

Annapolis, April 1, 1796.
THE partnership of HURST & CONOWAY is this day dissolved by mutual consent; and they return their grateful acknowledgements for the patronage they have met with from their friends, and the public in general. All persons having claims on the said firm are solicited to bring them forward for payment, and those indebted are requested to call and settle with Mr. JOHN HUAST, who purposes keeping a general assortment of GOODS, suitable to the seasons, and hopes, by due attendance, to merit future approbation.

WHEREAS it has been the common practice of sundry persons for several years past to drive down, from the distance of four or five miles through a number of enclosures, large numbers of cattle on cut grazing grounds, lying on the head of South river, which are now enclosed to the use of ourselves, we do therefore hereby forewarn all persons from attempting the like practice in future, as we are determined to adopt the most rigorous methods the law will justify to prevent a repetition of the like injury.
