MANAGERS, Messieurs John Davidson, James Shaw, John Randall, of Annapolis; colonel Uriah Forrest, colonel William Deakins, of George-town; colonel Peter Chaille, captain Levin Handy, of Worcester; Gustavus Scott, Alexander Douglass, William S. Bond, Esquires, of Dorchester; Samuel Chamberlaine, William Hindman, Esquires, of Talbot; colonel William Richardson, Peter Edmonson, Esquires, of Caroline; and James Hollyday, Esquire, of Queen-Anne's.

The above property in Dorchester county, has been deeded to the subscribers by Clement Hollyday, for the purpose of redeeming certain notes of hand passed by him to fundry persons, in small sums, to the amount of about f. 100. As a fale by lottery is the most probable mode of disposing of it to advantage, and of acquiring ready money for it, Mr. Hollyday is defirous that we should proceed to that method, and that we should receive, and retain in our hands, the money arising on the sale of the tickets, for the purpose above mentioned, and also to satisfy fundry of his creditors, some of whom have liens on that pro- informed) has been about Annapolis passing for one of perty, and who, therefore, no doubt, will acquiesce the Butlers; her name is JEMIMA (commonly called in this mode of disposing of it. The property is MIMX); she is of the middle stature, of a streight rated at a moderate valuation. Proper deeds will be and rather flender make, and has a pleasing counter executed to those who may be entitled to them after nance, when in a good humour, she took with her, the drawing of the lottery, and the cash prizes paid beside other cloathing not known, a calico habit and on demand. It is intended that the drawing shall brown linen jacket and petticoat. Whoever secures commence in the city of Annapolis, on the 22d day her in any gaol, to that I may get her again, shell reof October next. Notice will be given of the time, and a lift of the fortunate numbers published immediately after drawing.

WILLIAM CAMPBELL. Annapolis, June 18, 1792.

Inspection House for Tobacco.

HIS is to give public notice, that the inspection house for tobacco, at Beard's Point, on South river, in Anne-Arundel county, is now in readiness to receive tobacco for inspection; and, from the large quantity of that article made in the neighbourhood of South river aforefaid, it is expected that a confiderable number of hogsheads will be brought to this house during the present summer for inspection, and, from its superior quality, it is presumed all persons wishing to become purchasers of tobacco may be well accommodated, and that upon good terms.

It is thought unnecessary to expatiate on the many advantages of this warehouse, as it is so well known to be fituated on a beautiful and navigable river, and not more than ten miles distant from the bay; it is al-
