e plans, pointed out by the fes uard to our frontiers, has fo our own ideas respecting tion only, that we think eight etent to patrole the country Fort Franklin, which would I fafety of this place and couny immediate information from

-five volunteers, from Wash. marched from this place as an t Franklin, in confequence of leffers of the twenty-fixth of which we had the honour to y the last post.

the honour of communicating ry authentic information we

of being your excellency's obe-

A. TANKERIL JOHN GIBSON GEORGE WALLACE JOHN IRWIN, JAMES O'HARA.

ry, 1792. ring article is copied from & th of October last, brought by the first acts of colonel Simcoe's will be, to deliver up the Brieast of the river St. Lawrence va_Scotia, according to certain h America. from Dublin, OBober 15. on Thursday evening a very n, which continued with great eight and nine yesterday morntwenty hours without intermifto abate, but did not entirely and two o'clock. In conferal parts of the city were inun-

the no small loss and inconveinhabitants. That part of the rder's court is held was fo floodudge's seat, that it was found he court, which had been open brig Lion, arrived at Portland from Port-au-Prince, informs, nber a treaty was concluded beand mulattoes;—and all things uietness till the 21st, on the peace was folemnly ratified. r, the whites very imprudently mulatto criminal, who was betence of death. There were at. mulattoes in the town; all of with arms, for the defence of thite people, against the negroes. fended, however, with the exer colour; and the majority of understanding the propriety of the first white man who came nd " hung him by the neck till ne afternoon of the same day, at whites fent a flag to the mulatropriety of their conduct, and ther to lay down their arms, or this the mulattoes spiritedly renot do either of them; -and imeir arms, and paraded in a large r's house. The whites, amounttime on their part, in making the mulattoes. At 5 o'clock an furround them; which however, severe conflict ensued, in which s were killed, and among them stoes fought bravely; and with killed, and 150 who were taken heir way through the whitesand marched out of town: at on was secretly set on fire in two covery was however made, and -About two o'clock the next set on fire in fix different places. were now no longer able to fubeneral conflagration took places ble building excepting the king's urnt down. Property to the vas destroyed, and those who on the town was destroyed, the that the blacks were accessory to d the horrid design of putting to and mulatto women and children town. And this design, to the perpetrators, was put immediate. An indiscriminate slaughter took ho could be found during that nt or guilty, but was instantly a bullet through the head or a r were worth two or three hun-

, on the 22d, were not in the shilling. They were even fed.

bitants, with provisions drawn

Port-au-Prince the 25th of Nome the town was still furrounded nd negroes. The whites were and were disposed to make peace om Port-au-Prince, dated Deceme ber 6.

owes its destruction to the whites: the fact, fetting fire to the town

Lone was instantly hung up to 4 lantern, the other hrown into the flames. The mulattoes are encamped on both fides of the town, and refuse to torm any greaty of peace; they are joined by large numbers of the white people, from the town and country; their intention is to make an attack upon the town, which hey may easily force—the citizens are so divided mongst themselves, that a small force may overcome

KNOXVIBBE, November 19. About the 10th instant, a company going through de wilderness to Cumberland, was met on the road by a party of Indians. Upon first fight the men (being seven in number) rode off with the unmost presipitation, and left the women (four in number) who were so terrified that they were unable to proceed. The Indians came up, thook hands with them, and fold them they should not be hurt, made a fire for them, and caught a stud horse, that one of the company had jumped from, which they tied to a tree. They then went after a small boy who was attempting. to make off, and brought him back to the women. Rour of the company did not stop till they reached the settlement—the other three returned to the women after fome time.

The above extract is taken from a gazette, printed at Knoxville on the Holstein, in the territory of the United States, south of the Ohio; and we have a eleasure in hearing that the women, who had been Bount made a treaty last summer.]

BALTIMORE January 21. On Monday, the 16th instant, was fought, a duel, between Mr. James Matthews, brother of doctor W. Matthews, of Cæcil county, and Mr. Richard Heath, edest son of Mr. Daniel C. Heath, in which the former (Mr. Matthews) was killed the first fire. The duel was fought in the border of Newcastle county. Mear Mrs. Ellis's tavern, and the challenge is said to lave been sent by Mr. Heath. A Mr. Bell, from Phi-Idelphia, is said to have been one of the seconds.

A CAUTION.

FROM THE FEDERAL GAZETTE. It is recommended to the public to be careful when they receive the fifty dollar bills of the bank of North-America, as some bills of sive dollars have been altered to fifty; the original sum appears to have been extracted by a liquid, and fifty dollars put in the place with a pen. The imposition may be easily discovered made appearing of a yellow cast, and other marks of his hands to the payment of open accounts. the fraud may be traced with a little attention.

ANNAPOLIS, January 26. The president of the United States has appointed, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, Governeur Morris, of New-York, to be minister plenipotentiary for the United States at Paris.

Thomas Pinkney, of South-Carolina, to be minister plenipotentiary for the United States, at London, and Richard Peters, to be district judge of the Pennsylmia district, vice William Lewis, who has religned his appointment.

