TO MISS.

For asking the Author why she had sleepless Nights? Ask the Sylph who round thee flies, In thy breath his pinion dips, In his eyes thy lucent eyes, In his sighs thy sighing lips—

LINES

Adapted by a Lady's being offended at her Lover's mentioning that, in general, Women were inclined to Laquacity.

NATUR'D wits, conceited, vain, Thoughts sarcastic give the rein, In lovely women's tongue: In shallow things, whole tuneless souls, In aphic music ne'er controls, By angels sweetly sung.

At if the cheek of roseate hue, Shows dark sparkling eyes in view, And shape by beauty made; Mind with wisdom amply blest, All these give rapture to my breast, O dumb my charming maid? Let her talk the live-long day, Wisely grave, or sweetly gay, Oh! let her tongue but move: It will pervade my inmost soul, Nature's deep tide will o'er me roll, And melt my breast to love.

Rapturous strains let Poets sing The wild choral lays in spring, The lark and linnets' song; Int are the pleasures they inspire, In fair one's prattle I require To charm me all day long. In the eve e'en dog and cat Their own way enjoy some chat; One purrs, the other barks; Why then should man with lordly sway In women's tongue Embargo lay? Fie, fie, conceited sparks!

Can ye may be of sense profound, And say, with folly they abound— But, can ye talk so well? Loud is your speech, as cataracts deep, In night gales hoarse from rocky steep, Or dull ill-omen'd knell:

Thou lovely woman's accents glide Smooth as the stream's unrudd'd tide, Melodious as a rill; Are flies at her mellifluous voice; O cynics! can I then rejoice If her sweet tongue lies still? How deaf to music, dead to taste, Are those who 'midst such pleasures chaste Unjoyous ever sit! O forests drear let them be sent, And ever kept in banishment, Till they regain their wit.

TRIFLES.

IN a party a few evenings since, it was asked, "Why is a Woman unlike a Looking Glass?" It was answered, "Because the first looks without reflecting, and the second reflects without speaking."

A shrewish wife pressing her husband to partake of some mock turtle soup, he peevishly replied—"No, my Dear, I thank you; I have had a surfeit of mock turtle since I married."

An officer once relating to his friend the circumstance of his having fallen over a large log when going full dressed to a ball, the other immediately replied, "that, my dear fellow, must have been a dead dog!"

TO THE VOTERS Of Anne-Arundel County, and the City of Annapolis.

GENTLEMEN, FROM the promised support of many of my fellow-citizens; I am encouraged to offer myself a candidate for the next SHERIFFALTY of this county; should I be honoured with your support on that occasion, you may rest assured, that every exertion on my part will be used to discharge the duties that will necessarily devolve on me with industry and fidelity.

I am, Gentlemen, Your obdt. servant, SOLOMON GROVES.

HENRY EVANS, BARUCH FOWLER. April 11, 1809.

ANNE-ARUNDEL COUNTY,

ON application to me, the undersigned, in the recess of the court, as an associate judge of the third judicial district of Maryland, by petition, in writing, of JASPER E. TILLY, of Anne-Arundel county, praying for the benefit of the act for the relief of insolvent debtors, and the several supplements thereto, on the terms mentioned in the said acts, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, as far as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his petition; and the said Jasper E. Tilly having satisfied me, by competent testimony, that he has resided in the state of Maryland two years immediately preceding the time of his application; having also stated in his petition that he is now in actual confinement for debts which he is unable to pay, and having prayed to be discharged from confinement on the terms prescribed in the said acts, I do therefore order and charge that the said Jasper E. Tilly be discharged from his imprisonment, and by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in the Maryland Gazette, weekly, for three months before the first day of July next, to give notice to his creditors to appear before the county court of said county, at 12 o'clock on the third Monday in September next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for the benefit, and to shew cause, if any they have, why he the said Jasper E. Tilly should not have the benefit of the several acts of assembly for the relief of insolvent debtors.

Given under my hand this 24th day of February, one thousand eight hundred and nine.

RICHARD H. HARWOOD.

A RUNAWAY.

COMMITTED to my custody as a runaway, a negro woman calling herself FANNY, who says that she was set free by JOHN WOOD, of Calvert county. She is a female child with her about 10 months old. Fanny appears to be about 26 years of age, 5 feet 6, or 7 inches high; her clothing striped country cloth jacket and petticoat, cotton shift, old shoes and stockings. The owner is desired to take her away, or she will be sold, as the law directs, for prison fees.

JOSEPH MCENEY, Sheriff of Anne-Arundel county, March 6, 1809.

A RUNAWAY.

COMMITTED to my custody as a runaway, a mulatto man, who says he is a free man, and was manumitted by a certain Thomas Miles Roberts, and sold by William Smith, blacksmith, both of Ed. Point, Baltimore. He is a blacksmith by trade, of yellow complexion, about 5 feet or 10 inches high, well made, long hair which he wears plaited, several scars on forehead, and one on his right cheek, branded by a whipfaw; his clothing a fur hat, drab coloured cloth upper jacket, two calico under jackets, one white and red and white linen shirt, blue cloth trousers, short yarn stockings and old shoes. His owner is desired to come and take him away, or he will be sold for his prison fees, and other expenses, according to law.

JOSEPH MCENEY, Sheriff of A. A. County, April 5, 1809.

NOTICE.

I INTEND to apply to the judges of Anne-Arundel county court, or to some one of them during the recess of the said court, for the benefit of the act for the relief of insolvent debtors, passed at November term, 1805, and the supplementary acts thereon.
