Musical instruments tuned and repaired.
PETER LEDOUX,
 Mechanician,

HAVING already informed his friends, and the public in general, that he tunes and repairs all the different kinds of musical instruments generally in use in this city, such as harpsichords, spinets, forte-pianos, violins, &c. &c. he takes the present opportunity of offering his sincere acknowledgements to them, and particularly to his subscribers, for the approbation and flattering encouragement he has received, and receives every day. He engages, with accuracy, dispatch, and the most scrupulous care, to repair completely, and on very moderate terms, the instruments intrusted to his care, with punctuality. In tuning the forte-pianos of these persons who will agree with him by the year or quarter, not only in town, but also in the country, he has the fullest persuasion, and he assures those who may please to favour him with their commands, that he will give entire satisfaction. Orders left for him at Mr. Marye's, music teacher, in Annapolis; in Baltimore, at his lodgings in Pitt-street, corner of Charles-street, No. 13; or at the Musical-Repository store of Mr. Carr, No. 6, in Gay-street, will be duly attended to.
 Annapolis, August 12, 1798.

WILLIAM THOS. CLARKE, Executor.

For SALE,
A PLANTATION, twelve miles from Baltimore city, and four and a half from Elk Ridge Landing, in a very healthy situation, pleasantly situated on the Federal and Annapolis roads to George-town and Frederick, there are 300 acres, more or less, a very good apple orchard, of the best of fruit, that makes about 2000 gallons of cider yearly, as also most other kinds of fruit, abundance of fine peaches, pears, damsons, plumbs, quinces, a variety of cherries, &c. a timothy meadow, well set in grass, produces from 20 to 25 tons of hay a year. A small dwelling-house, stable for twelve horses, cider house, corn loft, and a small house for negroes; it is laid out in five fields, and 30 bushels of wheat and rye sown, in good repair, and under good fences, a spring of excellent water in each field; there are one hundred and forty acres of woodland, of various kinds of timber, very thriving timber. An indisputable title will be given. There are on the place four negro men and one woman, all young, four horses, and a good stock of cattle. If the purchaser chuses may have them with the place on hire or sale, with all the plantation utensils; upon paying of one third of the purchase money a credit will be given from one to ten years for the balance, on given bond with security, and paying the interest yearly punctually. Any person wanting further information please to apply to RICHARD RIDGELY, Esq; of the city of Annapolis.
PATRICK MACGILL.
 August 12, 1798.

RAN away from the subscriber, living in Anne-Arundel county, on the Head of South river, negro NELL, a bright mulatto slave, about thirty-eight years of age, of a thin visage, about five feet four inches high; with long bushy hair, has been in common used to house work; she is a very good spinner, and, in fact, understands how to do any thing about a house; her cloaths are uncertain, as she took with her more than one suit; she has been seen in Annapolis, and it is not unlikely but that she may now be there. I will pay EIGHT DOLLARS to any person that will bring her home, or secure her so that I can get her again.
WILLIAM HALL, 3d.