Mr. D. GRANT, IROM your letter to me you feem to be alarmed, no transaction of my life shall injure you or any ther man; present my compliments to the gentlemen who frighted you, and tell them to turn to 2d salkeld, page 442, they may there fatisfy themselves.

R. A. CONTEE. Maryland Inturance Fire Company. laving been already subscribed to authorise this no- ceive the above reward, from · Calhann JOHN MERRYMAN, GEORGE SALMON, NICHOLAS ROGERS. JAMES CALHOUN, WILLIAM BUCHANAN, of George. Baltimore, January 21, 1792.

In CHANCERY, January 25, 1792. DENJAMIN BELT, sen. an insolvent debtor, D lately in the custody of the sheriff of Prince-George's county, having, on his petition to the chancellor, been brought before the chancellor, and having taken the oath prescribed by the act for the relief of undry insolvent debtors, and the body of the said Benjamin Belt, sen. having, according to the said act, been discharged from imprisonment. It is thereupon We the chancellor adjudged and ordered, that the immediate payment. freditors of the said Belt appear before him in person, or by their agent or attornies, in the chancery office, m Monday the 26th day of March next, for the purcopy of this order inserted in the Maryland Gazette, prisonment, and other charges.

Anne-Arundel county, January 24, 1792. HE honourable the chancellor having appointed the subscriber trustee to dispose of the real estate. of the late LUKE WARFIELD, jun. for the payment of his just debts, the creditors of the said Luke Warfield are hereby required to exhibit their claims. to the chancellor, with the vouchers thereof, on or before the fourteenth day of February next; after which time, notice will be given of the time, place and terms of fale of the real effate before mentioned.

HE subscriber being seized of part of a tract of land. lying in Calvert county, called AR-CHER's HAYES, gives this public notice to all perfons concerned, that he intends to apply to the next. ensuing Calvert county court for a commission to mark and bound the same, agreeable to a late act of assem-

GEORGE SMITH. January 17, 1792.

Boot and Shoe-maker,

T) EGS leave to inform his customers, and the public in general, that he has just received from London a large and excellent affortment of Spanish and Morocco LEATHER, among which is a variety deserted by their fellow travellers, were indebted for of colours, equal in manufactory to any he has ever this remarkable proof of friendly attention to a hunting seen; he has also provided himself with materials to party of Cherokees; the nation with whom governor carry on his business in all its various branches; those ladies and gentlemen who please to favour him with their commands may be supplied with ladies sattin, stuff or leather shoes and slippers, gentlemens dress or plain shoes and boots, or any other article belonging to any branch of his business, all of which he will perform in the neatest and most fashionable manner with punctuality and dispatch. Feeling himself indebted to a generous public he returns his most sincere thanks for the encouragement he has already received, and flatters himself that his unremitted endeavours to give satisfaction will not fail to merit a continuance of their patronage.

Annapolis, Cornhill-street, January 26, 1792.

Charles county, January 13, 1792. LL persons having claims, on bonds or notes, against the estate of JOHN AMERY, formerly of Cæcil county, deceased, are desired to take notice, SAMUEL AMERY, Administrator of John Amery.

TOTICE is hereby given, that the subscriber intends to present a petition to the next March court of Kent county for a commission to prove and perpetuate the bounds of the following TRACTS of LAND, viz. The Remains of My Lord's Gracious Grant, The Beaver Dams, The Remains of My Lord's Gracious Grant, resurveyed, or The Remains of His Lordship's Grant, Mitchell's Park, Mitchell's Risk, Mitchell's Park, resurveyed, The Remains of his Lordship's Gracious Grant, agreeable to the act of assembly, entitled, An act for marking and bounding

WALTER DULANY. Annapolis, January 14, 1792.

Five Pounds Reward.

YOUNG MULATTO WOMAN left my plantation some weeks ago, and (as I am since informed) has been about Annapolis passing for one of the Butlers; her name is JEMIMA (commonly called NOTICE is hereby given, that a meeting of the MIMY); she is of the middle stature, of a streight IN stockholders in the Maryland Insurance Fire and rather slender make, and has a pleasing counte-Company will be held at Mr. Grant's tavern, in Bal- nance when in a good humour; she took with her, umore-town, on the first Monday in March next, to beside other cloathing not known, a calico habit and thoose nine directors and trustees for the said company, brown linen jacket and petticoat. Whoever secures greeably to their charter, a sufficient number of shares her in any gaol, so that I may get her again, shall re-

> G. R. BROWN. Port-Tobacco, January 12, 1792.

AME to the subscriber's plantation, on the Head of South river, in November last, a red STEER yearling, his right ear is cropped, and three cuts in it, the left ear cropped and a hole, and a bob-tail. The owner is defired to prove property, pay charges, and take him away.

HENRY EVANS. January 16, 1792.

