BALTIMORE, March 12.

Arrivals on Thursday last.

Captain Perrin, of the Edward, from Surinam, informs, that he was brought on to the 18th February, off the Island of Barbadoes, by a British sloop of war, then three days out from that island, who after examining his papers, suffered him to proceed on his voyage, telling him they had no right to stop American vessels and property, coming from Dutch ports. He was further informed, that from 6 to 7000 British troops had arrived at Barbadoes, before the sloop of war failed from thence.

Captain Smith of the schooner Rebecca, 30 days from Port-au-Prince, informs, that 13 British transports, with 3000 troops, had arrived there. Captain Hamilton who left Port-au-Prince the same day, says he heard nothing of them. But as the former put into Cape-Nicola-Mole, this information from that quarter, is some days later, and is corroborated by other accounts. Both, however, agree in saying they had been looked for with the utmost impatience, and that every preparation was made for the attack of Guadeloupe and Cape-François on their arrival. Flour 15 dollars.

Annapolis, March 17.

Fourth Congress of the United States.

At the first session, begun and held at the city of Philadelphia, in the state of Pennsylvania, on Monday the seventh of December, one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five.

An ACT further extending the time for receiving on loan the domestic debt of the United States.

BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the term for receiving on loan that part of the domestic debt of the United States, which has not been subscribed, in pursuance of the provisions heretofore made by law for that purpose, be, and the same is hereby further extended until the thirty-first day of December next, on the same terms and conditions as are contained in the act, entitled "An act making provision for the debt of the United States." Provided, That the book for receiving the said subscriptions shall be opened only at the Treasury of the United States.

And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful to reimburse so much of the principal of the debt or stock, which may be subscribed pursuant to this act, as will make the reimbursement thereof equal in proportion and degree to that of the same stock subscribed antecedent to the present year; and the said reimbursement shall be made at the expiration of the quarter in which such debt or stock shall be subscribed, and pursuant to the rules and conditions prescribed by the act, entitled "An act making further provision for the support of public credit, and for the redemption of the public debt."

And be it further enacted, That such of the creditors of the United States as have not subscribed, and shall not subscribe to the said loan, shall, nevertheless, receive during the year one thousand seven hundred and ninety-six, a rate per centum on the amount of such of their demands as have been registered, or as shall be registered at the treasury, conformably to the directions in the act, entitled "An act making provision for the debt of the United States," equal to the interest which would be payable to them as subscribing creditors.

JONATHAN DAYTON, Speaker of the house of representatives.

JOHN ADAMS, Vice-president of the United States, and president of the senate.

Approved, February the nineteenth, 1796.

The subscribers, appointed by the decree of the honourable the chancery court for the state of Maryland trustees for the disposal of the real estate of ALEXANDER FRAIZER, late of Calvert county, deceased, and of JOHN ALEXANDER FRAIZER, his brother, and heir at law, will, on the twelfth day of April next, at the hour of 12 o'clock, offer at PUBLIC SALE, on the premises, all the LAND devised to the said Alexander Fraizer and John Alexander Fraizer by their father, viz.

A VALUABLE tract of LAND, lying in the county aforesaid, containing about nine hundred acres, the greater part of which abounds with heavy timber of every kind, about three hundred acres thereof is valuable meadow land; the improvements are, a neat and convenient dwelling house and kitchen, a mill, corn and mill house, several negro quarters, necessary out houses, and three tobacco houses, the most of the above improvements in good repair. There are also on the premises three apple orchards of good fruit. This valuable property lies within three miles of Chesapeake Bay, twenty-five from Annapolis, sixty from Baltimore-town, forty from the Federal city, and four from Lower Marlborough, on Patuxent river, where fish, oysters and wild fowl, may be easily had in their seasons, is situated in an agreeable neighbourhood, near to houses of worship, and convenient to mills. The above tract of land will be sold in one or more lots, as may appear to be most advisable at the time of sale. The purchaser or purchasers must give bond, with security, conditioned for the payment of the purchase money within three years from the day of sale, and for the payment of the interest thereof annually. Should the day appointed prove rainy, the sale will commence on the first fair day thereafter. Any person desirous of viewing the premises may apply to JOSEPH SPRIGG, who will give every information.

The creditors of the said Alexander Fraizer are, in pursuance of the said decree, hereby required to exhibit their claims, with the vouchers thereof, to the honourable the Chancellor within six months after the day of sale.

HENRY RIDGELY,
and
JOSEPH SPRIGG, } Trustees.

HAWTHORN RIDGE For SALE.

To be SOLD, on the twenty-fifth day of April next, on the premises,

THAT valuable estate, containing a thousand and seventy-five acres of land, in Anne-Arundel county, and state of Maryland, distant twelve miles from Annapolis, twenty-four from the capitol in the city of Washington, thirty-five from Baltimore-town, one from Patuxent river, and six from the Chesapeake; the improvements are, a new handsome framed two story mansion house, forty-four feet in length and twenty-four in breadth, commanding an extensive and beautifully variegated prospect, cellar, kitchen, pantries, housekeeper's room, stable, overseer's house, tobacco houses, and negro quarters; there are a great number of streams of water running through said tract; it abounds with rich low grounds, which may be watered at will, and converted into timothy meadow of the first quality, at least one hundred acres; upwards of four hundred acres of said estate are in rich woods, consisting of oak, hickory, poplar, mulberry, and black walnut, &c. &c. which must render it peculiarly valuable on a consideration of the scarcity of wood and timber in the adjacent country; the soil is rich, and as a part of it is adapted to the produce of small grain and part to tobacco and Indian corn, it presents an object well deserving the attention of the gentleman farmer, or planter. This estate can boast as many advantages as most in the United States; if elegance and locality of situation, salubrity of air, and fertility of soil are sufficient inducements to invite attention, Hawthorn Ridge unites them in a desirable degree. Terms of sale will be, a moiety of the purchase money to be paid on delivery of possession of seven hundred acres, including the dwelling house and its appertinances, which will be in ten days after the sale, and the balance in three equal yearly payments, with interest. Three hundred and seventy-five acres of said land are leased for a term of years, to reputable and industrious tenants, rendering a profitable rent. The purchaser must mortgage the premises as a security for the balance of the purchase money.

David Woolfe, against Mary Hayes, relict, and Jonathan Hayes, and others, heirs of Jonathan Hayes, deceased. THE object of the bill is to obtain a decree for vesting in David Woolfe a complete legal title to two tracts of land, in Frederick county, called GOOD LUCK and ADDITION, which the deceased Jonathan Hayes, on the 15th day of October, 1792, contracted and bound himself to convey unto the said Woolfe, who hath (as he alleges) paid the whole of the purchase money; the bill states, that the defendant, Jonathan Hayes, doth not reside in this state, and is therefore out of the reach of the process of this court; it is, on application of the complainant, adjudged and ordered, that he cause a copy of this order to be inserted at least three weeks successively in the Maryland Gazette, before the eighteenth day of March next, to the intent that the said Jonathan Hayes may have notice of the filing of the bill, and of the object thereof, and may be warned to appear here on or before the third Tuesday in July next, to show cause wherefore a decree should not pass as prayed.

Test. SAMUEL HARVEY HOWARD,
