POSTSCRIPT.

WE have been politely favoured with the American Extra. of yesterday, from which we extract the following Important Intelligence, taken from a handbill published in New-York, and received by a mercantile house in Baltimore.

HIGHLY IMPORTANT AND VERY LATE NEWS FROM EUROPE.

After our paper went to press last night, we were politely favoured, by the hand of David Hinckley, Esq; with London papers up to the 31st of July, and a Liverpool paper of August 1, brought by him in the Sally-Ann, captain Glover, who arrived last evening in 32 days from Liverpool.

The Sylvia cutter, from Halifax, arrived at Portsmouth, 25th of July, with dispatches from Admiral Berkeley, respecting the affair of the Chesapeake, and which reached London the 26th (or 27th;) their contents were communicated by Mr. Canning to Mr. Munroe; and some friendly notes, it is said, passed between them. There was a general embargo from the 23d to the 31st July, to procure seamen; but the Wasp was released, it is said, at the particular instance of Mr. Munroe, and sailed the 29th, as reported, for this country, with provisional arrangements which had been agreed upon between Mrs. Munroe and the British government, with a view of preventing a rupture between the two countries. We, however, learn, verbally, that some thought she was bound to the Mediterranean. American newspaper and letter accounts had been published: The sensation which the news of the attack on the Chesapeake, and the reported feelings of the American public, made on the English nation was great.

The manufacturers and merchants, and the Americans were much alarmed; American credits were stopped; war supposed by some inevitable; and even privateers were preparing: But Mr. Canning had assured the committee, that it would not alter the situation of things between the two countries; and the chancellor of the exchequer in the house of commons, said the British government would not fail to make any atonement or reparation, which should appear due on the occasion. The English papers generally condemn Berkeley, and it is said he is to be recalled.

The chancellor of the exchequer answered, "With respect to the question relative to what he too considered a melancholy event, the capture of the American frigate Chesapeake, by a British cruiser, he could only say, as one of his majesty's ministers, that he was not informed of any of the particulars of that transaction, farther than by common rumour. His majesty's government, however, would leave no means unexercised to learn the particulars of this lamentable event, and to whom the circumstance was justly imputed; nor should they hesitate to make any atonement and reparation in their power that on a fair inquiry should appear to be due on the occasion."

HOUSE OF COMMONS, July 27.

Mr. Whitbread wished to ask the right honourable the chancellor of the exchequer a question touching the melancholy account this day received in town, respecting the capture of the American frigate Chesapeake, which had excited such general and regretful sensation in the metropolis; whether any accounts had been received by his majesty's government relative to that transaction?—Whether it was with the privity or authority of our government at home, and if it was intended to lay before the house any communication upon that subject?

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN AWAY from the plantation of the late Thomas Wm. Walker, near Queen-Anne, Anne-Arundel county, on Wednesday night the 6th inst. a Negro Woman named CHARITY, dark mulatto, about 5 feet 1 inch high, about 35 years of age, she has a broad flat face, with large thick lips, and has a habit of sucking her tongue; she is uncommonly homely, and took with her her youngest son named Moses, about 8 or 9 years of age, much darker than his mother, and at times staggers a little when he walks, from a hurt he got when an infant; they have both been seen in London-town and that neighbourhood—the said woman took with her all her cloathing, consisting of a green cotton jacket, a striped country cloth petticoat, a brown rolls petticoat, a dark calico gown, a white cotton jacket and petticoat, and two oznabrig shifts: she may have changed some of her cloathing in order to deceive. Whoever apprehends said woman and boy, or the woman alone, and will secure her in gaol so that I get her again, shall receive, if taken within 20 miles from home, 10 dollars, if over that distance, the above reward, and reasonable charges if brought home.

SAMUEL TYLER.

N. B. I forewarn any person or persons from harbouring said negroes, or from taking them on board any vessel at their peril.

A RUNAWAY,

THIS day committed to my custody a negro man who calls himself Henry Duckett, says he is free, was liberated by a Mr. Brockett of Fairfax county, Virginia, had with him a forged certificate of George Deneale clerk, to that effect; he is a well made fellow, not very black, a pleasing countenance, about five feet nine or ten inches high, his cloathing oznabrigs shirt, duck trousers and old brown coat. His owner is desired to take him away or he will be sold for expences agreeable to law.

NOTLEY MADUOX, sheriff of Peace between Russia and France.

STATESMAN OFFICE,

July 15, 2 o'clock.

We have this moment received Paris papers to 8th and Hamburg and Altona papers to the same date. The latter brings the important news of the preliminaries of peace being actually signed between Russia and France. The cordiality and seeming friendship in which the two emperors are represented living together in the same town, make us appreciate the interests of this country have not been consulted in this treaty.

STUTIN, July 2.

THE PRELIMINARIES OF PEACE BETWEEN FRANCE AND RUSSIA SIGNED.

The two emperors have had an interview, and dine in the same town, with their respective guards. This important news was received here this morning, and was brought by one of marshal Brune's aides-de-camp. The letter does not mention the place where the interview took place, but there is every reason to believe it was at Tilsit. (Abeille du 2d, July 7.)

FOR SALE,

TRACT of LAND, containing from 5 to 600 acres, lying on Beard's creek, a little below Quynn's ferry, on South river; this land is distant from Annapolis about 7 miles, and 2 from the ferry, it lays very level, and suits the cultivation of tobacco, corn, rye, &c. and a great proportion of it is covered with oak, chestnut and pine, which lay very convenient to the creek, where there are several good landings; the improvements are, a comfortable dwelling, 40 by 18, with 2 rooms on the lower floor, and 3 above stairs, an open adjoining the house, and all other necessary houses, a large garden, and a variety of fruit trees, also a large barn, 48 by 24, shedded on both sides for stabling horses and cattle; this house will hold from 8 to 10 hogsheads of tobacco. The terms of sale made easy to a purchaser who will give bond, good security, or good paper will be taken in lieu thereof. If the above plantation is not sold between the 25th of November next, it will then be sold. Apply to the subscriber,

SAMUEL MACCUBBIN.