LL persons having any just claims against the estate of WILLIAM HALL, of BEN. late of Prince-George's county, deceased, are desired to bring them in properly authenticated and proved, and all persons indebted to said estate are requested to make pole of proposing to the said Belt any interrogatories, NEWTON, about twenty-seven years old, and which they or any of them may think proper, and of negro MINTA, about twenty-one years old; they ceived, and punctually attended to. recommending to the chancellor some person to be say their master's name is VINCINT WILLIAMS, and truffee of the property of the faid Belt for the benefit lives on the South Branch of Virginia. Their master always receive the best prices for them, cash in of his creditors. Ordered further, that notice be is defired to pay charges, and take them away; if they hand. given by the said Benjamin Belt, sen, to the said cre- are not taken away by the first day of March, 1792,

3 X RICHARD D. HALL, Executor.

WILLIAM D. BEALL, Sheriff Prince-Georges coupty.

Annapolis, January 1, 1792. At a meeting of the Visitors and Governors of ST. JOHN's COLLEGE, in the state of Maryland, on Thursday the 10th of November last, RESOLVED, HAT this board, at the quarterly meeting in May next, proceed to elect a VICE-PRINCIPAL of St. John's College.

That it be the duty of the principal and vice-principal to teach some of the higher authors in Latin and Greek, certain parts of the mathematics, logic, and moral and natural philosophy; and that the departments of the said principal and vice-principal shall hereaster be ascertained with precision, on consideration of their mutual convenience and qualifications.

That the vice-principal shall be entitled to receive, for his services, a salary of three hundred and fifty pounds current money, rating dollars at 7/6 each, to be paid quarterly.

That persons desirous of, and qualified for, the office of vice-principal, be, by public advertisement, requested to make application to Mr. Charles Wallace, Mr. Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, and Mr. Alexander Contee Hanson, all of the city of Annapolis. By order of the Board, JOHN THOMAS, President. N. B. The fundamental laws of St. John's college prohibit all preference on account of religious tenets or opinions.

As the appointment of a vice-principal is alone wanted to complete the plan of this rifing feminary, the board will certainly proceed, at the time stated, to an election, provided a person qualified, in their judgment, for this important office, can be procured. The personal attendance of the candidates, although nos positively required, will be obviously proper.

It may be useful to remark, that the salaries of all the professors and teachers have hitherto been paid with entire punctuality, and that the funds of St. John's college produce a certain annual income superior to all the appropriations which have been or probably will be made.

The Printers of news-papers throughout the United States are earnestly requested to insert the above refolve and remarks, and to repeat the publication as often as convenience will permit.

A LL persons having any claims against the estate of EDMUND JENINGS, senior, late of that unless they bring in the said bonds or notes, in Anne-Arundel county, deceased, are requested to renthree months from the date hereof, that the subscriber, der their claims legally proved, and those who are from the back of the bill where the alteration was after that time, will apply the balance of the estate in indebted to the said estate are desired to make pay-EDMUND JENINGS, Executor.

Sixteen Dollars Reward.

OR apprehending four flaves, or four dollars for each, viz. BEN, a black well set man, about years of age, and 5 feet 8 inches high; had with him when he absconded good cloaths of a variety of kinds, he has been long and well known as a waterman on this bay, and had charge of a schooner of Mr. Sprigg's.—PHIL, a young black crop negro, about 5 feet 9 or 10 inches high, very forward and impertinent, about 22 years of age, and well made, had the ordinary cloathing of a crop negro. --- MAREEN, a light colouged negro woman of about 21 years of age, about 5 feet 7 inches high, flout and well made, had also a variety of good cloathing. -- JACK, fout young man of about 28 years of age, 5 feet 8 or 9 inches high, and well made, has been some time a coachman. It is apprehended that these slaves are lurking in the neighbourhood of West river. All persons are forewarned against harbouring them, as they will, when discovered, be prosecuted with the utmost rigour of the law. These persons have affumed the name of Boston, and have petitioned for their freedom at the last term of the general court, and have since absconded under a pretence that they are free. The above reward will be paid to any person who will deliver the faid flaves, or either of them, to the fubscriber, in Annapolis, or Richard Sprigg, Esq; of West river. The fellow lack will be hired to any strict master at a very reasonable rate, until next April JOHN F. MERCER.

A Hat Manufactory.

Annapolis, November 16, 1791.

TOOTELL & NORTON,

ESPECTFULLY inform the public, that they mean to open a HAT MANUFACTORY in South-East-street, in this city, on or before the 316 of January, where it will be carried on, in an extensive manner, in all its various branches. Mr. NORTON, who has been foreman to Mr. John Gray. hatter, in Baltimore-town, (and has also worked in several of the first manufactories in London,) flatters himself, that he will give general fatisfaction to those Commissions from the country, will be gladly re-

N. B. Those persons having FUR's for sale, will

The public are respectfully informed, that grow of the purposes aforesaid, by having they will be sold in ten days thereafter, for sees of imby the barrel, on the Dock. Mr. T. Johnson, ju-

Annapolis, December 15th, 1791-