

By order of the orphans court of Baltimore county.
THIS is to give notice, that the subscriber of the city of Baltimore, hath obtained from the orphans court of Baltimore county, in Maryland, letters of administration on the personal estate of JOHN BAXLEY, senior, late of Baltimore county, deceased. All persons having claims against the said deceased, are hereby warned to exhibit the same, with the vouchers thereof, to the subscriber, at or before the first day of March next; they may otherwise by law be excluded from all benefit of said estate. Given under my hand this eighth day of August, 1804.
GEO. BAXLEY, Administrator.

In CHANCERY, October 30, 1804.
John Poole, administrator de bonis non of Frederick Sprigg, against
Agnes Cooke, Benedict Burgess, and Samuel Burgess, and Thomas Tillard.

THE object of this bill is to revive a suit formerly instituted by Deborah Sprigg, administratrix of Frederick Sprigg, against the present defendants, which was instituted against them, and a certain Charles Cooke, senior, deceased; the said suit having for the purpose of procuring a sale of the real estate of Benjamin Burgess, late of Anne-Arundel county, for the payment of his debts; the bill states, that Agnes Cooke, Benedict Burgess, and Samuel Burgess, reside out of the State of Maryland, to wit: in the district of Columbia, in that part which was formerly a part of the state of Maryland; it is therefore, on the motion of the complainant, ordered, that by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in the Maryland Gazette three times before the twenty-third of November next, to give notice to the said absent defendants to be, and appear, in this court, on or before the third Tuesday of March next, to shew cause, if any they have, why a decree should not be passed as prayed.

Tell SAMUEL H. HOWARD,
Reg. Cur. Can.

In CHANCERY, October 30, 1804.

ORDERED, That the sales made by NICHOLAS BREWER, trustee for the sale of the real estate of JOSEPH MACCUBBIN, deceased, as stated in his report, shall be ratified and confirmed, unless cause to the contrary be shewn on or before the third day of December next, provided a copy of this order be inserted in the Maryland Gazette before the tenth day of November next.

The report states, that three hundred and seventy acres of land was sold, subject to dower, for eleven dollars and sixty cents per acre, and that a tract of land, containing one hundred and twenty-eight acres, was sold for eight dollars and ninety-four cents, clear of the dower of the widow of the deceased.

True copy,
Tell SAMUEL HARVEY HOWARD,
Reg. Cur. Can.

Ten-Dollars Reward.

RAN away, on the night of the 11th instant, from the subscriber, living on the Head of South river, about nine or ten miles from the city of Annapolis, a dark mulatto woman named SALL, she is twenty-two years of age, about five feet high, and strong made for her height, has a pleasant countenance, and when spoken to shews the whites of her eyes rather more than is common; her fingers are short and tapering at the ends, and the fore-finger on the left hand turns in more than the rest; she has a small scar on her left arm from inoculation. The cloathing that she took with her consisted of a dark calico jacket and petticoat, a striped cotton jacket and petticoat, an olive coloured muslin gown, an osnabrig petticoat and aprons, and a striped cotton and yarn jacket. The above reward will be given to any person who will secure her in any gaol, so that the subscriber may get her again, and all reasonable expences if brought home. It is probable she may be in Baltimore, as she has a brother living there, and may attempt to change her name and pass for a free woman.
MARTHA HOWARD.

Head of South river, Anne-Arundel county, October 29, 1804.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN away from the subscribers, in Anne-Arundel county, near Annapolis, on Saturday the 13th inst. two negro men, one named JERRY, about 24 years of age, 5 feet 5 or 6 inches high, his complexion is a dark mulatto, he has a scar on his upper lip, and if closely examined will find a very black spot about half way down his back, supposed to be a mark, he has a smiling countenance when spoken to; he had on and took with him an osnabrig shirt and trousers, one pair of striped Holland trousers, one black silk jacket, one kersey ditto, with sleeves, and a straw hat; he is an artful villain, and therefore it is probable he will change his name and dress, and endeavour to pass for a free man, by means of a forged pass. The other named JOHN, about 17 years of age, 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high; had on when he went away, an osnabrig shirt and trousers, a blue jacket, and an old Marcellus waistcoat, and a dark coating great coat, and a new furred hat, he is very spare, and of a dark complexion. Whoever will take up and secure the said negroes in any gaol, so that we get them again, shall receive the above reward, or TEN DOLLARS for each, and, if brought home, all reasonable charges paid. We hereby forewarn all masters of vessels, and others, from taking off, employing, or harbouring said negroes, on their peril.

2 HENRY HAMMOND,
CHARLES PETTIBONE.

NOTICE.

I MEAN to petition the next legislature of Maryland for an act of insolvency, to release me from debts which, from misfortunes, I am unable to pay.
JONATHAN S. HARDESTY.
Charles county, September 30, 1804.

By virtue of an order from the orphans court of Anne-Arundel county, will be SOLD, on Friday the second day of November next, at 11 o'clock in the forenoon, at the late dwelling-house of THOMAS COWMAN, deceased,

THE personal property of said THOMAS COWMAN, deceased, consisting of horses, black-cattle, sheep, hogs, plantation utensils, and a variety of other articles too numerous to mention. Terms of sale, for all sums under twenty dollars cash, and for all sums above twenty dollars six months credit will be given, by giving notes or bonds, with approved security.

HENRIETTA COWMAN, Administratrix.
October 14, 1804.

THE subscriber has for sale, in his assortment this fall, 4-4 and 7-8 Irish linens, ticklinburgs, and brown osnabrigs, carpets and carpeting, match coat and rose blankets, clothes of second quality, velvets and velveteens, and a few pair ladies cork soled shoes, all of which are very cheap, also keg butter of the first quality, Mocha coffee, soap, mould and dipped candles, &c.

He keeps an assortment of medicines of the best quality, which he sells in small parcels as usual.

WILLIAM WILKINS.
Annapolis, October 16, 1804.

LANDS FOR SALE.

I WILL sell eighteen hundred and fifty acres of LAND, lying on the waters of Bennet's Creek, twelve miles from Frederick-town, twenty-eight from George-town, and thirty-six from Baltimore; there are three tenements on the land, one of which is a good log dwelling-house, with two rooms, with a good brick chimney between them, and convenient out houses; the situation of this place is high and healthy, with an extensive and variegated prospect, a good orchard on it, and the water of a pure and excellent quality; the other two tenements have convenient houses for tenants, and their situations equally healthy with the former. The whole of the land well adapted to the plough of Paris. It is unnecessary to be more particular in a description of this land, as it is presumed no one will purchase without examining it. I will sell the whole together, or have it laid off in lots. The land may be seen, and the terms of sale known, by application to Mr. WILLIAM HOBBS, of Samuel, residing near it, Mr. HENRY R. WARFIELD, of Frederick-town, or the subscriber.

CHARLES ALEXANDER WARFIELD.

Notice is hereby given,

HAVING heretofore advertised, under the directions of the orphans court, for all persons who had claims against the estate of GEORGE SMITH, late of Calvert county, deceased, to bring them in on or before such a day.
