To the PUBLIC. For Establishing a Circulating Library In the City

LANNAPOLIS.

THE utility of so extensive a library, as this is proposed to be, for profit and pleasure, as well for the citizens as the students at this grand seminary of learning needs no comment.

It is proposed that books shall be purchased, to compole the library, in Europe, to the amount of 1000 guineas, that they shall consist of the latest editions of law, physic, divinity, history, science, eslays, and works of eminent writers, purchased to the best advantage, and the librarian shall covenant to add to the library books to the amount of ten guineas cost annually, at his own expence, such as the trustees shall think proper to direct.

There shall be 100 subscribers at ten guineas each, payable on the arrival of the books, and establishment of the library, and each of the subscribers shall be entitled, for the said subscription to read the books of the library for ten successive years. Every subscriber shall have the privilege of transferring his interest in the library at any time.

The library shall be duly attended by Joseph Clark, his heirs or alligns.

The books purchased shall be the property of the subscribers for the ten successive years; at the end of that period they shall become the property of Joseph Clark, heirs or assigns. A compensation for ten. years services as agent and librarian.

The terms that the subscribers shall be furnished with books from the library, and all other business relative thereto, shall be by the direction of a committee of three trustees, to be chosen immediately after the subscription is made up, and they are to be annually rechosen from among the subscribers by a majority of their voices.

A room shall be fitted up, and taken care of, in the city of Annapolis, at the expence of the librarian, sufuse of the subscribers. A printed catalogue shall be prepared for each subscriber.

A general catalogue, to be made out by the first appointed trustees, shall be as far as possible completed. Several gentlemen have suggested the following addition to the above proposals:

After the subscription is made up and the trustees elected, they shall have power to determine whether the library shall be kept the property of the subscribers, they engaging an house and librarian to take care of it. Gentlemen wishing to promote this useful plan, on those, or any other proposals, are requested to forward as foon as possible, their intention to the subscriber:
