Thomas Stevens being one of the people called Quakers made solemn Affimation that he was present the third Day of this Instant when Mary Chaplin Executrix of Francis Chaplin Deceased Applyed to James Chaplin Brother of the said Francis to sign the foregoing Inventory as one of the said Deceased's nearest Kindred; That the said James refused to do it because of a Ring, which Ring this Affimant saith he Apprehended was One in the possession of the said Mary which Elizabeth Ayres mother of the said Francis pretended a Right to.

Jerem. Nicols D. Comry of Tal County.

Talbot County to Wit } Mary Chaplin Executrix of Francis Chaplin being one of the people called Quakers made Solemn Affimation, That after taking Letters Testamentary on her said Husband Francis Chaplin's Estate, she gave Notice in due time to James Chaplin Brother of the said Deceased when and where to be present at the Appraisement of the said Deceased's Estate. That when the Inventory was Compleated this Affimant Applyed to him the said James to sign it as one of the next of kin to the said Deceased That the said James refused to do it unless this Affimant would give up a Ring that is appraised in the foregoing Inventory which Elizabeth Ayres Mother to the said Deceased pretended Right to. That the said James and his Children are the nearest Relations to the said Deceased that this Affimant knows of, that this Affimant applyed to some of the said James's Children to sign it but they refused without giving any Reason, but the Reason of their Refusal (this Affimant verily believes and with good Cause) was the Influence which their Father had over them

Taken this 13th Day of December Anno Dom. 1751 before me

Mary Chaplin

Jerem. Nicols Dep. Comry of Talbot County.

The said Mary Chaplin further saith that Elizabeth Ayres Mother to the aforesaid Francis Chaplin Deceased and James Chaplin was dead at the time she applyed to the Kindred to sign the Inventory.
