sons in battle slain.
More than human seem their forms;
Redoubled ardour (j) WARREN warms;
(k) MERCER points to fields afar
Where first roll'd back the waves of war;
His laurels brave (l) MONTGOMERY shows Blooming amid CANADIAN snows;
And leading on to thee, the glorious train Exult, exult, they cry, we have not bled in vain.

What transports swell each generous breast,
What glorious prospects meet their eyes,
In these far regions of the west,
While they behold an empire rise.
See INDUSTRY extend her reign,
And cloath with harvests every plain;
See COMMERCE spread her swelling sail,
On every tide to every gale;
See SCIENCE wake her morning ray,
And lead on intellectual day;
See JUSTICE rear her adamant throne, And VALOUR still protect what WASHINGTON has won.

Hail PATRIOT HERO! meet compeer
Of all the worthies hovering round,
Whose plaudits foothie thy raptur'd ear,
With more than music's sweetest sound.
Yet not such bliss can they bestow,
As thou my darling son shall know,
While thou behold'st these happy lands,
Deriving blessings from thy hands;
The joy supreme of giving joy,
Thy conscious heart shall still supply;
While realms which FREEDOM from thy virtues prove, Sixil add to FAME'S loud praise, a grateful people's love.

By the HOUSE of DELEGATES, December 10, 1788.

WHEREAS it has been represented to this general assembly by the auditor-general, that many claims have been exhibited against the estates of those that have been confiscated and attainted of treason, several of which do not appear to be well founded, and still remain with the auditor for further investigation, by which he is prevented from closing the same:

RESOLVED, That the auditor-general be and he is hereby directed and required to pass finally before the first day of August next, on all accounts, debts, claims and demands, against persons convicted and attainted of treason, or whose property has been confiscated and seized, that have been duly laid before him, and have not already been decided on, or may be exhibited to him before the first day of June next.

ORDERED, That the above resolution be published six weeks in the Maryland Gazette, and Baltimore Advertiser, for the information of those who may be concerned.

By order,
W. HARWOOD, Clk.

By the SENATE, December 15, 1788: Read and Cantons, the ancient Helvetia.

(b) The princes of Orange, of the house of Nassau, who led the opposition of the Hollanders to the tyranny of Spain.
(i) Alludes to some late publications in England, respecting the characters of those patriots who brought about the revolution, and attempting to exalt prerogative above what British principles will permit.
(j) General Warren, killed at the battle of Bunker's-Hill.

1788.

WHEREAS the governor and council have drawn many orders on the treasurer of the western shore, payable to the citizens of this state, which are not issued: And whereas the general assembly have solemnly and repeatedly pledged the faith of this state, in case the interest received from its debtors should be inadequate to the payment and discharge of the interest arisen and to arise on specie certificates issued by the state, that then the yearly supplies for defraying the expences of government should be appropriated to make up the deficiency: And whereas the interest received from the debtors of the state is greatly insufficient to pay the interest due on said certificates, and the justice and dignity of the state require that provision should be made without further delay for the payment of the said interest,

RESOLVED, That so much of the funds appropriated to the payment of the journal of accounts, the civil list, the allowance to the delegates to congress, and the payment of fifteen hundred pounds to Samuel Sterrett, attorney for Messieurs Vantaphorst, which shall remain after answering the said purposes, be applied to the discharge of the said orders and payment of one year's interest on certificates, giving preference to the holders of such certificates on which no interest has been drawn, in case application is made to the treasurer on or before the first day of August next.

ORDERED, That the above resolution be published in the Annapolis and Baltimore news-papers six weeks.
